MAPLE ELEVEN IN COME-BACK Baldwin High Gridders Get 8-7 Decision Over Mt. Clemens

Overcoming stiff opposition, Baldwin High School's gridiron eleven, minus the service of two of its stars lost through injury...

A rain soaked field made footing insecure and handling of the pigskin difficult throughout the contest.

The Band's arrangement of the Birmingham Marching Song was really something to be nice arranging, Mr. Berndt.

Other peoples who helped the two Charley's exercise their vocal cords were Dorothy Trump, Elizabeth Richey, Frances Chandler, Shirley Smith, Cameron Buggers, Forti Quinn, Paddy and Steve Wygant, Bob (Georgia Peaches) Bolton, Neil Stark, Dave McKinney, Bill Price, Glen Waggoner and last but not least, Mr. Toothacker, who looked as happy as the day he bought his new Chevrolet.

"She suffered in silence," "I'll bet she suffered."
