ODDITIES - LAND, SEA AND AIR By C. Y. Renick

The LLAMA OF SOUTH AMERICA, A MEMBER OF THE CAMEL FAMILY, IS USED AS A BEAST OF BURDEN AND THE HAIR OR WOOL IS USED FOR MAKING COARSE FABRICS.

MULE A HYBRID ANIMAL BETWEEN THE HORSE AND THE DONKEY. THOSE BETWEEN A MALE DONKEY AND A MARE, ARE FAR SUPERIOR TO THE OTHERS (FEMALE DONKEY AND A HORSE).

THE LLAMA IS HEAVY TEMPERED AND HAS A WEAKNESS FOR BITTING ON PEOPLE.

KITTY KELLY AND NELLIE SHANNON

KITTY HAS WORKED TO PUT THE SHOW OVER - BUT HORROR! THE ONLY WAY HE CAN ACT IS SELF-CONSCIOUS!

DUL-DEEZ MR. BROWNE STRIDE - DON'T DRANCE

NO! NO! NO! MR. BROWNE YOU'VE GOT IT ALL WRONG!

YOU'RE IN LOVE WITH THE GIRL, HOLD HER THIS WAY - AS IF YOU MEANT IT!

American Place Names Today's specialties: Keokuk, Ark.; Keokuk, Okla.; Keokuk, Iowa.

True! Economy is the foundation upon which all large fortunes are built.—Chicago News.

Bitter Reflection Inherent a fortune—the world is small. Get into trouble—the world is a desert.—Fayetteville (N. C.) Observer.

Observation It isn't always what you stand on but what you fall for.—Birmingham Sun.

Progress of Civilization The change since 1914 is that people will not go to war any more. The war will come to them.—Toronto Star.

Wonders of Nature Farms are showing in the droughts; ships are dodging water-spouts. Nature has a funny notion when earth gets dry, to shake the ocean.—Toronto Star.

Life in the U. S. A. They made so much fun of a dog catcher down in Arkansas that he resigned. The dog catcher's life is harder than a dog's life, we judge.—Rochester Times-Union.

Died Happy Epitaph for man who kills himself eating: He had a good time three times a day.—Toledo Blade.

In England, Too? It is complained that many business men write illegibly. A really busy man, of course, has no time to be constantly consulting a dictionary.—London Humorist.

A Real Need What the world needs, even more than a good five-cent cigar is cheap seats for steam-shovel wrecks. Louisville Times.

The Ladies Could Harvard College, now 300 years old, has agreed to admit 100 girls. But cannot come to the point of letting in the ladies. Probably in protection of the school. You can tell a Harvard man, but you can't tell him much.

Just For Fun

Bumps on the Head Interns (to see we had a lot of patients admitted during the cold and grippe) out of them victims of congestion.

Reporters' Congestion of the Lung Interns—No congestion of the traffic.

Marked "That fellow must live in a very small apartment." "How can you tell?" "Why, haven't you noticed that his dog was hit on and down a street of sideways."

Lucky Pup "There are direct and indirect taxation." Give me an example of indirect taxation. "The dog tax, sir." "How is that?" "The dog does not have to pay it."

Why are you whitewashing those fallen trees?" "The order called for white pine logs."

Sure of Quality Customer: I'm going to give a guaranty with this hair restorer." Barber: Guaranty, sir? Why we give a comb.

"What is a true agnostic?" "A blind man who believes that seeing is believing."

What Darling? "What did you give baby for his first birthday?" "We opened his money box and bought the little darling a lovely electric iron."

"She suffered in silence." "I'll bet she suffered."

Likes It Mother—What is your baby brother crying about? Thomas—He's dug a big hole in the backyard and wants to bring it into the house.

"I'm awfully disappointed about my dramatic performance." "Well, you weren't fixed, were you?" "No, but neither was the audience."

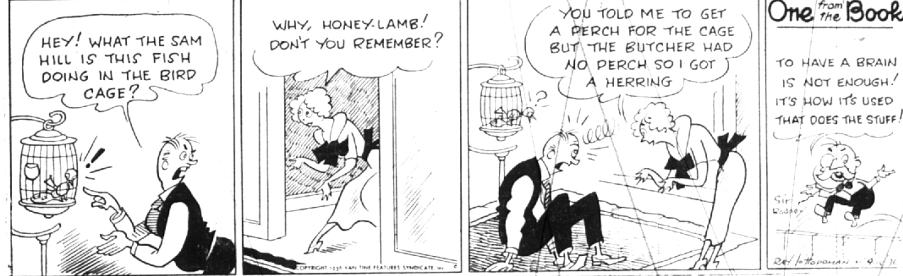

Call the Roll "What did you say your name was?" asked the enquiring young man of the girl he had met at a dance. "Was—she repeated. "Pierre, Spenser, Rollins and Streeter."

"Verily, I'll cut the traitor into shreds with my trusty sword." "Ripping (snoring by Jesse).

Hard Lines Rollins, Timmons still mad over the theft of his flower, even after having got over the chief thief. "That's cause the jury don't know him of petty larceny."

Telling Secrets The Major—you know, I have not seen your husband since he returned to civil life. "The Captain's wife—You mean since he was released from the army, don't you? He never was very civil."

DON'T BE LIKE THAT!

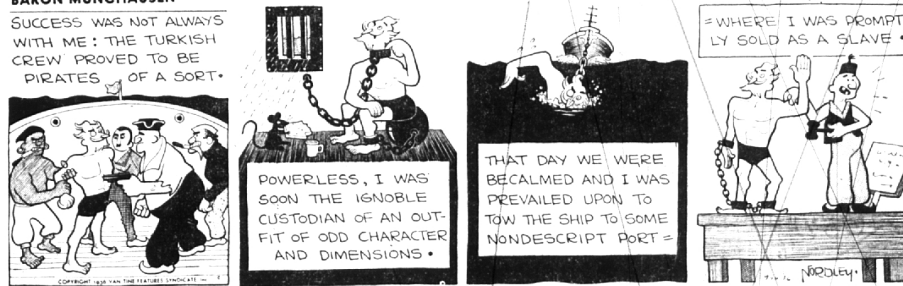

HEY! WHAT THE SAM HILL IS THIS FISH DOING IN THE BIRD CAGE?

WHY, HONEY LAMB! DON'T YOU REMEMBER?

YOU TOLD ME TO GET A PERCH FOR THE CAGE BUT THE BUTCHER HAD NO PERCH SO I GOT A HERRING

One from the Book TO HAVE A BRAIN IS NOT ENOUGH! IT'S HOW IT'S USED THAT DOES THE STUFF!

SUPERSTITIOUS BELIEFS

DON'T BREAK A MIRROR! AMONG THE ANCIENTS THE SOUL WAS CAPABLE OF LEAVING THE BODY AT CERTAIN TIMES, AS WHEN ASLEEP OR IN PAINTING SPELLS.

THEY BELIEVED REFLECTIONS WERE PICTURES OF THE SOUL AND FEARED TO LOOK AT THEM IN STERNS AS THE WIND OR SOME BUB- STANCE MIGHT DESTROY THE SOUL PICTURE.

BREAKING A MIRROR WOULD ACCOMPLISH THE SAME RESULT BY DESTROYING THE REFLECTION.

BURNING IN EFFigy IS A DIRECT OFFENSE OF THIS BELIEF SINCE THE IMAGE OF THE SOUL IS BEING INJURED OR DESTROYED.
