Maynard Seibert Is Dem Candidate For Congressman

SEIBERT IS SPEAKER AT ROYAL OAK RALLY A number of local people journeyed from Royal Oak this Saturday night to hear Maynard Seibert, Democratic candidate for Congress in the 17th District, address a capacity crowd in the VFW Hall there.

By MINNIE HUNT SALTZER Mr. Al Babcock's home was at the South West corner of Toxey and Chester Sts. His wife also the sister of...

Maynard Seibert, resident of Royal Oak for the past 20 years, is the Democratic candidate for Congressman from the 17th District.

Mr. Seibert was born in DeLaware, Mo., 22 years ago. He received a college education, afterwards attending Delancey College and Ohio Northern University. He taught school following completion of his collegiate studies.

For 17 years Mr. Seibert worked in an automobile factory. During that time he gave four hours a week of his time to teaching foreign born employees of the company to speak, read and write our language. This was done without pay. He has been a member of a social service agency in Royal Oak during the past 17 years. He helped organize the Royal Oak Social Savings Bank Depositors Association and was elected to that city's commission in 1935. He was also a delegate to the Oakland County Democratic convention in 1934 and 1936 and was a delegate to the state convention this year.

Mr. Seibert who is married and the father of four children, believes in social security for all and highly favors labor unions, it was learned. He has expressed the hope that in the political future must confine his efforts to public need rather than party expediency.

Three Rivers, Mich. Sept. 2, 1938. The Birmingham Eccentric.

Down around the Clear Store here they got to talking and some-thing about the political office man who will be the Democratic candidate to be defeated by Governor Fitzgerald at the autumn election.

Whenever it was who was talking at the time said Mr. Murphy is one of the richest or millionaires in the political office man fall while Mr. Welch used to be a Republican and a mighty good slipper puller.

I also heard that Mr. Murphy is the only Irishman who speaks the English language in the West. He is in the Philippines on a WPA project, they said, when he heard President Roosevelt was elected. He came a running. But so did 16 or 17 other Murphy's. They heard the boy and girl and thought they were suffering from humidity. But Murphy is not.

Mr. Welch's slogan, so they said, was a staunch Republican, always an American. But the other Murphy's should have quit playing the slipper puller game. And the Democratic candidate right today are running a lot higher average than filling-cabin, which is four to the city block.

I haven't any way of telling whether one of these two candidates in the primary will be successful after they quit tramping down the harbor and the state. But if Mr. Welch wins there won't be so many Murphy's to get puzzled-up about it.

And Mr. Welch after the election, can't go on being Michigan's versatile shoo-in-maker. They've voted Chet Shaffer.

The Sage & Seer of the St. Joe, Ind. & Portage, River Valley. E. Seibel was talking to Cleon Hingman after the other day down south of town on the street. He was wearing beans in his track patch and he said he guessed he'd rest all ready for a good night's sleep.

And Mr. Welch, "I think he's honest. And when you get a governor like that, there arent much use middle-class' around town to find another one. You might want to see him."

Mr. S. S. Elton Hoopgarner had some relatives around Barr Oak but I don't know if they're any relative of the Hoopgarner's. I don't know if they want to sleep in a ten-ton truck and crashed through the balcony of Mr. Seibert's hotel two years ago. He was almost ready to register when he woke up. Mel had the rest all ready for a good night's sleep.

Mr. S. S. Elton and somebody else down the Clear Store said that after four years of Democratic High School, what the country needs is a good London-Norfolk (1938) C. S.

Local Engineer Is GOP Candidate For Drain Commission

WE HEARD IT SAID BY— William B. Roosevelt, Jr., Roosevelt Drive—"I have traveled several of the Western states from Michigan to California, by automobile and by air, and there seems to be little left of the former enthusiasm for the present Democratic administration. To the contrary, there appears to be a feeling of satisfaction that they can turn to a commonsense, kindly and experienced Western man, Al Landon, for president in the November election.

Mr. Smith graduated from Michigan State College as a Civil Engineer and has had extended experience in that capacity. He is 35 years of age, married and a member of the Methodist Church here. He resides at 507 1/2 Forest Street.

Regarding his candidacy, Mr. Smith said: "It excited me to see the taxpayers of Oakland County an honest, efficient and economical administration of the county drain office. I am not a member, nor have I been a member of the Black Legion or any of its affiliations."

Gas Toppers The North Carolina Legislature has passed a law including the sale of gasoline to intoxicated persons. Gosh, have they been reduced to drinking that stuff in the Old North State.—Jackson (Miss.) Daily News.

Humiliating Nothing is more humiliating than being a man who is not as good as you are able to put it all over you because they have so much more money.—Cincinnati Enquirer.

Out of the Frying Pan A Hollywood company has offered Hale Selassie a job. Hasn't the man had to pay out $100,000 worth of liquor they expected to bring in free, can only be compared with what others among them did in his Scotch—Norfolk Virginian-Pilot.

Political Note There's talk of competing pages in the House of Representatives with roller skates. However, there is more strength in a couple of snuffing many of the members with skills next November.—Ohio State Journal.

Scotch-English Affair With nothing to do, the returning tourist from the West Indies did to the King's English when they found that he had to pay out $100 worth of liquor they expected to bring in free, can only be compared with what others among them did in his Scotch—Norfolk Virginian-Pilot.

Random Remarks Pat Harrison, U. S. Senator from Mississippi: "We are going to reach a balance budget much earlier than we had expected."

Franklin D. Roosevelt, President: "A good many people in this country are entitled to a good time, but what they have been through."

Fritz Krone, Captain, German liner: "In my twenty years in the North Atlantic trade I have never seen so many sharks in these waters."

Henry A. Wallace, Secretary of Agriculture: "The Weather Bureau's records suggest that extreme drought in particular regions may be expected to occur at intervals of thirty to forty years."

Where Grant Lived This is the house in which President U. S. Grant lived when he was an obscure army lieutenant stationed in Detroit. The house was recently moved from Fort Street to the Detroit Fair Grounds where it will be open to visitors to the Michigan State Fair, Sept. 4 to 13. Workmen are shown restoring the house to its condition when Grant lived in it. The house will be stocked with Grant relics.

ASSETS I do not own a board of things That can be bought with gold; No slender vases, china old And rings, no jeweled chains and No lovely linens sheer and fine, No upper floors with polished floors, No chests and tables, beds and chairs. All carved in intricate design. Such things as that are not for me; But all the trees and summer breezes, the sky, the breezes and the showers And all the beauty of the sea Are mine. The lovely songbirds sing For me at dawn. Each perfect That is of earth is mine to own; And though these can't be bought or sold, They are more wonderful than gold. —Beatrice McDonald
