LIBRARY ADDS 26 NEW BOOKS

Special Works On Tapestry, Painting and Furniture Included In List

Twenty new books, ranging in appeal from works on wall art to explanations of great art, have been added to the shelves of the Baldwin Public Library, according to Miss Abeline Cooke, librarian. Of special interest are "The Book of Tapestry" and "Painting" by George D. Huntington, an authoritative treatment of the subject with many additional features dealing with the art of tapestry. The edition on painting is authored by a number of leading authorities on the subject and serves as a guide to the fuller appreciation of the painting. The description of tapestry techniques are adapted to the layman, student and artist.

Five editions describing the beauty of individual styles include: "Connecticut Beautiful," "New York Beautiful," "Pennsylvania Beautiful," "Virginia Beautiful," all authored by Wallace Nutting, and "Texas," "The Marvelous," written by Susan O. Winger. Other books included in the new list are as follows: "The Origins of Crime," by Florence L. Sawyer; "Old Pewter, Brass, Copper and Sheffield Pewter," by H. Hudson Moore; "Nothing But 'Woods'—houses," by Helen Nash; "The La-Galleme Book of English and American Poetry," by Richard Le-Galleme; "A Guide to the Trees," by C. C. Curtis; "Great Works of Art—Painting," by E. H. Rieu; "The Curious Lore of Drugs and Medicines," by Charles H. LeWall; "Caterbury Tales," by Geoffrey Chaucer; "The Book of Humorous Verses," by Carson Wells. Three other works complete the series. They include "Decorative Painting," by David McKay; "Gems and Gem Material," edited by Klaus and Helen; "Painting in English and Portuguese Furniture," by Eberlein and Ransford. This latter book treats of the various furniture periods and includes many illustrations and color plates to augment the text.

CITY TAX PAYMENTS HANDLED DIFFERENTLY

Partial payment of taxes, a procedure that has become so popular with many municipalities during the past few years, finds one of its most unique applications in the city of Durham, North Carolina. Durhamans find paying their taxes not much more attractive than buying a tankful of gasoline for the family flier. Durham will handle partial payment receipts in denominations of $2.00, $5, $10 and $20. A taxpayer may buy these receipts, which are a type of non-negotiable bond, at any time. When he has bought an amount equivalent to a year's taxes he exchanges the bonds or receipts for his original tax receipt. The city pays 6 per cent interest on the bonds, but in order to prevent their use as savings deposits the amount of interest is limited to the penalties accrued on the taxes, according to information reaching the Municipal Finance Officers Association. In case the receipts are used to prepay taxes, or are, in lieu of interest, only the discount allowed for prepayment. The Durham device works for the city, for they are now outstanding $18,000 worth of the baby bonds, and the city collected more than 20 per cent of last year's taxes before the late sale date.

NINE STUDENTS SEND IN NAMES

Request Is Repeated For Record Of College Entrants Here

A request, made by The Eclectic two weeks ago, for the names of all local young men and women entering colleges or other schools this fall has not proved very productive to date, only eight girls and one boy sending in their names and the colleges they attended. Another appeal is made in the hope that a record can be compiled on all local university students and other attending schools away from Birmingham. Names should be sent to George E. Butler, The Eclectic.

Following are the names of those who already have been requested: information: Dorothy Kates, 725 Oakland Avenue, daughter of Mrs. Melvin J. Kates; Caldwell, 581 Michigan Drive, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Caldwell; Elizabeth B. Hart and Virginia C. Hart, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hart, 281 Lake Park Drive, near Virginia; Last daughter of Mrs. John Last, 23 Harbor Terrace, Bloomfield Hills, all will enter Monticello College at Galesburg, Illinois.

Mary Ann Reed, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. Y. Reed, 459 Madison Avenue, will leave September 12 to enter Olivet College. It will be her senior year.

Betty Brockway, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy L. Brockway, 340 Baldwin, has completed plans to enter DePaul University at Greenacres, Ind.

Ester Lee Mixer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. R. Mixer, 675 Poplar, will leave in the near future for Smith College, Northampton, Massachusetts. This will be her first year there and she plans on taking French, English, Psychology, and Hygiene.

Jane Brody, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Brody, Jr., 211 Park Street, and Mary Tippetts, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank E. Tippetts, 477 Lake Park Drive, will return to Hollins College in Virginia, arriving there September 25.

Charles Joseph McDonald, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ira McDonald of Big Beaver Road is entering Albion College this fall. Charles leaves for Albion on the 13th.

Four students, enrolled in state colleges, who formerly lived here but whose parents now reside in Ann Arbor include: Ezra M. Wellman, University of Michigan, senior; Phyllis Houston, University of Michigan, senior; George G. Wellman, Albion College, freshman; and Joseph Houston, who also is enrolled in the University of Michigan.
