American Boy Offers

World of Adventure

During the coming year AMERICAN BOY stories will take readers into thousand-transport planes into America and through the Caribbean with the Navy into the oceanic wastes of Georgia's Hatteras swamp, and even into an imaginary land of space ships, strange machines and science. All are written by David Levin, the young man who, for four years, alone, wandered across the entire horizon by foot from going months without seeing a human being and eating only the food he had there'll be Hester Turner's inside story of the famous London-McBourne air race.

There'll be advice on hobbies, sports tips from famous coaches and players, suggestions on money-making and low-cost travel and articles on dog training, motor's address and tomorrow's airplanes.

There'll be stories about the heroic characters of a million boys: Bushrod Turner, detective; Square Jaw Davis, engineer; Hiderack, the red-gold pilot; Alan Kane, scientist; and Leo Midshipman.

THE AMERICAN BOY came only $1 a year, or $2 for three years. Foreign subscribers $6 cents a copy. Send your name, address and remittance to THE AMERICAN BOY, 74th Street, Blvd. Detroit, Mich. Service will start with your issue. The newsstands, 10 cents a copy.

VOWS SPOKEN AT QUIET HOME RITES

Louise Curry Becomes Bride Of Birmingham Man At Simple Service

Announcement is made by Mrs. L. F. States of Bates street of the marriage of her sister, Louise Curry, and Lorenzo Verel Klins, son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Kline of Farmington, at a quiet ceremony Friday, Sept. 4, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Stites.

The Rev. W. Clarence Wright, pastor of the First Presbyterian church read the nuptial service. Mrs. Francis Kline, sister of the bridegroom, was the bride's only attendant, and Francis Kline was best man for his nephew.

The bride wore an afternoon costume of black and white crepe with which she wore gardenias. Her hair was gowned in light blue chiffon.

Mr. and Mrs. Kline are making their home on Bates street. The bride is the daughter of the Rev. and Mrs. D. H. Curry of Philadelphia, formerly of Birmingham. She is a graduate of Baldwin High School.

Use Avocados For Tempting Salads

Avocados are available almost the year round, but the principal season is from November to May. They are high in energy producing and body building elements. They contain vitamins A, B, C, D, E, and F. Only the fully ripened fruit should be selected for immediate use. Avocados are ready for use when the flesh has softened so that the fruit yields to the gentle pressure of the full hand. Many unusual and delicious dishes may be created by the modern cook by using Avocados.

Avocado With Lime Ice
1 1/2 teaspoon gelatin
2 teaspoons cold water
1 1/2 cups water
1 1/2 cups sugar
1/2 cup lime juice
Few grains salt
1 egg white
Green coloring

Soak gelatin in cold water five minutes. Make a syrup by boiling the water and sugar together. Cool. Add lime juice and turn in to refrigerator tray. When partly frozen turn out into a bowl, beat with egg beater and add stuffy beaten egg white. Add enough coloring to give a delicate green. Freeze. Fill avocados and cut in halves. Fill with lime ice.

Avocado Salad
Chill medium sized avocado halves, remove stone and pour French dressing which has been highly seasoned into each portion, allowing 1/2 avocado for each service.

Avocados On the Half Shell
Cut the fruit into halves lengthwise and remove the seed. Arrange on salad plate with lettuce leaves. Chop fresh green peppers finely, cut peeled cucumbers in small cubes. Marinate in French dressing made with lemon juice and only a small portion of oil. Fill the center of the avocados generously, with a small slice of pickled beet and a sprig of parsley on the side of the plate.

Tomato and Avocado Cocktail
Pour 2 1/4 cups chilled tomato juice slowly into 3/4 cup chilled evaporated milk, stir the mixture vigorously. Add 1/2 teaspoon salt, 1/4 cup chopped ice and 1/4 of an avocado, cut in bits. Set in the refrigerator to ripen.

Avocado Sea Food Salad
Peel avocados thinly and cut them into 4 sections lengthwise. Place 2 sections on their side on each plate. Between the sections place shrimp or crab meat or lobster. Serve with hearts of lettuce and mayonnaise.

New Mexico Avocado Salad
1 cup mashed Avocado
1/4 cup canned tomato pulp free from juice
1 teaspoon onion juice
1/2 teaspoon chili powder
Salt

Mix these ingredients together. Chill. Serve on crisp cold leaves of romaine, garnished with a small slab of mayonnaise.

Avocado Sandwich
Choose avocados that are well ripened and not thick. Mash the meat thoroughly. To each avocado add 1/4 teaspoon of salt and 1 teaspoon of lemon juice. Spread on cheese crackers, sprinkle with paprika.

Avocado and Grapefruit Salad
1/2 cup mayonnaise
1 tablespoon cream, whipped
2 avocados
2 cups grapefruit sections.
Onion
Green pepper
French dressing

Fold the mayonnaise into the whipped cream until thoroughly blended. Peel the avocados and cut each lengthwise into 16 strips. Marinate in the French dressing for 30 minutes in the refrigerator. Place alternate 4 strips of avocado and 2 sections of grapefruit on 5 crisp stalks of onion, for each serving. Garnish the top with thin green pepper strips, with mayonnaise and cream mixture.

League Is Connecting Link For "Michigan" Alumnae

Editor's Note: This is the seventh of a series of articles by Marjorie Elaine Purdie showing the relation of various organizations to community life in Birmingham, and how these groups influence the city's social and cultural interests.

Birmingham's first link between the University of Michigan and the local women, was the Michigan League. It was organized here in 1922-1923, to aid in raising funds for the University of Michigan. The League will hold its first meeting this month at the home of Mrs. W. H. White, 1015 1/2 St. Charles, when plans for raising money toward the Fellowship will be discussed.

In the past the League has adopted a variety of methods for producing money to be sent as contributions to scholarship funds at the University. Each meeting is a student lunch, for which Mrs. W. H. White, 1015 1/2 St. Charles, is the hostess.

Just as the League was organized in Birmingham with a definite purpose in mind, it will continue to do so.

the total is added to the general fund of the annual cost of the League and other.

Shortly after its organization, the League sponsored a series of lectures, with the first one on the subject of "The University of Michigan" given by Mrs. W. H. White, 1015 1/2 St. Charles. Other speakers included Mrs. Hope Lee, Mrs. W. H. White, Mrs. Loren, J. B. White, Mrs. Charles J. Smith, Mrs. F. M. Kline, Mrs. H. B. Starch, and Mrs. Thomas H. Thurston.

This year's work is being done from the League's new headquarters, an interesting building at 1015 1/2 St. Charles, which was built by the League for the Michigan League building in Ann Arbor.

Other speakers during the year will be Mrs. Booth Clegg, secretary of the League in Ann Arbor, and Mrs. W. H. White, 1015 1/2 St. Charles, who will be the honor guest and speaker.

The League's first meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. W. H. White, 1015 1/2 St. Charles, on Thursday, September 24, at 8 o'clock.
