BACK FENCING

By A MAN ABOUT TOWN

Now that the big auto workers strikes are about all over (we hope) we can again look forward to bigger pay rolls, greater spending and cheaper money. We can't figure out just what all the joshing about just about everything these days is all about because it only means more money to try to spread around that 'buck'...

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Bruni just returned from a well deserved vacation. They visited at the former home of Mrs. Bruni (B. M.). Before Mr. Bruni, McAllister, Oklahoma is a very nice spot, and we would say it was a wild and woolly western town when Mrs. Bruni lived there...

We heard a "True Story" about some of our neighbors the other day which we thought was pretty good. It seems that the Flynns, who live on Bates Street, heard some strange noises coming from the second floor of their home one day last week...

And speaking of the boys and girls brings my thoughts to the obligation we as grown-ups owe the children. One of them is to foster their masculine right to play. So, if a ball should be batted over on your yard, or a youngster or two should scamper across your ten-acre lawn, do not too harshly with the culprits but perhaps speak kindly to them about it...
