School Orchestra Plays At Assembly

Mr. Bennett, instructor of instruments) music in the Birmingham Schools, led the Baldwin Senior High orchestra in a group of musical selections in the assembly October 27.

The orchestra was made up of the following people: Dorothy Trump, Andrew Watson, Bill Biggers, Hugh McHugh, James Campbell, Junior Hoover, Jim Heacock, Jane Gibbons, Arlo Johnson, William Paulus, Virginia Jones, Persus Carter, Virginia Staples, Lucille Chamblaine, and Clayton Chamblaine.

Some of the local P.M.s spent last weekend at their local convales, when they were at Yamacraw. The girls from the Yamacraw furnished for some reason, Yamacraw, Timm, and Steward Adams were without girls. Ed Purman got a young girl, but he had one complaint to make. He says that she sang in his car, which was very annoying. How tall was the girl, Ed? Lewman was well satisfied with his girl.

Ms. Shain Speaks On Election Issues

Ms. Charles Shain addressed the Social Science Classes of Baldwin High Wednesday on the issues of the Pending Election. She discussed the technique of past elections, special historical elections, and led hearings across the real issues. She tried to point out objectively the three great issues of the election. She also had managed material to show how a candidate could receive a plurality of popular votes but not enough electoral votes to win the election.

Last Thursday's assembly program at Adams was another of the best. "Chronicles of American Photography." This time it was the story of "The Pilgrims." The History class was asked to take their text they couldn't have missed on the Pilgrims.

The 8B's are losing some more Rangers in the way of Nancy Browne and Leonard Scott. Even Judge Herrick has gone to Arizona for the winter.

The Meredith Marionettes will present the Baldwin Junior High's program at Adams School on Tuesday afternoon, October 27, at 7:30 o'clock. The play brings the Arabian Nights to life in all its original splendor. Six acts and five beautiful changes of scenery will feature large 25-inch Marionettes. Other short attractions will be offered including "The Man on the Flying Trapeze."

The Cinema Theater of Detroit was the destination of Miss Stickle's second year French class when it left the school Wednesday afternoon, October 21, to see "Maria Chapdelaine".

The film was a prize-winning French production with all speaking parts in French but the lines of the dialogue were printed in English on the screen. It was a story of life in the backwoods of Quebec and was taken from the book of the same name by Louis Houle. As an added attraction, the French version of Walt Disney's "Three Little Pigs" and a travesty of Paris were shown.

Many cars were on hand to drive a group which included: Virginia Harden, Sara Denman, Sam Reum, Doris Brucker, Jo Ann Howell, Virginia Nimnick, Nancy Murray, Edward Horton, Glen Kendall, Mildred De Lee, Patricia Main, Frances Roura, Barbara Martin, Adele Cole, Jane Hyde, Elizabeth George, De Graff, Mary Ellen Metcalfe, Patricia Jighe, Mary Tighe, Joy Heath, Pat Patterson, Annette Lambert, Betty Adams, George De Graff, Mary Ellen Metcalfe, Patricia Jighe, Mary Tighe, Joy Heath, Pat Patterson, Annette Lambert, Betty Adams, George De Graff.

Baldwin Junior High

The annual Halloween dance of the Baldwin Junior High will be held Friday night in room 101. It is to be half masquerade. Keno will be played and there will be dancing from 8 to 11. There will be prizes for the best costumes as well as for Keno. Black and orange decorations will enliven the room.

Miss Hugget's homeroom was in charge of the assembly Wednesday. It was the election of a president. Dick Harrel who represented Alfred Landon was introduced by Nancy Keagen, and Kenton Shaver, who took the part of Franklin Roosevelt, offered by Mary Biesford. Two campaign songs were sung by the whole assembly. Mrs. Foyell led the singing.

A meeting of the Junior High G. A. A. was held Monday, October 25 in room 101 for the purpose of explaining the point system. Cameron Bingham, the president, explained the system.

Big Braver School News Plans are being made for Halloween parties throughout Big Beaver School. The first grade have made up and plan to make up some new games to play at their party. The second grade are more interested in the refreshment side, since they are going to eat the jelly made last week as a part of their Social Studies. The fifth grade is dressing up for their party and will be given prizes for the best and the funniest costume.

The sixth grade have started to work with decimals. They seem very strange and backward, but they hope to master them soon. Robert Murray won the third grade spelling contest Friday. Art class proved very interesting in the third grade Wednesday. Creative Halloween Figures were cut from black and orange

BALDWIN HIGH-LIGHTS

Don't you think Cranbrook has a lovely stadium? I do. . . But there are those who prefer the green grass over you across the field. . . More than half the male population of Baldwin seemed to think so. . . J. Neerken, Steve Wyzant, and Bob Carson, poor boys, just couldn't seem to make up their minds which side to stay on. . .

Smarty Annie didn't take a robe and so her feet got cold. She had to leave just as Phil Carey made the touchdown. She did peer around though just in time to see Francis Chandler, Evelyn Wragg, Bobette Wiley, Betty Russell, Fritz Adams, Charlie Fiske and Mr. Hart help Duke Patere and Charlie Savage give the team a nice hand. . . At least two members of the school board looked on proudly. . .

Ah, me. . . It was quite surprising, as were the nice big balloons that ascended when the game started. . . Dorothy Trump had quite a time getting hers up into the wide open spaces. . . Way over yonder from where I was occupying a small hunk of those cool, cool, concrete bleachers I could see Johnny Baker (having a hard time keeping her cute grey hat on), Ruth Asper, Jane Jones and Betty Spinning jumping up and down. . . Betty incidentally just blew in from State for the week-end. . . Another gal home for the last two days of the week was Margaret Scriver who had on such a nice coat. . .

Nancy Murray was there with a pair of flashy yellow gloves which belonged to Harry Stark. . . Under a smart, brown, American girl hat was Alice Botsford, and right on the forty yard line. . .

Richard Allman, Walter Stecker and Don Moses, formerly all good Baldwinites, were there wearing the blue and white colors. . . Tish! Tish!

Jim Bickford, the newest addition to the cheer-leaders' troop, did a hang-up job of leadin' Saturday. . . I think a goodly number of people missed the band, as did I, especially when the Baldwin rosters tried to blot out the

ON DISPLAY at all Buick Showrooms

SPECIAL CENTURY ROADMASTER LIMITED

FOUR WONDROUS NEW REASONS WHY: "It's Buick again!"

SENSATIONAL is the fervor with which the American public has taken to its heart the brilliant motor cars offered by Buick this year.

Indeed, the sweeping success of the 1936 Buick program flatly challenged us and our great parent General Motors to a momentous decision.

Should we continue this amazingly popular line of cars to next year, perhaps the prudent thing to do—or should we dare broad improvement upon their spectacular excellence?

We felt there was only one right answer to that question, the bold and progressive answer—and that's why insiders now forecasting 1937 are already saying: "It's Buick again!"

That's why on top of $15,000,000 recently spent re-tooling and re-equipping Buick's great plant, we appropriated and are now spending $14,500,000 more.

That's why every car in the 1937 Buick line—the SPECIAL, the CENTURY, the ROADMASTER and the LIMITED—has more beauty for dazzling style, more power for breath-taking action, more room for full-family comfort, more down-right "road-command" for safety and pleasure. See them.

YOU'VE GOT WHAT IT TAKES!

You can afford the new Buick. It's as easy as buying a new car. If it's all in your mind, you can afford it. If it's all in your pocket, you can afford it.
