

Tough Luck
Tourist (having looked over historic castle, to butler)—"We've made a stupid mistake. I tipped his lordship instead of you."
Butler—"That's awkward. I'll never get it now." Dodo.

All Steamed Up
Pumping of steam from a thrashing machine engineer has been continuous for several days and probably will be continued.—Connell Brits (In.) paper.

Tasty Table
Eight of Miss D. R.'s school friends surprised her Monday night on her 15th birthday. The table was decorated in pink and white icing.—Hilton (N. Y.) paper.

You find no one today expecting to get rich or even make a great deal of money. The man who is making a living is really considered fairly fortunate. What a mighty change in a few years.

Afraid To Sleep
"Sandy McWad is nearly dead for sleep."
"What's the matter—inomnia?"
"No. The last time he went to sleep he woke up just as he was preparing to give his money away. He's afraid he won't wake up in time."

Service!
Smiling when a k.c.'s comes in. That's service!
Shooting trouble with a p.r. That's service!
Letting folks with whom you deal.

That your daily routine, feel that your smiles and your rris are real—That's Service!

GINGER ROGERS is a girl to be pitted, though you may not think so when you consider those gay, glamorous pictures that she makes with the nimble-footed Fred Astaire. But it's because of those pictures that Ginger has a grievance.

For it's as a result of all that dancing that Ginger's feet hurt. She has to practice the various new routines for days at a stretch, and then do them over and over again for the picture.

You'd think that would make her feel that, when her work was done, she'd had enough dancing. But not Ginger Rogers at all—when she arrived in New York recently for a vacation she announced that she was going to see a lot of new plays—and do a lot of dancing! As for her partner, Fred Astaire, he's so happy these days because of the arrival of his brand new son that he doesn't know whether he's on his head or his heels.

Kay Francis has a lot of fun when she dejects Hollywood; she is one of the few actresses who doesn't look actressy when she's not working; as a result of that fact, few people recognize her and she can go to the theaters and night clubs without being mobbed by admirers. She doesn't depend on dark glasses, either.

If you have sat and suffered through some of the shorts that supplemented feature pictures and decided that you could think up better ones yourself, here's your chance. Centaur Films, a new organization, would like to have the public submit ideas for short subjects—and they'll give away an automobile each day for the best idea presented!

Errol Flynn, who became famous overnight as a result of his looks and his acting in "Captain Blood," is one of the few movie stars who have really written a book—written it all himself. It must be a good publisher has accepted it. Which reminds everybody all those announcements of the novel that Jean Errol Flynn Harlow was a said over so long ago, and of the reports that it never came to anything because she had a quarrel with the person who really was writing it for her, Eliza Land. It has been published, of course; and she's used enough so that she can abandon the screen for the typewriter any time she wants to. She returned to the stage briefly not long ago, but the play was not a success, and now she's going to make some more pictures in England.

May Pickford just can't stop working. As if producing pictures weren't enough, she's going to broadcast again—this time from the projection room of her home, Pickfair.

Isabel Jewell is finally getting the breaks that she has wanted. She did very well, indeed, in "A Tale of Two Cities." Then she turned in an excellent performance in "Casting Zero." So she was given a test for the role of "Lotus" in "The Good Earth," for which practically everybody, including Anna May Wong, has been tested, and so far hers is the best. They're going to get at the making of this picture at last, and a good thing it is, too—the planning and discussing of it have been going on everlastingly, it seems.

Popular football players used to sell bonds after they were graduated from college. Now they get into the movies. If that can, Nick Luckats, a Notre Dame star, is the latest recruit.

ODDS AND ENDS—The weekly program of Bing Crosby's has become one of the most popular on the air. Add "The Ghost Goes West" to the pictures you really must see. . . . Marjorie, was actually ordered to throw things in a scene for "The Moon's Out Home" . . . Douglas Fairbanks has sold "The Man of Zorro" to United Artists, and, reluctantly, because he wanted to make it again himself. . . . With songs added, it will probably be used for Lawrence Tibbett. Myrna Loy may be teamed with Robert Montgomery. . . . John Barrymore almost lost his job in "Romero and Juliet"; however, told that he'd have to do better work, he improved so fast that he's turning in one of his best performances.

Stenographer—Mr. Barksdale, does this pen work? Mr. Barksdale—Yes, darn it—I wrote a check.
