Why Physicians Write Prescriptions

By SCHETTLER DRUG CO.

The following explanations of why physicians write prescriptions were made by a very busy and eminently successful doctor.

"Because the patients' interest can best be served in that way. No individual doctor can afford to stock the many rare drugs indicated from time to time in the treatment of unusual cases."

"Few individual practitioners' offices are adequately equipped to do the laboratory work necessary at times to analyze the potency or freshness of drugs and chemicals or to compound the drugs in the proper and scientific manner for the patient."

He might also have said that graduate pharmacists only are permitted by law to fill prescriptions.

This is the sixth of a series of Editorial Advertisements appearing in this paper each week.

Players' Program Marked By Variety

Three distinctive types of one-act plays will be included in the performance of the Village Players Saturday evening at the Playhouse. Many are familiar with Sir James M. Barrie's "Rosalind," which will open the program. The title of the second play, "Wedding Rehearsal" seems to indicate a sketch of the light and entertaining variety, and the third, "Gloria Mundi" by Patricia Browne, exemplifies a more serious strain in dramatic writing.

Mrs. George P. Raynale assisted by Mrs. A. J. Hart and Mrs. Clarence G. Heinmiller, will direct the Barrie play. George M. Dwelley is directing "Wedding Rehearsal," with the assistance of D. S. Hastreiter and Mrs. Henry Hemstead. Mrs. Bruce G. Booth is in charge of properties.

Directing "Gloria Mundi" will be Mrs. Robert F. Tillotson assisted by Mrs. Carleton Scott.

There will be the usual and amusing niffties or shorts, "Sweeptakes," adapted and directed by Mrs. Paul Neal Averill, and "Blackmail" adapted and directed by Mr. Dwelley. Taking part in the first nifty will be Harry G. Muehlman and Mrs. Sidney A. Wells.

Concluding the evening will be the usual midnight supper. The performance is for members only.

Church Holds Keno Party

The annual Thanksgiving Keno party sponsored by Holy Name Catholic Church will be held this evening in the school hall. In addition to the regular prizes for the game, will be door prizes including a ton of coal and 10 turkeys.

Fashion Tips

Fashions of today have widened the horizon for the "plump" damsel and even offer her the very latest and the comfort of knowing that she can be, at last, in the height of style.

Of course, there are extremes that must be avoided by the slightly-over-weight sister but she may still indulge her yen lame and new fol-de-rol to a degree not enjoyed for years.

Tunics, which are slightly flared and, consequently create an up-and-down effect are especially good for her.

Dinner and evening dresses may be as regal and gorgeous as she may desire, especially if they are created in supple satin, soft velvets or crepes. Of simple lines, with soft shirrings and drapings, they may sweep to the floor, giving her the much-to-be desired height.

All of the rich, deep colors of this season are especially suited to her, such as dark green and wine, the new browns, and black, which is the very last word this season. The new Coronation Blue and Holyrood Green and the dull "off" shades will add enormously to her smartness but nothing to her proportions.

TABLE PRIZES TO BE CHRISTMAS TREES

A. A. U. W. Arranging Novel Bridge And Program For Yule Party

Christmas trees with their branches transformed by shimmering silver will be the novel table prizes offered at the bridge and musicale to be given by the Birmingham Branch of the American Association of University Women for their Christmas celebration, Friday, Dec. 11, at the Community House.

The trees, which are being brought down to Birmingham from up near Duluth, will be tinted with silver to give them a more festive look, and will be used as part of the decorations for the party.

Bridge will be followed by a musical program with Mrs. Helen Wagner Neff leading the singing of carols. Mrs. Neff will play several piano solos. Mrs. James J. Reilly, Jr., will play a group of Christmas numbers on the xylophone, accompanied by Mrs. A. W. Berndt.

Mrs. H. G. Wood is general chairman of the committee assisted by Mrs. L. B. Billings, Mrs. F. F. McKinney, Mrs. C. F. Dye, Mrs. W. Cott Allee, Mrs. Frank H. Mellinger, Mrs. W. F. Tighe, Mrs. Reilly, and Miss Evangeline Pursell. Mrs. Bruce G. Booth will be in charge of refreshments, which will follow the program.

Pineapple Bavarian Cream

Soften 2 tablespoons of gelatin in ½ cup cold water. Then dissolve in ½ cup hot water. Add 1 cup sugar, stir until free from all crystals. Combine with 2 tablespoons lemon juice, ½ cup grated pineapple, pinch of salt. Set aside to cool, and when of a thick, syrupy consistency, beat until it hangs from the beater. Fold in carefully 2 cups whipped cream. Pour into wet molds and serve very cold.

Hills Garden Unit Plans Annual Exhibit Of Christmas Greens

The holiday season will be welcomed in the Swedish manner by the Bloomfield Hills Unit of the Women's National Farm and Garden Association, with "Svenskt Esterniddags Kasse," to be held Monday, Dec. 7, in the Guild Hall at Cranbrook. The Swedish coffee hour, which is what the long name means, will follow the annual exhibit of Christmas greens to be held on the upper floor of the Guild Hall.

The greens display promises to be more elaborate than in the past. One unusual feature will be the Table of Nations, of which Mrs. Louis Kahn is in charge, and which will represent Yuletide decorations of many countries. There will be six classes in the show, which are open to members of the Unit and their friends.

Of particular interest will be the class for the arrangement of Christmas dinner tables, with Mrs. Marc Patten in charge. The tables will be complete with everything but the flat silver, with decorative suggestions for entertaining holiday guests.

The third class will be for winter bouquets composed of evergreens, berries and grasses. The fourth class called, "Ladies In Bed," will be for the arrangement of Christmas trays for invalids, and those who because of illness are forced to spend the festive season in bed.

Those always on the watch for new ideas in wrapping and decorating Christmas packages, will be interested in the fifth class. Originality will count in this class for the unusual and unique manner of wrapping and tying gifts.

The sixth class will be for special exhibits, and the exhibitor may use her own ingenuity to the utmost. Anything new, not included in the other five classes will be welcomed in this class. Prizes will be offered for each class, and in the last two, will be awarded for originality. Judging the contest will be Mrs. John B. Redfield and Mrs. William Beresford Palmer.

Mrs. Carleton Fox is in charge of arrangements for the day, and assisting her are Mrs. Kahn, Mrs. Edith M. Forbush, and Mrs. William Purves.

Thanksgiving Means Special Menu Plans

Why not make this Thanksgiving a notable one in the minds of your family and friends. Be sure to make definite plans, the smooth running of the Thanksgiving dinner depends on careful planning, thus relieving the strain of last minute details. Here are some recipes that will assist the hostess during the stay of her guests.

Cranberry Jelly

4 cups cranberries
1 cup water
2 cups sugar

Wash cranberries, add water, cook until tender, about fifteen minutes. Remove from fire and press through a colander. Add sugar and boil about five minutes or until jelly. Fill molds and set aside to cool.

Cranberry Ice

4 cups cranberries
2 cups water
2 cups sugar
½ cup lemon juice
1 teaspoon vanilla

Cook cranberries in the water until they are soft; run through a fine sieve. Add sugar and stir until dissolved, add lemon juice and vanilla. Mix well. When cold pour into tray and freeze. Stir frequently. Serve with the meat course of a dinner.

Thanksgiving Canape

Toast thin small rounds of bread until a delicate brown. Spread with pimento butter, made by mixing mashed pimento with creamed butter. Slice hard boiled eggs and remove the yolks. Press yolks through and let fall generously over buttered toast. In center of each piece of toast place a ring of egg white and fill the center with finely chopped pickled beets.

Crab and Noodles in Patty Shells

Saute one teaspoon of minced onion in 2 tablespoons of butter. Remove onion and blend into it 2 tablespoons of flour and 2 cups of milk. Add ½ pound of crab flakes and previously cooked noodles. Allow 1 cup of dry noodles. Salt to taste. When ready to serve add 2 teaspoons of chili sauce. Fills 8 patty shells.

Vegetable Salad

1 package lemon gelatin
1½ cups boiling water
2 tablespoons vinegar
1 cup shredded cabbage
½ cup diced celery
2 tablespoons green pepper chopped
½ cup peas—salt
½ cup cooked diced carrots

Dissolve the gelatin in the boiling water. Cool, add all the ingredients. Stir well and pour into individual molds. Unmold on lettuce, serve with mayonnaise.

Date Roll

½ pound marshmallows
½ pound dates
½ pound graham crackers
½ cup chopped nuts
½ cup sherry wine

Cut marshmallows in quarters and drop into wine. Roll the graham crackers into crumbs. Combine with nuts and dates. Add to first mixture. Shape into a roll. Let stand 24 hours in refrigerator. Slice and serve with whipped cream.

Thanksgiving Cake

1 pound butter
7 eggs
1 pound flour
1 pound shelled pecans
2 teaspoons baking powder
1 teaspoon nutmeg
½ pint rosewater
1½ pounds raisins
½ pound citron

Cream sugar and butter, add eggs beaten separately and half of flour; use other flour to dredge the fruit. Add baking powder, nuts, raisins and citron which has been cut in thin pieces. Bake in an angel cake pan in oven 275 degrees for 1 hour.
