SCHOOL NEWS

Baldwin High School

At the suggestion of Mr. Hart a homeroom program for the benefit of the parents will be held sometime during this semester. The programs tentatively planned for October are Parliamentary Drill, Columbus Day, National Election, and Hallowe'en. 1936 Safety Programs held last week proved very interesting and worthwhile.

An Executive Committee from 12-B and 12-A met last Wednesday and decided to give Mr. Arnold, local photographer, the contract for the Senior pictures. For the past four years Mr. Arnold has been photographer for the Seniors and Publications.

The graduating class of January consists of forty-five students, while the June class totals one hundred fifteen.

Schedule cards containing the football schedule, the squad and numbers, managers, cheer leaders, and scoreboard operators will be given out to all Baldwin students during homeroom period Thursday. The "Little Brown Jug," famous trophy of Birmingham and Royal Oak, made an attractive cover. These were presented with the compliments of Baldwin Publications.

Club Notes

A Baldwin girls' glee club, the first since 1932, has been organized under the direction of Mrs. Coryell. The girls meet during activity period on Friday and sometimes after school. They are learning three and four part music and will probably give a concert later in the year. The enrollment of 75 members gives evidence of a strong interest in music in the school.

The Camera Club will hold an exhibit in Room 2 next Tuesday during club meeting. The exhibit consists of pictures taken, printed, and mounted by the members this summer.

If the pictures prove to be good enough they will be later exhibited on the bulletin board. Each member may enter as many prints as he desires. Later in the year a contest will be held and prizes awarded for the best pictures.

Alumni News

Janet Peabody, who graduated from the University of Michigan last June, entered the real estate business recently. Aside from her new work, her chief interest is horse-back-riding. Recently she entered her horse Stardust in the Oakland Hills Riding Club Horse Show and carried off several ribbons.

—o—

Ruth Stanford, another Baldwin graduate, is doing things. Since last fall, when she returned from school in France and England, she has had a position with Chrysler in Detroit. She works in the statistical department and this winter is taking several courses at Wayne.

—o—

Generally speaking, it seems that Baldwin graduates don't favor Eastern colleges. However, Esther Lee Mixer has gone to Smith, Ellen Ford is at Cornell, and Jane Long at Carnegie Tech. Anne Keller is at Wilson College and Doris Vehemeyer, Harriet and June Babcock are getting established at Wildcliff.

—o—

The University of Michigan seems to be the most popular school of the year for Baldwin graduates. Patricia Hugg, Mary Jane Tippet, Carol Collins, and Jim Schooley are enrolled as upperclassmen, having attended other colleges first. The freshmen include Harry Stark, Jane Reitter, Betty Hill, Bob Watt, Richard Dick, Jean Rutherford, Herbert Gardener, Betty Bricker, John Hulbert, Lloyd Forster, Elizabeth and Jean Judson, Larry Thomas, Bob Hague, Darby Taylor, Kenneth Hunt, Jerry Hart, Charles James, Francis Allen, Louise Moysey, Guy Howard, James Allen, Betty Linton, Florence Brotherton, Virginia Thompson, Bill Gail, and Bob Mix.

Social News

The Washington Group of last June chaperoned by Miss Pursell and Mr. Toothacker was entertained Saturday at a luncheon given by Miss Pursell at Hedges on the Twelve Mile Road. The guests included Patty Allen, Mary Sdunek, Betty Bricker, Christine Smith, Dorothy Jane Tremper, Donald Clark, Glen Kendall, Quenton Brelsford, George De Graff, and George Woolfenden.

Tonight marks the year's beginning of the G. A. A. outings. The "gals" are going to wear some nice comfortable shoes and walk the mere mile and a half it is out to Springdale Park. Ruth (Tiger House) Seager of Senior High and "Dot" Prussing of Junior are in charge of the entertainment of this throng after the subject of eating has been dispensed with.

They deserve an outing after these two weeks of Volley Ball. Ellen Anderson rates an extra helping (not counting the third) for managing this sport.

It is also common knowledge that these mortals have been "twanging" arrows around the Birmingham Archery Club for two Wednesday's now. Mildred DaLee is an expert on the matter . . . so 'tis been proved.

Miss Hammond is getting to be an accomplished horsewoman with the Quarton group of beginners taking her for a ride on Tuesday and Baldwinites on Wednesday at Devonshire Downs.

Big Beaver School News

Big Beaver won its second game of the current Speedball season Friday afternoon, October 2, against a fast Ortonville team. Outplayed for three quarters, Big Beaver went into the fourth period on the short end of a 6 to 2 score. The last quarter was a complete reversal. The Big Beaver boys chalked up eight more points to their credit, at the same time, preventing Ortonville from scoring, making it Big Beaver's game at 10 to 6.

A number of grade enrollments have been affected by the moving of the Bartley family to Clawson and the Ellis family to Royal Oak.

The ninth and tenth grades have planned a party for October 9. Dancing and Bunco will furnish the entertainment.

Dorothy and Irene Ewers have entered Big Beaver School.

At the eleventh grade class meeting Miss Helen Biles and Mr. S. K. Baker were chosen for advisors. Class officers elected by the eleventh grade are, President, Frank Mapes, Vice President, Robert Nancarrow, Secretary and Treasurer, Dorothy Holden, Parliamentarian, Herbert Barrett.

Representatives from these classes elected to the student council are, Budd Judd, Helen Tucker, Dick Avery from the tenth grade. Frank Mapes, Robert Nancarrow, Pearl Mapes from the eleventh grade. Carol Van Leaven and Leon Greenlee from the ninth grade.

The ninth grade met and chose Miss Alta Parks as class advisor. Class officers are, President, Senator Losey, Vice President, Donald Dobson, Secretary and Treasurer, Frances Snell.

The children at table three in the first grade room were winners for having clean fingernails and keeping good health rules this week.

Woody Jobe and William Lumsen picked up stones so we could plant our narcissus bulbs this week.

The second graders have learned a new autumn song. There room is decorated with red, yellow, green, and brown leaves which they cut from paper.

Barnum Junior High

The Barnum Council held a public meeting on Wednesday, October 7 at 1:15 P. M. to give the student body a definite understanding of the school problems discussed by the council.

Some of the topics now under discussion are the annual Hallowe'en party and whether or not to continue the system of hall monitors.

The Council officers for the year include: President, William Campbell; Vice President, Suzanne Sharp; Secretary-Treasurer, Barbara Allison.

—o—

The first meeting of the Barnum School P. T. A. which was scheduled for Thursday, October 8 at 3 o'clock has been postponed until Tuesday, October 13 at 3:30 p. m.

Mr. Crull will discuss the proposed third and fourth amendments relative to the November election. The tentative years program will be submitted and plans for the County Fair discussed. Tea will be served and a social period enjoyed.
