and THAT

By G. R. A.

FISH THAT DIDN'T GET

FOR a number of years
HAVE spent many days
NNUALLY trout fishing NN Michigan's various FIREAMS. To me, trout
F

months

EACH year, between trout seasons,
IS a period of trying time—

ring AUSE a trout fisherman

each SEASON'S opening. April 25

gan. THE day was cold and windy; THE next day—hardly a fish APPARENT. Only occasional rises. THEN came Monday, April 27,

I selected a favorite spot on THE famous Pere Marquette FOR four hours I fished both

AND wet fly methods; not a single RISE. I came, in my waders, to a SPOT on the river where an BRIDGE had been, during the old LOGGING days; a bit of it still REMAINED; against it were niled piled VARIOUS lengths and kinds of driftwood.

IT created, with the help of the RIVER'S strong current, a dee POOL, an ideal location for BIG TROUT. Here, anyway, I had to walk BACK to the car. I snipped the two two two WET files from my Paul H. Young leader and—(Please excuse me, you true purists)

I decided to fasten a small size Ffleuger 2-0
COLORADO apinner, without any

WORMS (oh, restore me par-WUMMS (oh, restore me par-tially TO your good graces, True, Purista) Purista) In that tiny apinner INTO the maw of the pool's CURRENT, Fifty feet of my HDH HDH otherwise the grades of my HDH and the grades of my HDH of the property of the property of the my HDH of the property of th

of FISHERMAN'S Expectation &

FIGHERMAN'S Expectation & Hope.
THIS time I allowed sixty feet
OF line to go down the river
IN search of a customer. Well,
IT happened! For the next 25
MINUTES I endured a MIXTURE of numerous emo-

WADED, ran, plunged, climbed AND did everything but swim down half mile of the fast and heavy ERE Marquette River. When INALLY ceased my activities. T my feet, on the bank of the river,

LAY an eight and three-quarter POUND Rainbow trout, a trifle over 28 inches in length. My third fishing DAY of the 1936 season had given ME the kind of a fight and a fish THAT trout fishermen the world OVER EXPECTANTLY look forward

I'M having the fish mounted. PROBABLY enter it in one or more FISHING contests. But some-regarding TROUT fishing. I'll always hop-

RIGHT now I make this vow, and ver keep it: from hence-back to HIS own domestic habitat, to live OUT his span of life, to outwit THE skill of some other trout FISHERMAN whose HOPE

impelleth (Turn to Page 2, No. 1)

NATION'S BEST PROS WILL TEE

SPRINGDALE PARK OPEN FOR SEASON

nicipal Recreation Center Offers Facilities For Varied Sports

NATIONALBANK BLDG. SOLD FOR $50,000 CASH

Receiver Cooley Of Defunct First National To Use Fund For Dividends

Have You Met?

ANNEXATION OF LAND STUDIED

City Commission Asked To Take Over Tract In North-west Section

CITY OFFICIALS TO LOSE JOBS MONDAY

Twelve Municipal Positions Will Be Filled By De-Molay Order

School Board Lays Plans For Coming Year's Schedule

EVIDENCE HEARD

CAPTAINS AND New Tax Laws In AIDES WILL BE 1937 To Relieve 1937 To Relieve Homes Of Burden

Rep. V. J. Brown, Chairman, Tax Commit-tee, Reveals Future Plans In Talk Here Tuesday Night

PROPOSES CONTROL OF PLATTING

DELEGATES TO LAUNCH PEACE DRIVE, MAY 13

IN HOTELING CASE Arguments Will Be Made Before Judge Lederle's Court Today

WILL SAVE YOU Time and Money

Phone 11

Our Want Ad Dep't will assist you. Rates as low as 25c per Adv.

The Birmingham Eccentric