ALMANAC Scout News By JULES F. WENZL. Deputy Commissioner. (Approximately 200 awards will be made to Boy Scouts representing seven troops in Birmingham and Bloomfield Hills at the regular Court of Honor to be held in the Community House Friday evening, May 29, at 8 o'clock. Under the supervision of Mr. W. A. Shunk, principal of Bloomfield Hills school, a program that promises enthusiasm in the way of spirit and enticement will be offered. In addition to the awarding of Clay and Merit Badges awards, brief remarks will be made by Mr. Amer Shields, Executive of the Detroit Area Council and the Rev. W. Hamilton Aulenbach, who will make the presentation of 40 Eagle badges, the highest rank of Scouting. The awarding of the advancement trophy to the Troop making the highest number of advancements for the period will also take place at this time. All young people of the community and their parents are invited to attend the affair. No admission charge will be made. District Committee Meeting. Scouting took on added luster as a result of the final District Committee meeting of the season held last Thursday evening at Camp George. Presided by a dinner attended by approximately 40 Scouters of the District Committee, this interesting get-together was arranged as a special tribute to Birmingham's seven Scoutmasters, honoring them for their many services rendered during the past season. Presided over by chairman Howard D. Crull, the program included a talk by W. P. McKenna, Organization Director of the Detroit Area Council, and reports by the various committee chairmen, and the presentation of tokens of appreciation to the Scoutmasters by Scouts representing their respective Troop. The Scoutmasters who were so honored are: Joe Stroop, Jr., Troop 1; Harold Webster, Troop 2; Howard D. Crull, Troop 3; Ernest Engle, Troop 4; George W. Beach, Troop 5; Carl Wood, Troop 6; and Leroy Weiser, Troop 7. Saturday, June 13, the annual Boat Hike of the Detroit Area Council will be held. This year as in the past, the group of some 2000 Scouts and Leaders will journey to Put-In-Bay where a special program of frolic and fun, including a parade, games, and the traditional treasure hunt will be held. It is expected that a group of 35 or 40 Scouts from Birmingham will attend. Tickets are on sale at the price of 40c for children or Scouts and 75c for adults. Those desiring to make reservations please stick at 471.

STICKERS ON ONE-THIRD OF CARS TOTAL $1,992 Through the sale of automobile half-year permits or "stickers" had, on May 15, exceeded the entire sticker sale for 1935, the percentage of all motor vehicles equipped with stickers contracted the same—slightly more than 32 per cent of the total registration. On May 15, 1936, stickers sold totaled 381,992, with total plate sales recorded at 598,741, making a total registration of 1,180,723 motor vehicles. (By August 1, 1935, deadline for use of stickers, 414,300 had been sold. Plate sales in 1935 totaled 1,242,951, the total 1935 motor vehicle registration.

Last of the outstanding targets of federal agents, Thomas H. Robinson, Jr., is shown here being led from the plane which carried him from Glendale, Calif., scene of his capture, to Louisville, Ky., where he pleaded guilty to kidnaping Mrs. Bryer Stoll, and was sentenced to life imprisonment. Robinson, in felt hat, is the center figure.

Happenings of Long Ago

Bits of News Gleaned From Old Files Of The Eccentric—The Items That Make Up The Historical Background Of The Birmingham Of Today.

FIFTY YEARS AGO. Screen door now. They do say Frank Walker is quite a masher. Steve Troubridge orbits the Fourth at Saratoga. Cal Jenkins is "cittin' there" on his chariot in great shape. Martin O'Neil has just finished a fine job of roof tiling on Jule Bunzel's new barn. Deputy Sheriff Bette is rather full of business nowadays, and he attends to it very successfully too. Birmingham has a club of ten bicycles, each with a rider, and any number of riders without a machine. Mike Jefferys, one of the lumber king objects to being called "colored" and says he is a free man. There was a case recently stolen from a citizen's buggy by two young men, who, if they don't check their headlamps in their downward course, will soon be safely sheltered behind bars. John W. McFarland of buck wood precinct fame is gaining a great notoriety in Tinseltown County as an auctioneer, and now we all know what that long, double pointed tongue of his was made for. They're Biting Now - in Michigan. For many a man—and woman too—the completely perfect vacation is one that provides plenty of opportunity for fishing... in places where there are plenty of fish to be caught. The State of Michigan was designed by Nature for the special benefit of such vacationists. If you prefer lake fishing, here hundreds of lakes are waiting for you to cast your line from boat or shore. If you are seeking trout, you can find many crystal streams within Michigan's borders—streams widely and justly famed for the trout that lurk in the clear, deep pools that anglers seek in their favorite streams. To reach these pleasure haunts, and other vacation spots of Michigan, you have modes of travel which will add to the enjoyment of your holiday. You have fine lake liners on which you can travel without the bother of passports or visas. You have the best of modern trains, buses, planes. Or splendid highways for motor touring—intersting roads that wind through forests, past many golf courses; roads of romance that offer you charming views of sparkling water, and lead you to good inns and hotels, to resorts large and small, and to comfortable, economical tourists' camps. We urge you to consider Michigan for your own vacation. And let your out-of-State friends know what a fine playground awaits them here. You will be doing them a favor—and promoting profitable good will for your native State. As our part in such promotion, this series of advertisements is being published in newspapers throughout the State by a Michigan organization that can prosper only as the other citizens of Michigan prosper.
