AN EAGLE SCOUT POINTS TO WORLD PEACE

The great game of Scouting points the way to world peace regarding to Eagle Scout Owen W. Matthews, 3rd, an able Sea Scout and Divisional Officer of Regional Sea Scout Flotilla "Columbia" and member of Troop 83, Portland, Ore. Matthews is the winner of the Eddie Lantor 5,000 scholarship prize essay contest "Out of War".

One of 212,000 entries submitted, Matthews' wholly appropriate subject is based on his two weeks experience camping in a foreign country with 50,000 Boy Scouts from 47 different lands plus the friendships with foreign boys in the years that have followed.

The fourth World Scout Jamboree which Matthews attended as the 402 Scout and leader from the United States was held at Godollo, near Budapest, Hungary. The four judges based their decision on the quality of "the most constructive, sincere and interesting letter, regardless of fancy writing and technical knowledge."

Matthews, a Veteran Scout, has a Scout record reflecting his leadership qualities. Successively he served his Troop as Patrol Leader, Senior Patrol Leader and then Junior Assistant Scoutmaster and he has had extensive experience at Camp Meriwether, the camp of the Portland, Ore. Boy Scouts. Matthews' winning essay follows: "My idea how America can stay out of War is based on my personal experience."

WILL SING AT BENEFIT PERFORMANCE

Shown above is the General Motors Truck Company music chorus of 50 which will take part in the benefit performance to be held at the Birmingham Theatre on Friday night, May 22, at 11:15 o'clock. The fund raised will be used to supply supervisors for three playgrounds here and to keep the Barnum school swimming pool open for a period of eight weeks this Summer so that local adults and youths may enjoy a recreational program.

attitude of friendliness and goodwill, no thought of enmity, everybody showing their paramount "hunger" of creating world peace for the future.

"The real benefits from this Jamboree are being manifested as time goes on and correspond with eight Scouts I met at the Jamboree who live in the following countries: Ethiopia, Tanganyika, England, Austria, Persia, Syria, South Africa and Australia. We exchange letters, songs, literature and various articles pertaining to our respective countries and thereby continuing our worthwhile friendship. After these contacts how could we want to go to War against each other?"

"If the United States government sent picked groups of youth to these countries, with traveling expenses paid, it would open the eyes of youth the world over as to the futility of War. Upon their return to America they should deliver lectures in schools and to other youth organizations, telling the futility of youth in regard to War with other countries. If these youth are not to be, as adults, these boys will wholeheartedly disfavor war. Peace, education and enjoyment of youth from all countries will do more to further world peace than any other thing that can be done in some cases or other handling."

"Steps the movement for intelligent voting at this time, to see that the only people sent to Congress are those who will do their duty, and who will not always vote to keep us out of war."

IF WE TEACH OUR YOUTH OF TODAY THE CRIME OF TAKING HUMAN LIFE, IN WAR, THEY WILL VOTE IN THE FUTURE TO NEVER LEAVE THEIR OWN CHOICES TO FIGHT AGAINST OTHER NATIONS.

"This American can say out of War."

KING EDWARD PATRON OF BRITISH BOY SCOUTS

KNOWS FIRST AID

Walter Gibson, 16, a New Orleans boy, has been named as his first aid. When a bicycle ran into him causing his left arm to be broken, he went home where his father, who was a carpenter, made wooden splints, bandaged his arm and went on to a Scout first aid examination. Working with one arm he scored 98 per cent. Later in a hospital where his arm was X-rayed, doctors pronounced his first aid work "perfect."

RESIDENT QUON OF THE PHILIPPINE COMMONWEALTH SAYS, "THE TRAINING OF YOUTH FOR THE RESPONSIBILITIES OF CITIZENSHIP WILL BE THE MAJOR OBJECTIVE OF THE COMMONWEALTH AND SCOUTING WILL PLAY AN INCREASINGLY MORE IMPORTANT PART IN THE REALIZATION OF THAT OBJECTIVE."
