Some New Recipes For Pan-Cake Time

Good batter cakes which waffles are one of our most acceptable dishes. They may be served for so many informal occasions. Prepare the batter ahead of time if need be, as soon as mixed, cover and place in the refrigerator. When ready to bake heat the griddle just hot enough to make cold water thrown in it sputter a good deal. Drop the batter by spoonfuls in the griddle, bake 2 or 3 minutes, then turn with a large spatula and continue baking until the second side is browned. Serve at once.

Standard Batter Cakes

1 cup milk
1 1/2 cups flour
1 to 2 tablespoons fat
1/2 teaspoon salt
2 teaspoons baking powder
1 tablespoon sugar if desired
1/2 teaspoon soda

Mix and sift the dry ingredients, beat the egg slightly and add to the other ingredients, then stir them gradually into the dry. Add the melted fat. Bake on a griddle, lightly greased if necessary.

Quick Buckwheat Cakes

1/4 cup flour
1/2 teaspoon baking powder
1/2 teaspoon salt
2 tablespoons sugar
1 1/2 cups buckwheat flour
2 cups buttermilk
1 teaspoon soda
3/4 cup water
2 tablespoons melted fat

Sift the white flour, baking powder, salt and sugar together. Mix with the buckwheat flour. Pour the buttermilk in a bowl. Dissolve soda in the water and add to the buttermilk. Mix and add melted shortening, then the dry mixture. Beat until smooth. Bake and serve at once.

Bacon Pancakes

For standard batter cakes, add 1 cup of bacon fried until crisp and cut in small pieces. Bake as usual. Serve with cheese sauce.

Apple Batter Cakes

Select tart, juicy cooking apples. Pare, core and cut in rather small thin slices enough of them to give 1 cup. Get ready the ingredients for the standard batter cakes and add apple to the wet ingredients. Add the wet to the dry and finish as for plain batter cakes. Serve with butter and sprinkle over cakes when served a previously prepared mixture of parts sugar with 1 part cinnamon.

Mince-meat Batter Cakes

1 9-ounce package mince-meat.
1/2 cup water.
1 cup flour.
4 teaspoons baking powder.
1 cup cornmeal.
1/2 teaspoon salt.
1 1/2 cups milk.
1 egg.
1 1/2 cup melted shortening.

Break mince-meat in pieces, add water and cook until the mixture is practically dry. Sift the dry ingredients and combine with the egg and milk, beating vigorously. Add the shortening and fold in the mince-meat. Bake. Powdered sugar and a squeeze of lemon juice are delicious accompaniments. These are very good for a luncheon dessert.

Pineapple Batter Cakes

Prepare like standard batter cakes, except that instead of 1 cup milk, 1/2 cup of pineapple juice, 1/2 cup of milk and 1/2 cup of pineapple pulp are used. Mix these with the beaten egg and melted shortening and then add this combination to the dry ingredients. Place one batter cake on the serving plate, cover generously with pineapple sauce, place over this another cake and sift over the top of it confectioners sugar.

For the pineapple sauce, thicken a mixture of 1 cup of pineapple juice and 1/2 cup of the pulp with 2 tablespoons of flour. Cook until nicely thickened and serve

Fashion Tips

For men—the hat styles have changed slightly but enough to make a difference. The brims are a least bit wider and the crowns a least bit lower. The new browns are not as dark as they formerly were, cocoa and pecan being favorite shades of the season.

The most popular style in topcoats is the single-breasted button through raglan with notched lapels. With edge men, the reversible coat is a leader. The raincoat side is water-proof gabardine, cotton or worsted.

Materials for suits are beautiful. Color is added by a combination of four or five different stripes or window-pane checks.

Shirts are not at all gay but the separate collar and French cuffs are very good. White starched collars with colored shirts are back again and very smart.

Brilliant colors and heavy silk are used for the new ties, however. Most of them have dark backgrounds, with brilliant colors woven upon them.

For evening, tailcoats have longer tails, broader lapels and higher waistlines. Dinner jackets are either double or single breasted. A white tie is worn with tails and a black one with the dinner jacket. A Homburg hat may be worn with informal evening dress but it must be black or dark blue. The top coat should also be of black or midnight blue.

Oakland County Chapter of the American Red Cross will hold its annual Fall Call earlier this year, beginning Monday, Oct. 19, and continuing until Nov. 1. Mrs. H. H. Carlson is in charge for Birmingham, and Mrs. Grace Booth Wallace, for Bloomfield Hills.
