VOWS ARE SPOKEN AT SIMPLE RITES

Following Wedding Trip In Canada Couple To Remain In Bloomfield Court

Viola Jane Shepherd and Walter Preston Hickey, spoke their nuptial vows last Thursday afternoon at a simple ceremony at 4 o'clock, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry McMillan Shepherd of Bates Aet. Mr. Hickey is the son of Mrs. Preston M. Hickey of Detroit, and the late Dr. Hickey.

The Rev. W. Clarence Wright of the First Presbyterian church read the marriage service before members of the family and a few close friends. The bride who was unattended, was dressed for traveling in a three-piece suit of Royal blue, trimmed with blue fox. Her hat was an off-the-face model of dark blue straw, and her accessories were also of dark blue. She wore a shoulder corsage of white gardenias.
