

IMAGINARY INTERVIEWS

I AM THANKFUL THAT I WAS TOSSED ASIDE BY PRISCILLA INSTEAD OF SOME NIGHT CLUB CUTIE!

In the Thanksgiving spirit our Cub turns back the clock and interviews Miles Standish!

FOLLIES OF THE GREAT—By Plorkin & Thorndi

HERE 'N THERE - By Gene Carr

ODDITIES—LAND, SEA AND AIR By C. Y. Renick

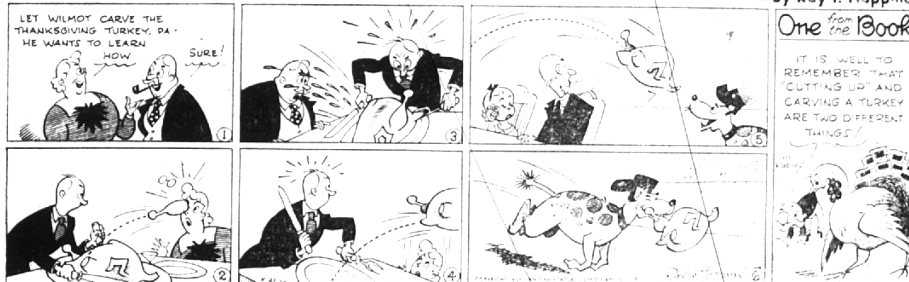

KITTY KELLY AND NELLIE SHANNON

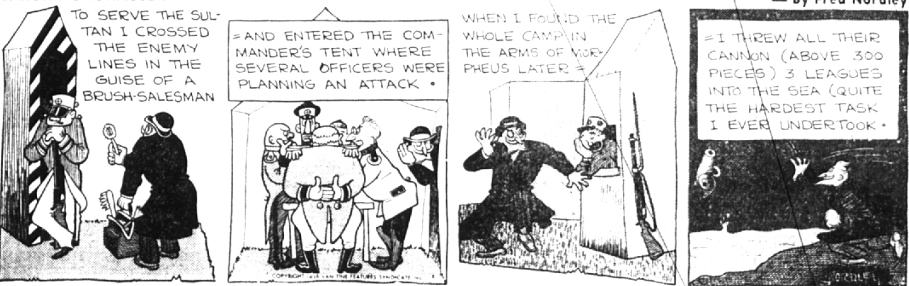

BOZO AND THE BARON

DON'T BE LIKE THAT!

BARON MUNCHAUSEN

RUMPUS

DON'T LAUGH —

PARAGRAPHS

American Place Names Presenting: Radiant, Va. Short Short Story A Louisiana Share-the-Wealth

Trouble with a horse like Roanoke is the race would be over before a bet could be placed on him—Paducah Sun-Democrat.

Critical Note What if the platform isn't carried out? Nobody tries to preserve the best after it has caught the fish—Toledo Blade.

Spanish Motors Gen. Franco, who tells his exuberant Spanish rebels that motor cars don't grow on bushes, has just never been around here on a holiday afternoon—San Francisco Chronicle.

Double Threat "In recent years," says a political observer, "radio has done away with the front-porch campaign." Well—radio and the wolf—Detroit News.

Unusual An absent-minded Norfolk (Va.) bandit, who tried to rob a shooting gallery, learned that the proprietor knew his business—Boston Transcript.

Needless So far as popular identification goes, it occurs to us that the inclusion of Shirley Temple in the latest edition of Who's Who in America is superfluous—Lowell Leader.

Hiccups A physician recommends standing on the head to cure hiccups. But, dear, a person rarely has a severe attack of hiccups until his condition is such that he can hardly stand on his feet—Jacksville Journal.

Biscuit Requests A man is started to have written his will on a biscuit. We suppose that after the lawyers have had their share the legates will eat a few crumbs—Punch, London.

The Irons of It And lion woodpeckers whip and whiff themselves after hours, but all week have missed the final performance at the opera house here, due to injury. Just before the last show the woodpecker threw an accident in his dressing room. He cut himself while shaving—Idaho (Mc.) Dispatch in Variety.

Jest For Fun

Stew, Blue or Dew? Waitress—Here's your short cake, sir. Customer: You call that stew? Take it out and berry it!

Making It Plain Central—"Innocent?" Prof. or Lettink "No, no, I called for twelve acres. The square root of 88,204, you know."

Ready for the Operation "I am afraid you will have to be under the knife." "All right, doctor, choose your weapons."

Better Still "I started in life without a penny in my pocket," said Smith. "And I, put in Jones, 'started in life without a pocket.'"

Time Element "Dinner—This is a very small piece of steak you have brought me." Waitress—That's all right, sir. You'll find it will take you a long time to eat it.

Hunting Postman's Wife—Why are you not all tucked out? Postman—I am, I've been all over town looking for a girl named "Fragile."

Honest Tool The Judge—What was the last bit of real work you did? The Accused—Me? That was when I was a photographer's model at the police bureau of identification.

Keeps 'Em Waiting Jones—Do you hear very often from that old rich aunt of yours? Smith—Yes, at each New Year's she sends me a postal card informing, "Children, I'm still living."

Contagious The Doctor—You are getting thin, Singer. Are you ill or are you intentionally reducing? Mr. Singer—Unfortunately reducing. It's a disease. I caught it from my reduced salary.

Step Lively "Old Lady" sat the food—And when the hot steam rolled out, what steps would you then take? "Lucky Day—Some long and fast ones, certainly."

A Happy Accident Klatskanie, the "Power" —Yes, I have just learned that you have published my "Mealy in 40 Miles" upside down.

The Publisher—Yes, we made that mistake. But for the love of Mike, don't kick. All the last week's cheaters are playing it that way and it's making a hit.