Baldwin High School
General Notes
 Field Day originally scheduled for October 13th, was postponed indefinitely because of the death of Mr. Crandall, superintendent of the Birmingham schools.

Two films, sponsored by the Chevrolet Motor Company, were shown Friday afternoon at Baldwin High School. The first, One Thousand Hours, showed why a boy should finish high school. The second was a demonstration of the making of automobiles.

Assembly
 The second assembly of Baldwin Junior High was held Wednesday, October 14. Chuck Boynton, senior cheer-leader, demonstrated the school yell. Mimeographed sheets of the school marching song were provided and Mrs. Coryell led the singing. Jack Howing and Don Clark gave a chalk talk on football. A dramatic skit entitled, Personal Conduct at Athletic Events and at School, was arranged by Helen Tippett and Lucille Chamblain.

Clubs
 The Baldwin Science Club, supervised by Mr. Toothaker and consisting of 10 members, is planning many interesting programs for this year. There will be reports, talks and demonstrations on new and interesting scientific experiments. November 17th a film will be shown dealing with correct lighting and its importance to healthy vision.

Students will welcome the news that the Science Club will again sponsor movies at noon, the returns from which will be used for financing the public address system.

They have elected as President Jack Sevin, and as Secretary Treasurer, William Rosso.

Some of the Baldwin clubs have elected officers for the coming year. La Sociedad Hispanica elected the following officers: President, Betty Wibel; Vice President, Shirley Smith; Secretary, Patricia Allen. The adviser is Mr. Mercado.

The Dramatic club, one of the largest in the school with a membership of ninety, chose their officers: resident, Ruth Seager; Vice President, Charles Hallett; Secretary, Annette Lanier; Treasurer, Joan Billings. The advisers are Miss Hull and Mrs. Darling.

The Health Club which is both a Jr. and Sr. High club elected President, Margaret Ross; Secretary, Colleen Ryan; Adviser Miss Huggert.

The Baldwin High Dramatic Club has elected Ward (trunk) Campaign manager of an "Old Furniture" drive it has begun. The drive is being conducted to secure furniture for permanent use in the Club as stage properties.

In reporting to the home rooms, students were asked to notify the Club if they had any pieces in poor condition which they were not using.

The committee working on the subject he made up on Herbert Moore, Mayfa Jean Gracy, Caroline Denman, Jack Bell, Virginia Watson, and Roeder Taylor.

Alumni Notes
 Baldwin's representatives in the Freshman Class at Hillsdale are Natalie Welch, Carolyn Barnes, Mary Jane McCarty, Johnny Hays, Bill Wall, and Max Matthews. The three boys have all pledged the same fraternity, Delta Tau Delta.

Entering Purdue this fall are George Frye, Bill Kushing, and John Richey. George Frye has pledged Sigma Chi. Bill and John have become pledges of Alpha Tau Omega.

Speaking of last June's class reminds me that Marjorie Adams is now in Detroit at the Nurse's Training Hospital.

Girls' Athletic Association
 Two football games were played Monday, October 5, by Adams and Baldwin. Mary Clark's ninth grade team won the game at Baldwin by a score of 5 to 2. The officials were Gertrude Allen and Claire Chapman. Phyllis Babcock's eighth grade team was defeated by Adams by the score of 10 to 3. The officials were Iris Beaven and Esther Jones.

The volley ball team of Barbara Pratt and Helen Ives is tied for first place in the Intramural Volley Ball Tournament, both having won two games each.

The G. A. A. has adopted a pin. Any girl having earned a numeral or minor award is eligible. The pin is gold-plated with a red enamel shield background. The letters G. A. A. are in relief. The guard pin is the year in which the pin is earned. Orders are to be placed with Barbara Pratt or Mildred Callee of Senior High and Damon Biggers of Junior High.

Adams Junior High
 The 7B home room class were the guests of Natalie and Mrs. Seaholm at their farm on Monday afternoon following school. Supper was cooked over an open fire. Football and a hike over the hills took up the remainder of the time on the outdoor. Everyone reported a rousing good time. Several mothers assisted with transportation and driving.

The 7B homeroom of Mrs. Cronie had their homeroom party last week. Natalie and Mrs. Seaholm's Farm near Waterford. They played tennis and croquet and many other outdoor games. A little later they took a hike over the grounds and to the top of the hill. The supper was a regular picnic style served outside. The picnic was a success and I wish you and I had been there!

Club News
 The Booster Club just put the first edition out this week. Keep it up Boosters—you have a fine job!

Mr. Smiley is keeping true to form for he has his Anglers Club busy learning about flies. They may all be sailing for each trout season some of these coming years.

The Glee Club is keeping up to season with those rollicking football songs. We wait anxiously for another of those splendid assemblies!

Here comes the Halloween Dance! Hoary for the Student Council! Preparations are being made for the regular October dance and things are buzzing. We all hope it's as good as the last one.

The Four-and-Twenty Players intend to have a play ready for assembly as soon as possible. It's sure to be good!

Girls Hobby Club elected a Booster representative, Geraldine Eskridge, to turn in all news. Lately they have been doing handwork but it remains to be seen.

Barnum Junior High

The representatives were seventh grade, Phyllis Brown and James Schneider, eighth grade, Money Mayo White and Phillip Maxwell, ninth grade, James Bell and Junior Moore, tenth grade, Maryline White and Bradley Higgin, eleventh grade, Mel Lynch and Russell Hall, twelfth grade, Charles Clarke and Mike Gollygo.

Football at B. H. S.
 Nearly three out of every four boys enrolled in the Bloomfield Hills High School play football. Out of 45 boys in attendance in grade seven and twelve in the school on Vaughan Road, 35 are members of a football team. In spite of the fact that this activity is almost entirely extra-class most of the boys participate. The school has two teams, the White team, the Blue and White team, and the Blue team. These teams are organized on the basis of weights. Competition is of two kinds, intra-mural and inter-school. The teams compete among themselves and have also competed with groups from Birmingham, Clawson and Frankfort. Mr. Carl Wood, director of Physical Education, has charge of the teams.

Big Beaver School
 From fruit and vegetables which we cut out of our old magazines the first grade made funny little men for Art class today. They will help them to remember to eat lots of fruit and vegetables to keep strong and healthy.

The second grade are getting some new little "Reading and Coloring" work books.

The second graders have been talking about canning and have made a chart with all the things mother cans on it.

Mary O'Donahue, Evelyn Gould, Irene Cornish and David Roper have had A in spelling every day this past week.

The fourth grade is organizing a Safety Club. This week they are stressing care in crossing the street and walking along roads on their way to school.

Doris Elliott and Norma Elliott have moved to Marine City.

Group II of the third grade made pictures of bushes, soap, and towels for a "Clean Hands" health poster for their room.
