NOVEL BRIDGE HAS BIG ATTENDANCE

Guests Go On 'Shopping Tour' At Oakland Hills Luncheon

A novel bridge luncheon which combined the fun and excitement of "shopping" for surprise packages, was an event at Oakland Hills Country Club Wednesday, which attracted some 300 guests. In addition to the pleasure of luncheon and playing bridge, the guests were invited to visit the elaborate gift shop, into which the entire north end of the ballroom had been transformed. Attractively arranged on the counters was the most tempting assortment of gifts concealed in tantalizing surprise packages gaily beribboned.

Every guest was allowed to go "shopping" and select her own gift from among the packages displayed. Also shown in the "shop" were the 20 door prizes including a very grand looking cake. To make the scene as realistic as possible, members of the committee "tended shop" to wait on the guest-patrons. Those from Birmingham on the shop committee included Mrs. Herbert Walton, Mrs. Fred H. Rollins, and Mrs. Walsio Turner. Mrs. C. C. Whitlock of Detroit was chairman of the store committee, which consisted of 14 members.

Among those from Birmingham entertaining guests were Mrs. Joseph A. Sweeney, Mrs. Clyde Haefner, Mrs. Frank Atcheson, Mrs. Joseph L. Dostal, Mrs. George J. Thomas, Mrs. Burton M. Pheasant, and Mrs. Gould Allen. Mrs. Allen had as her guests Mrs. Daniel Wertz, Mrs. A. B. Wilson, Mrs. Tom Miser, Mrs. Albert Arnold, Mrs. Clyde Bennett, Mrs. George Forester, Mrs. Karl Habermast, Mrs. John Merritt, Mrs. Robert Hirsch and Mrs. James Duncan.

Betrothal Is Told At Tea

June Botsford

Miniature envelopes sealed with gold hearts, informed the 50 guests at a tea given Saturday by Mrs. Clarence E. Botsford of Bloomfield Village, of the engagement of her daughter, June Mary Botsford, to Dr. Richard Dayton Calhoun, son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard D. Calhoun of Farmer City, Ill.

As each guest was served, the miniature envelope tied to her cup with pink tulle. Pouring wine Alice Botsford, sister of the bride-elect, and Mary Jane Tippert. The tea table was laid with a lace cloth, and centered with a silver basket filled with pink roses, and butterfly flowers. Butterfly boxes of pink tulle also adorned the silver candleabra, which held burning pink tapers.

Miss Botsford graduated from Baldwin High School, and will return Sept. 28 to resume her studies at the Vogue School of Art in Chicago. She is a member of the Beta Beta Beta Society.

Dr. Calhoun attended the Virginia Military Academy, the University of Illinois, and was graduated in June from Northwestern University. He is a member of the Psi Omega fraternity. He is now serving his internship at the Episcopal Hospital in Philadelphia. No date has been set for the wedding.

DATE IS SET FOR Closing Date Named For ANNUAL BOOK SALE Before And After Contest

A. A. U. W. Will Hold First Meeting of New Year On Wednesday

The annual book sale sponsored by the Birmingham Branch of the American Association of University Women, will be held this year during the week of Oct. 13 to the 24th. Mrs. William Schultz, of general chairman, and Mrs. J. H. L. Hines, of the committee on the sale, are ready to receive contributions of books. Mrs. Schultz said in an appeal to those members of going through the process of elimination involved in fall house cleaning. Books and magazines will be accepted by the committee in charge, and will be called for upon request.

Mrs. William C. Howe of Michigan drive, whose telephone number is 2181, is chairman of the book sale. Mrs. J. H. L. Hines, of 1014 1/2th St. S.E., is in charge of collection. Mrs. Schultz, who resides at Columbus, can be reached by telephone at 1024.

The A. A. U. W. will begin its new season with a meeting Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the home of Mr. Earl Bartholomew of Yarnmouth road. The Eugene B. Elliott of Birmingham, Superintendent of Public Instruction, will be the speaker. His subject will be "The Future of Our Schools."

Following the program, there will be an informal tea with Mrs. Royce L. Beers in charge.

For those lovers of beauty who entered the "Before and After" contest, courtesy of the Birmingham Unit of the Women's National Farm and Garden Association, the award is close at hand.

The contest, sponsored by the Unit to encourage Birmingham residents to improve their grounds by converting "before" pictures into other attractive spots, is now in progress. The fact that the "before" pictures were taken of the same place, and that the "after" pictures were taken of the same spot from the identical angle, photographically, is not to be taken into consideration. The degree of improvement and good taste.

The photographs should be taken in a direct front view, a close-up shot, and a wide-angle shot. The size should be three and one-half inches by four and one-fourth inches. The names of the contestants are not to be on the photographs. The photographs should be sent to the contest committee, care of Mrs. J. H. L. Hines, at the home of Mrs. Royce L. Beers in charge.
