JUNIOR SKIPPERS AWARDED PRIZES

Nancy Strelinger Finishes As Season's Champion In Sailing

Nancy Strelinger was awarded the trophy as champion of the junior skippers of Orchard Lake Country Club, Tuesday at a luncheon at Devoa Garden. The luncheon was given by the junior sailors to mark the close of the championship series of five races run off last week at the club.

Robbette Wiley was runner up in the series, with Barbara Borch, placing third, and Cynthia Adams coming out as winner of the consolation prize. Mrs. Frederick C. Strong, Jr., is chairman of the committee for the junior group.

Tuesday also marked the beginning of the championship series of some ten races, which the initial race was sailed on the afternoon. The remainder of the series will be run off on Tuesday and Fridays, the regular sailing days for women and girls.

Sailors qualifying for the championship series included Mrs. Theodor F. W. Meyer, Mrs. Paul L. Penfield, Mrs. Strong, Mrs. Wood R. Ostrom, Mrs. Hugh W. Hitchcock, Mrs. Edward S. DeWitt, Jr., Mrs. W. D. Conn, and Mrs. Robert F. Granley. Mr. Mayes is chairman of the senior sailing committee.

The championship series of men sailors will begin Saturday and continue through Sunday. A luncheon for the tradition of the club, an annual dinner will be given for men and women sailors when prizes will be awarded for the year. The date for the dinner this year is Saturday, Sept. 26 at the club.

Catholic League To Begin New Season

The Birmingham League of Catholic Women will meet for the first time this season, Wednesday, Sept. 23, at the Community House at 2:15 p. m. This meeting is considered particularly important by members, because it will make a change of administration, following the retirement of Mrs. Martin J. Wendell as president, and the election of Mrs. Charles J. O'Brien to succeed her.

Mrs. Wendell will preside at the first part of the meeting, and Mrs. O'Brien will discuss the activities of the league during the year. The program will be an informal address by Mrs. O'Brien, who has returned from a recent travels in Europe with Mr. O'Brien during the summer. She will discuss these travels in detail.

Club Notes

The Ladies' Auxiliary Society of St. Joseph's Catholic church will resume promptly its regular meetings on Monday at the home of Mrs. Robert McKee at 2:30 o'clock.

Instead of holding its regular meeting on Thursday, the Birmingham Business Association will entertain members at an informal party Tuesday evening at the home of the president, Mrs. Blanche Bradley of Brown street. The affair will inaugurate the third annual luncheon.

Members of the Order of Red Men Star will confer an initiation on the new members, Wednesday at the home of the president, Mrs. Blanche Bradley of Brown street. The affair will inaugurate the third annual luncheon.
