DATE OF NUPTIALS IS MADE KNOWN

Mary Hill To Become Bride At Simple Home Ceremony

Miss Mary Buffum Hill, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Perry C. Hill of Hanna street, has chosen Saturday, May 30 as the date for her marriage to Vernon Carstensen of Ellensburg, Wash., son of Mrs. Frederick Carstensen of Preston, Ia.

The nuptial service will be read in the home of the bride's parents at 11 o'clock in the morning. The Rt. Rev. Herman Page, Episcopal Bishop of the Detroit Diocese, will officiate.

Miss Hill will be unattended, but her brother, Perry C. Hill, Jr., of Madison, Wis., will be best man for Mr. Carstensen. Only members of the family and a few close friends will be included in the guests.

Among those coming from out-of-town for the ceremony, will be Mrs. Carstensen and Miss Edna Carstensen of Preston, Ia., Miss Esther Stubbs of Minneapolis, and Mr. and Mrs. Walter N. Hill of Joliet, Ill.

After the ceremony, the young couple will leave for the Pacific Coast, planning to stop en route at Iowa City, Ia., where Mr. Carstensen will receive the degree of Doctor of Philosophy.

For the ceremony, Miss Hill will wear a gown of cream Chantilly lace. Instead of a bridal bouquet, she will carry a Prayer Book. Lilies and other spring flowers will be used in disposals throughout the rooms.

Fashion Show And Bridge At Cranbrook Attracts Many To Hills

A fashion show in itself, is something in which women are keenly interested, but when the show is to be held in an outdoor setting with the charm of the Greek Theater at Cranbrook, and with the added inducements of bridge and tea, the event is bound to be one of wide appeal to woman-kind. All these reasons are no doubt responsible for the large number of Birmingham and Bloomfield Hills women planning to attend the fashion show and bridge tea to be held in the Greek Theater at Cranbrook Wednesday, May 27. Mrs. Harry R. Cooley is general chairman of arrangements.

The show, which is sponsored by the Women's Auxiliary of Christ Church (Cranbrook) for the benefit of the social service work of the church, promises to be particularly lovely. With the aid of the outdoor theater forming a natural auditor for the models as they promenade in some of the latest fashions and costumes so pleasing to the feminine eye. The guests will be seated at tables where they may enjoy a game of bridge, and there will be pouring tea in the course of the afternoon, will be Mrs. George T. Nickerson, Mrs. William B. Rose, Mrs. Hiram Perry Holmes, Mrs. W. E. Mosher and Mrs. Robert W. Woodruff. Entertaining at luncheon in their homes before the tea will be, among others, Mrs. Max Gilman, Mrs. Charles H. Welch, Jr., Mrs. George T. Jeffers, Mrs. Frank W. Shuell, Mrs. Aubrey Hood, Mrs. Campbell Harvey, Mrs. Walter G. Morley, and Mrs. Raymond White is in charge of reservations for a subscription luncheon at Devon Gables. Among those who have made early reservations are Mrs. Chas-

14 ENTRIES MADE IN YARD CONTEST

Closing Date Set Ahead To June 15th By Unit Committee

Fourteen entries had been made in the "Before and After" contest sponsored by the Birmingham unit of the Women's National Farm and Garden Association at the hour of the closing. Entries for the contest were closed. Entries may be made through committee members until June 15. Entries were divided into four classes.

The first of these included entrants agreeing to clean up themselves or assisted by members of the family. Those entering in Class 2 agree to hire only one laborer and Class Four is for those landscaping the grounds of a new home. There were no entries in Class Three for those who employ the services of an expert gardener. Entries in Class One are Mrs. Donald C. Van Pelt of Morningview Terrace, Mrs. C. M. Drake of Pilgrimage and Mrs. Edward W. Brehm of Hawthorne road, who is entered in both Classes One and Two.

Entries in Class Two include Mrs. Fred W. Johnson of Adams road, Mrs. James J. Bell, Jr., of Oakland avenue, Mrs. Harry Nickerson of Oakland avenue, Mrs. M. S. Kio, Jr., of Glenngary road, Mrs. L. S. Pyle of Euclid avenue, and Mrs. Frederick E. Booth of Harmon avenue.

Among those landscaping the grounds of new homes are Mrs. C. Hood, who now resides on Lakeside drive, but who is planning the grounds of a new home on North Fairfax road, near Oak street; Mrs. E. G. Fremont of Fairfax road, and Mrs. C. C. Heintzler of Townsend street. Others entered in the contest are Mrs. John H. Gordon and the fourth grade of the Adams School.

Those entering submitted photographs of the spot they selected to beautify before beginning the work. The same place will be photographed a second time, later in the summer, after the improvements have been made.
