COTTON FROCKS IN FASHION PARADE

Girls Plan Style Show As Attraction of Flower Festival

A fashion show for cotton frocks will be staged by a group of the younger girls of St. James' Episcopal church as one of the attractions of the Flower Festival to be sponsored by the choir group of St. Margaret's Guild on the grounds of the church and parish house, Saturday, May 23.

Among those who will be models in the show are Joan Baker, Marjorie Smith, Virginia Hart, Betty Minor Forsyth, Betty Ann Pense, Genevieve Gay and Caroline Giles.

The festival will have also a large exhibit of plants and flowers, a bake sale, novelty booth, and a fortune telling booth, of which Mrs. L. A. Farquhar will be in charge.

Another springtime event planned by the church will be a children's fair to be sponsored by the Servants' Guild on Saturday, June 6. E. W. Hett is director of the Guild.

Important among the features of the fair will be the annual parade, with Rev. John Spahr in charge of entries. All the attractions of the fair will be arranged to entertain and interest young people.
