Happenings of Long Ago

Fifty Years Ago It sounds good again to hear the school bell ring, and it isn't a chestnut either.

The government has donated a large cannon and the artillery arrived last week. A Birmingham failed to come in for a share of Saturday's storm, but we got a beautiful refreshing Sunday afternoon and night.

Wanted immediately: A strong, competent girl for general housework. One who likes children. Misses come well recommended. I will pay $2.50 a week. Mrs. E. C. Pennington.

H. H. Hood has made a survey and placed an addition to the village of Birmingham, running south from Fremont street, and comprising nine lots. Robert H. Kiesel of Royal Oak surveyed and plotted it in a manner reflecting credit upon himself.

Mrs. Ann Rogers came near having a painful accident happen her last Monday by falling into the eastern. Fortunately, the long dry weather had about empaned her, so she escaped drowning, but received a severe bruise that was painful but not dangerous.

Elizabeth, for her mother's smell, but a young friend of ours says, when his mother uses it on his little sister, that for nothing it is going a little too far. He thinks it is quite an ounce for hair oil is too rich for the family bulb.

Twenty-Five Years Ago Mrs. Calista Hahner of Sterling Township, Michigan, is a woman of salmon, let the can opener set and cut herself in the pantry.

The library will be closed on Monday, Sept. 4 to Saturday, Sept. 6, inclusive. This is our library to attend the state library meeting at Cedar Point, O. New steps to the building will be built during the week.

From Brownell street, Ann Street, Fifteenth street, Southside, and facts all over town, some complaints regarding noise and danger from children's toys, tricycles, wagons, coasters, etc., etc., Marshal Reid has been instructed to enforce the law, and he is obliged to do it, and he is going to do it. Watch out, boys and girls!

The immense watering tank which the Grand Trunk is building just north of the depot is nearing completion. This is the second largest tank of its kind on the Grand Trunk system, and will have a capacity of nearly 100,000 gallons. It will supply both north and south bound engines and the water is to be pumped to a pump to supply the tank with water direct from the River Rouge at a price of 10 cents per 1,000 gallons.

Five Years Ago Bloomfield Township tax levying and collecting machinery may be upset this fall to such an extent that certain units of government, including the public schools, may find it difficult to continue functioning.

Spurred to action by several serious glass fires which have swept over thousands of acres in the township in the past few days, Bloomfield Township officials and residents will meet together tonight to discuss plans for more adequate fire protection.

Possibly that the Birmingham Y. M. C. A. may be forced to vacate its present quarters in the village school building, because of an order of the Board of Education Monday night when the members agreed that the village school building should be used to grant the use of the buildings free of charge to the Y. M. C. A.

The newly bevalled district over the Barnum School swimming pool, which was expected to take effect at the Board of Education meeting Monday night failed to materialize when no one appeared to ask that the pool be opened to suggest means for financing its operations.

A circulation at Baldwin Public Library for August totalled 7,851 books, an increase of 1,223 over the corresponding month last year, according to Mrs. Nancy B. Thomas, librarian. New borrowings for the month numbered 98 and 51 books were added to the library shelves, making a total of 13,163 now listed.
