MAPLES DROP RAGGED GAME

St. Mary's Defeats Locals 10-2. Ten Errors Mark Contest

Kicking the ball about the infield and failing to take advantage of scoring opportunities, the Baldwin high school baseball team dropped its second game to St. Mary's of Royal Oak, Friday, May 8, by a score of 10-2. The game was played at Springdale Park. Just what is wrong with the team is quite difficult to make out. No single fact stands out more than the team's failure to hit with men on base, and Friday was no exception. The Maples got six hits, and had 18 men on base, but scored only two runs. St. Mary's collected nine hits and placed 21

Three members of the Washington American leaguers are sure that Cecil Travis will make a much better pitcher than third baseman. One is first baseman Frank Kuhel, the agile player who has to be thrown. Another is Manager Harris while the third is Travis himself.

"I always played short when I was an amateur and semi-pro," says Travis. "But, when Chattanooga signed me, it needed a third baseman and to third I went. Consequently, I had the third base job on me when I was sold to Washington. And, it was but natural I should remain a third baseman, at least in 1934, with Joe Connor playing short. As for myself, my fault as a third baseman was that I was not so good in catching hard hits. At short, I have more time and my arm can make the longer throw without any trouble."
