JUNIORS TO OFFER 4 ONE-ACT PLAYS

Kingwood Girls To Present Classical Repertoire At School

As an innovation, the Junior girls at Kingwood School Grand break will present four one-act plays instead of one longer play, when they offer their program at the school Friday evening, May 7, at 8:15 o'clock. Mrs. M. W. Cochran is acting as director, and William Comstock is assisting. The first of the plays will be Edna St. Vincent Millay's "Two Slatterns and a King." In the cast will be Joan Murry, Sally Bock, Barbara Huttig and Cynthia Adams.

This will be followed by "The Bad Penny" by Rachel Lyman Field, and taking part will be Peggy Beers, Helen Davidson, Jean L. Hommesday, and Jean Henderson. The third play is from the pen of the same author, and its title, "The 13th Candle." Appearing in it will be Lenore Ginsburg, Betty Baldwin, Gladys Barker, Sylvia Jeffrey and Betsy Kelly.

The program will close with an anonymous play called "The Fatal Quest," in which will be seen Peggy Beers, Sylvia Jeffrey, Marilyn Mercer, Barbara Shuett, June Daisley, Mary Louise Korn and Marjorie Smith. Acting as ushers will be May Van Siambronek, Sally Hunter, Barbara Curtis and Dorothy Warner.

The annual Mothers' Day tea will be held at the school Sunday, May 9, when Mrs. Margaret Angus, headmistress, the faculty and students, will be hostesses to the mothers.

Dinner Dance Will Mark Formal Opening At Oakland Hills Club

The season will begin officially at Oakland Hills Country Club Saturday evening with the annual opening dinner dance, which bids fair to be an event of magnitude, judging from all indications.

Preceding the dinner—planned for 8 o'clock—will be numerous gatherings and cocktail parties. Among those entertaining are Mrs. and Mrs. E. O. Mead of Wadsworth road, who will have as their guests for cocktails at home, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Vogel, Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Manger, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Harrows, Mr. and Mrs. C. U. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Chrpton, Mr. and Mrs. J. Z. Lander and Mr. and Mrs. Warren Pease, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Gould Allen of Southfield road are entertaining also, having as their guests, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Arnold, and Mr. and Mrs. Carl Habermast. Mr. and Mrs. Joseph L. Dostal of Overhill road will be hosts at cocktails in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Forest A. Hastings of Detroit, who will sail May 15 for Europe. Their other guests will include Mr. and Mrs. Lew A. Stewart of Flint and Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Cronin of Detroit.

Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Stoddard have invited for cocktails, Mr. and Mrs. D. J. Ball, Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Covey, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Barton, Mr. and Mrs. George Pfister, and Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Wurster, of Indianapolis, formerly of Birmingham.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph A. Sweeney of Lone Pine court are taking a group of friends to the club for dinner and dancing, including Mr. and Mrs. Norman Chamberlin, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Rothmeyer, Dr. and Mrs. Howard Cobane, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Rogers and Mrs. H. M. Kinney.

Dining together in another group will be Mr. and Mrs. G. J. Thomas, Mr. and Mrs. Lester Downie, Mr. and Mrs. Wendell Stecker and Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Downie, Mr. and Mrs. W. Bay of Wimbledon drive will be hosts to 16 guests at cocktails at their home.

Besides the dinner and dancing, there will be an all-star floor show, with Julia Sabourin as the featured singer. Ray Gorrell and his orchestra will provide the music.

FOREST LAKE CLUB PLANS MAY PARTY

Season Will Open Formally With Dance, Floor Show And Supper

For Saturday evening, May 1, Forest Lake Country Club will be known as Babes in the Woods Club, the reason being, according to Sidney A. Wells, chairman of the entertainment committee, that on this particular evening the club will open with a large-sized barbecue.

There will be an elaborate show, and all the other frills and thrills including "bright lights, prizes and surprises." Dancing will begin at 9 p. m. with supper at 11.

Among those making early reservations are Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Preston, Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Raeder, Mr. and Mrs. Allen Staley, Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Wendell, Mr. and Mrs. W. Carleton Scott, Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Millman, Mr. and Mrs. C. Gordon Craven, Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Harrington, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hatcher, Mr. and Mrs. D. L. Tate, Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Laver, Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Oeternan, Mr. and Mrs. Guy E. Parker, Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Hopkins, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Kallon and Mr. and Mrs. Pierre Schou.

Plans Are Complete For Benefit Bridge

Plans have been completed for the bridge tea to be given Saturday at the Community House under auspices of a group of Birmingham girls as a benefit for the children's clinic at St. Joseph's Mercy Hospital.

Shirley Smith is general chairman, assisted by Mary Drury. Jane Jones is chairman of the ticket committee, which also includes Mary Ann Neff. Jane Hyde is chairman of the refreshment committee, assisted by Adele Cole, Marjory Smith, and Dorothy Taylor.

Rhea Ewald heads the publicity committee with Alice Buford and Margaret Cowap. Elizabeth Richey is chairman of the place committee.

Presiding at the tea table during the afternoon, will be Mrs. Lane Bishop and Mrs. Miltos F. Condon. Patronesses will include Mrs. James Vernon, Jr., Mrs. H. H. Gardner, Mrs. Bishop and Mrs. Coulson.

GARDEN UNIT WILL SPONSOR BENEFIT

Fashion Show To Be Feature Of Bridge Tea May 22 At Kingswood

The scholarship fund of the Women's National Farm and Garden Association and the Community House will benefit among other things, by the proceeds of a bridge tea sponsored by the Birmingham Unit, to be held at Kingswood School, Cranbrook, Saturday, May 22. Play will begin at 2 p. m.

The remaining funds will be used to promote other projects in which the unit is interested. An additional feature of the benefit, and one of particular appeal this time of year, will be a fashion show. There will be music by Del Delbridge's Orchestra.

Mrs. H. Gray Muray is general chairman of arrangements, assisted by Mrs. Sheldon R. Noble, Mrs. Mrs. Henry Kline.

JUNIOR ARTISTS TO OFFER PROGRAM

Dr. J. E. Maddy, Ann Arbor, Will Discuss Progress Of Music In Schools

Junior artists will appear on the program of the Birmingham Musicale at the Community House next Thursday at 2 p. m., as part of the observance of National Music Week. Guests of the Musicale at this meeting will be children from Birmingham schools who are especially interested in music.

Dr. Joseph E. Maddy of the University of Michigan, will be the speaker. He will discuss the work of the National Music Camp at Interlochen near Traverse City, and the advancement of music in the schools during the last few years.

Those who will be heard as junior artists are Marsha Ann Mellinger, Kathleen Mead and William Brewster, all pianists. Edward Horton and Robert Ziegler will be heard in a flute and clarinet duet, and Robert Soderberg will play a trumpet solo.
