

Obituary

VICTOR RICE ARBOGAST
Victor Rice Arbogast, 147 Linden Street, died at 9:45 o'clock yesterday morning in St. Joseph's Mercy Hospital following an illness of three weeks.

Mr. Arbogast was born in Springfield, Ohio in 1872. He married Elsie Clover in Chicago, later going to Paris, France, where he served for 25 years as a representative of the American Rubco Corporation, retiring a year ago.

Mr. and Mrs. Arbogast moved to Birmingham four years ago. He was a devout member of the Episcopal Church and was a member of the F. and A. M. Lodge of Springfield. He was also a member of the Royal Society of Arts, in addition to being active in the American Society of Mechanical Engineers.

Surviving are his widow, one sister, Mrs. Forest Timmins and a sister-in-law, Mrs. Clarence Arbogast, both of Springfield. Burial will be held at 9:30 o'clock.

BALDWIN STUDENTS CAST VOTES FRIDAY

Tomorrow will see the Baldwin Senior High students going to the polls to elect the new Student Congress officers. The election will take place in the gymnasium from about 8:30 in the morning till 4:30 p. m.

Seven petitions have been filed for the three offices. Charles Boynton and Dick Cross seek the presidency. Carol Giles, Phil Casey, and M. Ward Plumstead will compete for vice-president, and Helen Shaver and Marjorie Minting will vie for secretary-treasurer.

George Round and Dick Cross have charge of the committee that will put on the election.

WHO ARE YOU?

The Romance of Your Name

By RUBY HASKINS ELLIS

A Wilson? If you're like Wilson, you will perhaps be interested to know that the meaning of your name is... It is believed by the best authorities that it signified the son of William, son of the first John Wilson, one of the earliest settlers in this country.

These were many others of this name who came to New England and settled there at an early period. Among them was William Wilson, a settler in Connecticut, who was a soldier in the Revolutionary war.

Among those who followed was James Wilson, the philosopher of the American Revolution, who was born in Scotland, but who spent his early years in the United States.

Franklin, James Wilson married Anne Adams and resided in Andover before he moved to New York City. His wife had a number of children, including the statesman, James Wilson.

It is interesting to note that James Wilson was one of the signers of the Declaration of Independence. He was a member of the Continental Congress and served as a justice of the Supreme Court.

Wilson is a name of Scotch descent, and for that reason was a name of the Scottish immigrants who came to this country. It is a name of great distinction and honor.

Old Custom for New Hubby

Charles Chaplin and his new bride, Paulette Goddard, are seen here in a scene from their latest picture, 'Modern Times'.

Charles Chaplin, who is well known to Birmingham movie fans as Jock Zeddemerboon, is now in the city on his way to Europe as fast as he could get there.

STAR DUST

Movie • Radio

By VIRGINIA VALE

ARMIDA, the fascinating little Mexican girl who has made a name for herself on the screen, the stage and the air (at present she's heard from coast to coast on the "Paris Night Life" program) recently returned from Hollywood to New York with a lot of information about the radio programs which screen stars like her.

She found that Charlie Chaplin does not listen to radio comedians; he likes the broadcasts of symphony concerts and the songs of Lawrence Tibbett, John Charles Thomas and Nina Martin.

Chaplin likes to hear Dick Powell sing; he listens to Rudy Vallee's broadcasts, too. As to Jessica Dragonetti, John Crawford and what Claude Rains does every time.

Jots 'n' Jest
ITALY'S victory over Ethiopia prompted China to buy 60 new Italian bombers, a $1,000,000 order, one hopes American industry doesn't copy Mussolini's advertising stunt.
Residents of the Bronx, New York, have had to depend solely on their newsmen since the barriers went on strike.
Government officials in Canton, China, have forbidden Chinese women to curl their hair, leading us to wonder if they have any power with regard to hair.
Those arm rest and seat attachments suggested for WPA workers' shovels might also be incorporated in Kansas State Penitentiary guards' guns, since all shovels have been taken from the prison.

OPTIMISM SHOWN IN BUSINESS SURVEY
Nationale reports to the Dept. of Commerce indicated that the outlook for retail trade is decidedly optimistic in some regions, while in sections where sales were affected sharply over the previous year, it is substantially all over the clouds of gloom over last year's outlook.
Industrial activities were well sustained, employment gains in some more general and constant of activity accelerated. Crop prospects were made much brighter by favorable weather conditions, and there was a wide spread feeling of optimism.

MEMORIAL DAY
The day is here when we think of those who have given their lives for their country. It is a day of remembrance and a day of prayer for the souls of our heroes.
