MRS. HITCHCOCK IS SAILING CHAMPION

Keno Party On Oct. 24, Will Be Last Event Of Year At Orchard Lake

Mrs. Hugh W. Hitchcock of Lowell court defeated Mrs. Robert F. Grindley of Puritan road Tuesday at Orchard Lake Country Club in a sail-off to determine the sailing champion for the season. The final races for women slippers, Mrs. Hitchcock and Mrs. Grindley tied for honors.

After cancelling the deciding race because of inclement weather on two occasions, the sail-off was finally run with Mrs. Hitchcock emerging as champion. The annual dinner for men and women sailors, when prizes will be awarded for the year, will be held at the club Oct. 24.

Women golfers will have their final celebration at the club Saturday. They will have a two-ball foursome in the afternoon, followed by dinner and dancing.

The club has planned a keno party on Oct. 24 as the final event of the season.

Keno Party Closes Season At Pine Lake

Pine Lake Country Club will stage its final party of the year Saturday evening in the form of a dinner, keno party and buffet supper at midnight.

Among those planning to entertain guests will be Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin H. Amiel of Lone Pine Road. In their party will be Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Jerome, Mr. and Mrs. Stuart Austin, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Corwin, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Rogers, Mr. and Mrs. Earle Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Harry D. Wise and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Denyes.

In another group dining together will be Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Harris, Mr. and Mrs. Royce L. Beers, Mr. and Mrs. William McCallum, and Mr. and Mrs. Leslie C. Allman.

The club will remain open through Oct. 18, although the keno party will be the last official activity of the year.

Mrs. Joy To Address Piety Hill Chapter At Opening Meeting

Mrs. Joy will speak at the November meeting on the subject of "Americanism." In December, Mrs. Charles E. Backlund of Battle Creek, former speaker, will be the guest speaker. At this meeting also, donations will be made to the Royal North Hospital in Battle Creek and to the Crossness School in the South, sponsored by the D. A. R.

Mrs. Mary Brundage will address the Chapter in January, on "The Constitution of the United States." In January also, Piety Hill will be one of the guest chapters at a meeting at which the Extra Parties chapter of Royal Oak will be held at the Station Hotel in Detroit on National Defense Day.

Mrs. Wynne Earl Sisson, national chairman of national defense, will be the speaker.

The chapter will observe its second birthday anniversary in February, when the speaker will be Mrs. George H. Schenckel, state president. At this meeting there will be the election of delegates and alternates for the State Conference, and for the Continental Congress to be held in Washington in March.

Mrs. Ralph Wenzel, former president of the Louisiana St. Clair Chapter in Detroit, will be the guest at the March meeting, when she will discuss the work of the Junior American Citizens.

In April a musical program will be presented, and reports given of the state conference. The annual meeting will be held in May at an all-day gathering at Pine Lake Country Club. At this meeting reports from the Continental Congress will be presented. Officers and directors will be elected for the next year.

There will be luncheon at noon, followed by bridge.

Dinner Gown

Importance of a wide shoulder line is indicated by the bodice of this gray tulle dinner gown, worn by Gladys Swartzbach, film player. The surplice treatment is repeated in the back and the skirt gives the generous fullness through pleats and folds. The severity of the neckline is interesting.
