N. U. S. J. TO HOLD FALL OUTING THIS SUNDAY

Members of the National Union for Social Justice, with their families and friends, will meet next Sunday, October 18, at Ramona Park near Utica on Van Dyke Road, for an outing before bleak November days set in. Starting at 11 A. M., the day will be filled with all forms of entertainment and amusement.

Those of the group who are politically minded will be given an opportunity to hear messages of importance from at least two speakers of national prominence. Since the NUSJ is backing the Third Party candidates in Michigan, members attending the affair will hear speeches relative to their fitness for office.

Included in the prizes to be offered at the day's outing are pigs, ponies and puppies. Chances toward them may be purchased for a penny each.

If you like trying to figure out what you'd do in another fellow's place, try this one. Tradition in the automobile business is not to make major changes in a car after a successful year. Changes cost a lot of money, and besides, why rock the boat? On the other hand, progress and improvement come only through changes, costly as they are. Buick has had a highly successful 1936 year. Plenty of people said the car couldn't be improved. But Buick men had some ideas. To put them into effect would cost plenty. Should they change, or shouldn't they? Buick had to de-

STAR DUST

Movie • Radio

★★★By VIRGINIA VALE★★★

AT LAST something long predicted has happened. A real battle has been described over the air while it was going on. And never has there been a more exciting broadcast. H. V. Kaltenborn, the news commentator, stood on the roof of a hotel in Hendaye, France, and described the fighting going on just across the bay in Spain; his words and the rumbling of the big guns were clearly heard in this country.

They're building a new movie theater in New York, and equipping it for television, though we're told that television won't really be practical for some time to come.

Would you trade Warner Baxter for Dick Powell, or vice versa? Twentieth Century-Fox think it's a good deal. The former will get the latter for "On With the Dance," for which elaborate plans are being made. This is only the second time Powell has been allowed to stray from the home lot; the first time it was for "Thanks a Million." And in return Warner Brothers will use the very popular Mr. Baxter as co-star with Kay Francis. Warner Baxter still remembers the time when things weren't going his way with for him, and as a result of playing the role of a theatrical producer in "Forty-second Street" for Warner Brothers his star rose again.

Kay Francis

Funny, isn't it, the way a star's popularity ebbs for a while and then, if he's lucky, the tide turns and he becomes a box-office name once more. There's the case of George Bancroft, who was at the top for so long. Then, apparently, he slipped. If you saw "Mr. Deeds Comes to Town" you'll recall him in a small part which he played superbly. As a result of that Columbia will star him again, this time in "Racketeer in Exile."

When you see "Swing Time" you'll see Victor Moore, once one of the best comedians on the stage. In fact, that's what he was till he worked in "Swing Time." For some years he has had Broadway in the palm of his hand. And he never consented to have it that way; had no yearnings for Hollywood. Years ago he made pictures — about fifteen years ago, to be exact. About forty short comedies and several feature length pictures were chalked up to his credit, before he declared that he'd never make another movie unless something revolutionary came along. Apparently the Rogers-Astaire picture was that something, for he has signed a long term contract with RKO.

Helen Hayes has chosen the story for her series of broadcasts. It is "Bambi," a novel by Marjorie Benton Cooke, which tells of the adventures of a small-town girl who comes to New York to go on the stage. It was published about twenty years ago—if you can remember that far back you may recall it.

Rudy Vallee will go to work in Hollywood again in October—the picture being entitled "Mr. Melody." And gossipy folk are renewing the talk about a romance between him and Alice Faye.

In "Sing, Baby, Sing" Adolphe Menjou gives one of the best performances of his career. Alice Faye, the heroine of the picture, has improved greatly. The story is obviously based on the romance of Elaine Barrie and John Barrymore.

If you want to get in touch with Kate Smith, who'll be back on the air waves soon, write to Kated, Incorporated; the address is 1819 Broadway, New York city. That's her business name, and she employs no less than 55 persons. Some attend to charities, some to the professional basketball team which she owns, three give their time to her fan mail, others look after her radio and theatrical affairs and there's a special department devoted to helping young artists.

ODDS AND ENDS . . . Joe E. Brown, back from his London triumphs, will make a picture that Douglas Fairbanks made years ago, "Hurricane Kid" . . . Harry Horlick, of the air waves, has a collection of autographs which includes those of many of the Russian nobility who perished in the revolution . . . Phil Baker's favorite broadcasts are private ones; he loves to talk about his two-year-old son . . . "The Gorgeous Hussy" is a grand picture, with Joan Crawford doing fine work, but it certainly mangles the historical facts on which it's supposed to be based . . . Paramount's "The General Died at Dawn" is one of the most thrilling of current pictures . . . And you certainly don't want to miss "The Texas Rangers."

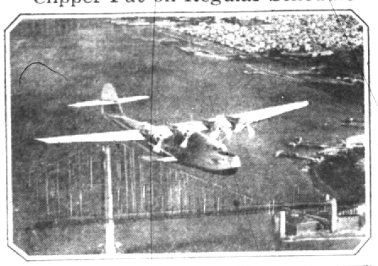
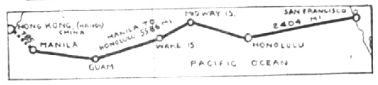
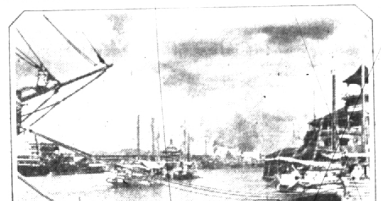
Clipper Put on Regular Schedule







After more than 5,000 miles of successful experimentation in trans-Pacific service, Pan American Airways' Three great Clipper ships are now all ready to begin regular passenger service Oct. 21 over the 8,000-mile route from San Francisco to Manila. At top the China Clipper is shown over Golden Gate on one of its airmail voyages and below the other end of the trail—in Manila harbor, where the old world and new now meet. Map shows the Clipper's route (solid black line) from San Francisco to Manila, ordinarily covered in 60 hours. From Manila to China is only six hours more flying time.
