Jesse Jones Talks At Good Neighbor Dinner On Friday

The Hon. Jesse Jones, chairman of the board of the RFC, will speak on national issues at a dinner for Business Men and Women sponsored by the Good Neighbor League, Friday evening, October 23, at Hotel Statler.

The Good Neighbor League was organized in Michigan in August 1936. Membership, now totaling 5,000, is open to all who believe in the principals of the Good Neighbor, . . . "Human values come before property values; long-time prosperity of property requires the long-time well-being of people; American answer to the revolutionist is the removal of the injustices which make revolution."

The Good Neighbor League is a non-partisan, permanent organization, believing that the Good Neighbor is an expression of the American Ideal and should be made a fundamental policy of the American Government.

Literature and membership cards of this organization have been distributed in this community. Membership cards may now be returned to the Michigan office of the League, 636 Buhl Building, Detroit.

A NIGHTMARE FOR HIM

Princess Anne, Md.—Busily engaged in washing a car, an unidentified Negro looked up to see a group of men, brandishing knives, surrounding him. He recovered from his fright when he learned that, unknown to him, a rat had crawled up to his shoulder and the men wanted to kill the rat.

DETROIT BUSINESS MEN who live in Birmingham and Bloomfield Hills will be pleased at the efficient and helpful PRINTING SERVICE available from the staff of The Eccentric. We have two direct Detroit telephones—Elmhurst 6644 and 6845—and four salesmen in Detroit every day. —(Adv.)
