WOMEN PLAN BUSY SEASON FOR CLUB

Mixed Bridge, Luncheon And Fashion Show In Early Events

Social plans for women members are well under way for the coming season. The first affair announced by the committee is a mixed bridge to be held at the club Saturday evening, May 8. There will be door prizes and prizes for each table. The party will begin with a buffet supper from 6:30 to 8:30 p. m., when bridge will begin.

An unusually active Women's Entertainment Committee is to take charge of affairs for the coming season. The first affair announced by the committee is a mixed bridge to be held at the club Saturday evening, May 8. There will be door prizes and prizes for each table. The party will begin with a buffet supper from 6:30 to 8:30 p. m., when bridge will begin.

Mrs. C. C. Whitlock is chairman of the committee, with Mrs. M. M. Burgess as assistant chairman. The committee includes also Mrs. Joseph E. Dostal, Mrs. Clyde A. Haefner, Mrs. M. R. Mead, Mrs. Warren Pease, Jr., and from Detroit, Mrs. W. J. Black, Mrs. T. W. Colman, Mrs. L. A. Colman, Mrs. J. H. Cobane, Mrs. Donald J. Buell and Mrs. A. R. Maloch.

The formal opening for women members will be the bridge luncheon and spring style show, planned for Wednesday, May 12. Luncheon will finish at 12:30. During the afternoon, strolling musicians will furnish music. The women's entertainment committee is also in charge of this affair.

The Women's golf committee also has been busy making plans. The season will open for women golfers, Friday, May 7. Play will start at 9 a. m., with luncheon at 12:30 p. m. On the committee this year are Mrs. Richard Fitzgerald, chairman; Mrs. L. V. McCabe, vice-chairman; Mrs. Dostal, secretary; Mrs. Euelid T. Smith, handicap chairman; Mrs. R. M. Burch, publicity chairman; and Mrs. Edwin Bliss and Mrs. Harry Rivier, prizes.

Players Ring Down The Curtain For The Year With Gay Finale

By Carol Dwellley
As a vivid sunset ends a perfect day, so the Village Players concluded their season in a burst of talent and enthusiasm, last Friday and Saturday evenings. The play was John Drinkwater's "Bird in Hand," a contemporary comedy of rural English life. Throwing a new light on England's class struggles, the story concerned the efforts of the proprietor of the Bird in Hand Air House to keep
