HOWE THINCLADS BOW TO CRANES

Locals Win 60 to 40 On Soggy Field; Buffalo Team Here May 9

The Cranbrook track team defeated the thinclads at Howe Military Academy 69 to 40 on Saturday, May 2nd. The meet was run under very trying conditions due to a heavy rainfall during the morning, only a very few times were recorded since the improvised track was not accurate in its distances. Both teams are to be congratulated for their fine performances under such adverse conditions. The basketball game and tennis match were cancelled on account of wet grounds, but the tennis team will play at Howe on May 10th to compete with the cadets. The track events were run off in the following manner: 100 yard dash—Time: 11:22—Senior (H); 220 yard dash—Smith (H); 440 yard dash—Smith (H); 880 yard run—Tilly (H); 1760 yard run—Baldwin (H); 3520 yard relay—Cranbrook—Avery, Franklin, Roe, Seiler, W. Lewis—Howe—Cassell, Caldwell, Gammell, Smith; 120 yard high hurdles—Time: 11:43—Baldwin (H); 120 yard high hurdles—Time: 10:58—Hoffman (H); 42 pound lift—Distance: 8' 5 1/2"—Porter (H); 42 pound lift—Height: 9' 7"—Oetting (H); Broad Jump—Distance: 18' 5"—Seider (H); High Jump—Height: 5' 5 1/2"—Hoffman (H); Frank Hoffman of Cranbrook was high point man with 13 points. So far this year Hoffman has led the team with a total of 34 points. Cranbrook's next track meet was on Saturday, May 9th when the thinclads from Nichols School in Buffalo journey here for the meet.

SCHOOL NEWS

Baldwin Senior High Basketball high school track team, which is undefeated thus far this season, breezed through a practice meet with Wayne High Monday, May 4, swamping their opponents by a score of 91 to 13. The meet was held at Percie Field, Birmingham. The next regular meet will be with Royal Oak, Birmingham, traditional rivals, at Royal Oak tomorrow, May 8. Royal Oak also has a strong squad, and the meet will be closely contested one. The results of this meet will give some idea of the showing the Eagles will make at the Regional meet next week.

The high school golf team split a ten day week, losing to Royal Oak by a score of 95 to 23, and downing Mt. Clemons by a score of 27 to 21.

The Baldwin high school tennis team, augmented by the addition of Holden Drury and Winston Oak to its singles ranks, lost a match with Cranbrook last week by a score of five matches to two. The results of individual matches: Staples—Erye vs. Simms—0-2; 1-5; Hulbert vs. Galt—0-2; 2-5; 0-2; 1-5; Watkins—0-2; 1-5; 0-2; 1-5; Dury vs. Bishop—1-0; 0-2; 1-5 vs. 0-2; 1-5; Results of the doubles matches—Hulbert and Forster vs. Sear and Leland—0-2; 0-2; forfeited by Cranbrook to Birmingham; Drury and Erye vs. Gilbert and Morgan—0-2; 0-2; 0-2. The fourth annual banquet of the Girls Athletic Association will be held May 10, at the Birmingham Community House for the mothers and their mothers. Betty Sheridan, social chairman for the Senior G. A. A. and Dorothy Wainwright, social chairman for the Junior G. A. A., are in charge of the banquet. The installation of new officers and the presentation of awards will immediately follow the supper.

The following is a list of those who have earned awards: Major E. J. Scott, Margaret McKee, Helen Manning, and Elizabeth Olson; B. I. S., Cora Mae, Marion, Ellen Anderson, Mildred DeWitt, Elizabeth Pratt, and A. V. Vancaro; Class Numerals—Anna Mary Adams, Helen Henry, Mary Egan, Helen Lee, Estelle Jones, Louise Moorhead, Caroline Melton, Wilton Ryan, Ruth Seay, Sibyl Smith, Frances Stealey, Ellen Anderson, and Louise Vancaro. Awards will be given to those in the senior high as follows: Major—Ruth Cowen, Charlotte Dulbos, Cameron Higgins, Ruth Manning, Margaret Corryell, Betty Hart, Jeanette Williams, and Louise Manning; Sophomore—Lorraine Haefner, Barbara Rhodes, Sue King, and Lewis Lucille Chapman; Junior—Kathleen, Martha Phillips, Virginia Olson, Virginia Nicholson, Jane Collins, Carol Clark, Mary Louise Quinn, Catherine Swaffner, Margaret Corryell, Marion Hoover, Peggy Clark, Marion Dulbos, Ester Farr, Jane Weller, and Ruth Cowen.

Silhouettes of the various sports of the members of the G. A. A. have participated in, and a group of sixteen Danish folk dancers will be featured at the describing of the sports in which the outstanding member of the athletic sport does the silhouetting. The Danish folk dancers will offer to teach any of the girls their dances if anyone so wishes it. New officers for the Girls Athletic Association both Junior and Senior High were elected on May 1. The new officers will be installed at the Award Banquet on May 19.

The following were elected to the various offices: Senior High—Barbara Pratt, President; Mildred Daley, Vice-President; Alice Adams, Treasurer; Anna Mary Adams, Recording Secretary; Dorothy McCombs, Corresponding Secretary; Fidelity Chapman, Secretary; Fidelity Chapman, Social Chairman; Ruth Seay for the Junior High—Cameron Higgins, President; Jane Collins, Treasurer; Charlotte Dulbos, Recording Secretary; Ruth Cowen, Corresponding Secretary; and Dorothy Manning, Publicity Chairman.

Two movies were presented for the Junior High assembly last Wednesday by the S. A. homeroom. The first was a Grandland Race Shortlight on swimming and the second was a Land and Hardy comedy. Mrs. Shan gave a short talk on the current Community House Day. A five inning baseball game between the Baldwin 8th grade and Adams school last Thursday turned out 8 to 7 in favor of the Baldwin team. The batter's for Adams were Bardeles and Kendall pitching and Pardee catching; for Baldwin Bruce pitching and Austin catching.

Barnum Junior High Mr. Clyde Woodin and his two talented daughters, Janet, Lou and Lilly, eleven, were presented by the Patriots homeroom of Barnum Junior High in an assembly on Wednesday, April 25. Mr. Woodin, of Detroit, is a pianist and accompanist; his daughters in their songs and dances.

Features of the program were "School Days" sung by the entire school, a piano interpretation of the song "Columbia an Influenza" by Mr. Woodin, and a musical by Fred Astaire and Gene Rogers in "Top Hat" by Lilly and Janet. The program proved so immensely popular that Lilly was obliged to return for an encore of "Sylvia". Mrs. E. Farrar, then briefly addressed the students in behalf of the Community House Fund and the part which it will play in the school. On Monday, May 4, the Barnum Council sponsored the movie
