P. T. A. ANNOUNCES 3RD COUNTRY FAIR

Program Plans Committee For Event To Benefit Milk Fund

For the third successive year, the Parent Teacher Association of Barnum School will stage a country fair for the benefit of the milk fund of the school. The day started in Friday, Oct. 21, beginning at 4 p. m. and continuing until 11 p. m. The place is Barnum School.

The first event on the program will be the movie at 4:30 p. m., of which Mrs. Robert F. Watt is chairman. This will be followed by a Hi-Fi contest from 5 to 7 p. m., with Mrs. Thomas B. Navin, chairman.

A vaudeville show will be staged at 7:30, and again at 8:30 on the same night. Under the direction of Mrs. G. Mewey Kibbel, a sequel to the vaudeville performance will be the musical show of which Mrs. Ingrid Langberg is in charge. The concluding event will be dancing from 9 to 11 p. m., with Mrs. Edward D. Crull as chairman of the committee in charge.

In addition to the varied program, there will be the usual country fair features and novelties. The German band, under the direction of Arnold W. DeMat, will parade through the corridors and rooms of the school. Mrs. E. Birthington is in charge of a group of clovers, who will act as an oddish men to advertise the various booths.

Mrs. Richard H. Harack is general chairman of the ways and means committee, and a standing committee are Mrs. Dale Spier, Mrs. Walter B. Spier, Mrs. Carl and Mrs. John B. Burdette, Mrs. Walter B. Burdette, Mrs. line A. Sprague, Mrs. H. S. Roberts, Mrs. E. W. Lickie, Mrs. A. Gillespie, Mrs. E. McGee, Mrs. W. C. Casson, and Mrs. E. Watts.

One of the important features of this year will be a luncheon room located in the school cafeteria, which Mrs. N. H. Clement will be in charge. There will be also a bar and doughnut booth, of which Mrs. Clarence G. H. Smith is chairman. A floor show has been arranged up, in addition to the usual country fair.

One of the highlights of the fair will be the awarding of donkeys, the first of which will be a pig of coke and the second, a half pig of coke. The program will be with an auction sale.

COUNCIL MEMBERS GO TO CONVENTION

Scout Representatives Will Attend Meeting In Cincinnati

A representative group of Birmingham women belonging to the Scout Council is planning to attend the national convention to be held Oct. 14 in Cincinnati, Indiana. Included in it will be Mrs. F. W. Thomas, Mrs. T. S. Navin, Mrs. Floyd A. Franklin, Mrs. H. H. Hickey, Mrs. Robert H. Hickey, Mrs. Lee A. White and Mrs. J. E. Hyde.

The 22nd annual convention of the Scout Council will be called to discuss the policies and plans of the national council. Mrs. Rose B. Able, commissioner of the Cincinnati and Hamilton County council, will welcome delegates from every State in the country. Her husband, national commissioner, will reply.

Two days' training for all adult Scout members, including members of the national board, all council professional staff, troop leaders, will precede the convention.

A. A. U. W. Chairman Appeals For Donations For Book Sale

Mrs. Schultz

An appeal for "books and more books" as well as for magazines, sheet music and old newspapers, is voiced by Mrs. William Schultz, Jr., chairman of the book sale sponsored by the Birmingham Branch of the American Association of University Women, to be held during the week of Oct. 19 to 24th.

"No amount of selling efficiency can accomplish successful results unless we can get more material on hand to sell," Mrs. Schultz said. "We are depending on our friends and acquaintances both within and without our organization to come to our assistance."

"The A. A. U. W. sponsors the book sale to raise funds which benefit Birmingham through very direct channels. Only a small portion goes for A. A. U. W. activities outside the city. This is the amount contributed for our national fellowship."

"In Birmingham we maintain the Saturday Club, a play school for local children. The A. A. U. W. contributes to the Birmingham Scholarship Loan Fund. Proceeds of the annual book sale help

CLUBS PAY TRIBUTE TO LATE EDUCATOR

Maricopa, P. T. A. Groups Defer Meetings Until Later Dates

Three local organizations, which were to have met today, have postponed their meetings as a tribute to the memory of Charles W. Cammel, superintendent of Birmingham schools, who died Monday evening, and for whom funeral services will be held today at 2:00 p. m. in the First Presbyterian church.

The Birmingham Musical, which previously announced a tea for new members, to be held at the Community House today, will postpone its post-noon tea until Thursday, Oct. 15.

The Parent Teacher Association of Barnum School will meet Tuesday instead of today, at the school. Howard D. Crull, director of education, will discuss the third and fourth amendments proposed to the State Constitution affecting school revenues.

The Pierce School Parent Teachers Association has postponed its meeting until today, Oct. 22. It was to have met today at the school.

The Queen Esther Circle of the M. E. church will hold an Aunt Joanna Pancake supper, Tuesday at 6:30 p. m. at the church.

A group from Birmingham attending the football game in Ann Arbor Saturday included Mr. and Mrs. Clinton E. Sears, Mr. and Mrs. Crawford J. Lee, Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Wood, Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Brown. Afterwards, Mr. and Mrs. Sears entertained the group at dinner at their home, with Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Cushing and Mr. and Mrs. Karl Herick included among the guests. Betty Sears, who is attending Michigan State college at East Lansing, spent the weekend with her family in Birmingham.

Contributions should be sent in by Oct. 18. They may be taken directly to the basement of Bldg. 17 in Public Library, or will be called for. Those with books to offer are asked to telephone either 2081 or 344, and their contribution will be collected. Mrs. Sam C. Mitchell is chairman of solicitations.

Mr. and Mrs. Emerson C. Brown of Lima street had as their guests for the weekend, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Flucke of Saginaw and Mr. and Mrs. Harold Bierford of Grand Rapids. Mr. and Mrs. Brown and their guests attended the football game in Ann Arbor Saturday, returning to their home for dinner. Other guests at dinner were Mr. and Mrs. Harold Flucke of Detroit.

The local branch also contributed to the Community House. Because we spend the major portion of the proceeds of the book sale in Birmingham, we feel justified in making our appeal to all Birmingham people for donation of books."
