PLAY WILL MARK BIRTHDAY OF BARD

Kingswood Seniors To Stage Adaptation Of "Twelfth Night," April 23

In observance of the anniversary of the birth of William Shakespeare, Friday evening, April 23, senior students of Kingswood School Cranbrook will offer an arrangement of "Twelfth Night."

The adaptation will require only an hour for performance, and the setting and costumes will be impressive rather than traditional. Appearing in the cast will be Eleanora Ewald, Barbara Tillotson, Madeline Owen, Marian Cronquist, Anne Henry, Marjorie Erb, Elizabeth Bettle, Della May Clemmer, Nancy Strelinger, Marcelline Watkins, Marian Orwell, Mary Myers, Jeanne Fisher, Betty Ball and Mary Colton.

Dean To Be Speaker

Dean Lloyd

Miss Alice Overholser Lloyd, Dean of Women of the University of Michigan, will be the honor guest and speaker at the meeting of the Michigan League Wednesday at the Community House at 3:30 o'clock.

The meeting will be followed by tea at which special guests will be the senior girls of Baldwin High School and their mothers. Miss Lloyd will speak informally on various phases of college training.

Mrs. Loren T. Bolsonen is in charge of arrangement for the meeting, assisted by Mrs. Lewis B. Simpson and Mrs. Lee A. White.

Miss Lloyd came to the University in 1926 when she was appointed chairman, advisers, of women. Prior to this she served as probation officer in the Juvenile Division of the Wayne County Probate Court. Educated in Ann Arbor public schools, Miss Lloyd received her A. B. from the University of Michigan in 1916. She was graduated from the nursing training school of St. Luke's hospital in New York City in 1921. She is the author of "Social Responsibility and Home in Nursing Education."

CURTAIN WILL RISE ON 3 GUILD PLAYS

Sheldon Nobles To Entertain Cast Of "It's Your Move" After Performance

St. Dunstan's Guild will offer its April performance Friday evening of this week, with three one-act plays written by members. Capt. H. Loveland Towle is the author of "Fragments From Hell," Mrs. Linton Hart wrote "Smith Brothers in Sons of Yesterday," and Sheldon R. Noble is the author of "It's Your Move."

Following the performance, Mr. and Mrs. Noble will entertain members of the cast of Mr. Noble's play at an informal supper party. Mrs. Fred M. Brozek is assisting Mr. Noble as director, and in the cast are H. Kenneth Bingham, Mrs. Fred C. Pew, Miss Jessie Winter, John W. Blanchard, Ed. W. Boreford, John W. Sanders, Alan W. Weitz, and George T. Nickerson.

Appearing in Capt. Towle's play will be J. Robert F. Swanson, C. G. Eden, Donald Sanderson, Mortimer H. Koff, Frederick C. Fox, Mrs. Frederick E. Booth, Wallemar P. Adams, Mrs. Eden, and R. W. Woodruff. Hubert B. Davison is directing the play, assisted by Mrs. Adams.

Mr. Hart, Miss Pearl Peterson and Tempton Licklider will comprise the cast of "Songs of Yesterday," written and directed by Mrs. Hart.

Among those entertaining at dinner before the plays will be Miss Bernayne Thompson, guests will include Mrs. Norman Gabriel of Tuscon, Ariz., Mr. and Mrs. George T. Nickerson, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Van Antwerp and John Sanders.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Sanderson of Sullfield road have invited a group of friends to dine with them preceding the plays.

Former Resident Is Married In Chicago

A wedding of interest to Birmingham was solemnized in St. Paul's Episcopal Church at Riverside, Chicago, Saturday evening when Miss Gertrude Havesmeyer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert E. Havesmeyer of Riverside, became the bride of Ralph Thomas of Tuscon, Ariz., formerly of Birmingham.

The bride is a descendant of John Kinzie, one of Chicago's first settlers. Mr. Thomas attended Cranbrook School and the University of Michigan. Mr. and Mrs. Thomas are on a wedding journey in Virginia, after which they will reside in Chicago.

Rotary Anns To Hear Talk On Modern Art

"Modern Art" will be the subject on an address by Mrs. Thomas L. Tharber of Oak street, a well known Michigan artist, Monday before the Rotary Ann's literary luncheon at the home of Mrs. John D. Maynard of Forest avenue.

Assisting hostesses will be Mrs. Norman James, Mrs. J. B. Digley, and Mrs. George E. Averill.

Mrs. Tharber was recently named as one of the Michigan artists invited to enter her work in an exhibit of aqua-chromatic water color pictures, which will open in New York City in June, and later make a tour of the entire country.

District Plans Party For Children At Billet

Units of the 17th District will be hosts to children of Otter Lake Billet at April birthday party to be held at the Billet Sunday at 2 p. m. Gifts will be presented to the 14 children having birthdays within the month. There will be a program followed by refreshments for the 125 children.

Attending from Birmingham will be Mrs. Gordon L. Bailey, Mrs. Robert Appell and Mrs. Gien Bourne.

In honor of Mrs. George E. A. Hallett of Mohagan drive, who with Mr. Hallett and their family will leave within a fortnight for Phoenix, Ariz., to reside, Mrs. Norman Lyle of Yorkshire road will be hostess at a stag dinner for 40 guests. Presiding at the tea table will be Mrs. H. H. Gilbert and Mrs. Seymour Adams. Norman Lyle will be host at a stag dinner for 12 guests Friday evening, the occasion being his 17th birthday.

Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Wideman of Riverside road spent the week end in Chicago where they attended the wedding of Mr. Willem van der Meer, Polly Whipple and John W. Toild.

VISION In Darkness

With the power that popular fancy attributes to the cat, your doctor's vision pierces the gloom to discern the source of your trouble. And having found it, he draws upon his knowledge of drugs and their uses to prescribe treatment. To effectively carry out his treatment, your doctor requires the assistance of trained pharmacists. For success depends largely on his prescription being correctly filled. You and he can depend thoroughly on Schetter's. Only drugs of highest standard are compounded exactly as your doctor prescribes.
