IDAHO VS. NEVADA.
Boise, Idaho.—With the signing by Governor Clark of a law to reduce from three months to six weeks the time divorce-seekers must reside in Idaho before starting legal proceedings, Idaho is in line to compete with Nevada for some of the nation's divorce business. The measure will become effective within sixty days after adjournment of the Legislature.

Pat wanted to borrow some money from Michael, who happened to have a small boy with him at the moment. "Tis a fine kid you have there, Mike," said Pat. "A magnificent head and noble features. Could you loan me ten?" "I could not," replied Mike. "Tis me wife's child by her first husband."

LEGION TO HAVE BALL TEAM AGAIN

Local Youths Expected To Be Strong Contenders For Title

An American Legion junior baseball team again will be organized in Birmingham for the 1937 season according to Legion officials who are sponsoring the outfit in this district.

All youths who are now under 17 years of age or were not 18 before March 31 of this year are eligible to play on the squad and they are urged to try out for a position on the "nine." Applications may be addressed in care of The Eccentric, Legion Baseball Team, or G. L. Bailey, 427 Hamilton Ave.

It is expected that practice will begin about May 1 with "Archie" Livingston serving as coach. Following the close of the school year a number of diamond performers on the Baldwin High team are expected to join the Legion squad and bolster its chances of winning the district title. Last year the team finished second in the district, losing out to Royal Oak. The squad had a season's record of five wins and two losses.

Several of the leading major stars of today obtained their start in baseball through the American Legion teams. Bob Feller, of the Cleveland Indians, and Phil Cavaratta, of the Chicago Cubs, are examples.

IF YOU enjoy yourself most at films that make your hair stand on end, your spine tingle, and your hands grow damp in terror, Gaumont-British has brought over just the ideal evening's entertainment for you. It is "The Woman Alone," with Oscar Homolka and Sylvia Sidney.

If you take my advice, you will see it in the afternoon, so you will have a few hours before bedtime in which to recover from the sheer terror it inspires. But by all means see it, even if it does mean loss of sleep for a few days, for it is one of the smoothest and most gripping pictures you will ever have a chance to see.

Speaking of Sylvia Sidney, Ann Dvorak are running a neck and neck — or is it? — should say test and test — race for the leading role in Samuel Goldwyn's film of "Dead End." Each girl has made several tests of the big scenes in the play and both are so good, Mr. Goldwyn is having a hard time choosing between them. Holly-wooders of hope, Ann Dvorak will get the role, because Sylvia Sidney has had so many triumphs lately, she doesn't need another as much as the lovable Ann does.

PRECAUTION
A Scotsman (what? again?) was painting wall-paper from the walls of his house when a friend called to see him. "That's all right," said the visitor, "Are you going to have new paper?" "Na, na," replied Sandy, "Ah'm just movin' to another house."

SUSPENSE
Old Lady (to parachutist)—"I really don't know how you can hang from that silk thing. The suspense must be terrible." Parachutist—"No, mum; it's that the suspense ain't there that's terrible."

Everyone who is a comedy will be pleased with forthcoming "Love Is News." Tyrone Power, Don Ameche, and Lorena Young play the leading roles, but there is another member of the cast who may interest you even more. Playing opposite Tyrone Power is a young lady named Carol Tevis who is an old, old friend of yours. Never heard of her? Maybe not under that name, but surely you will recall that you have loved and cherished her for years when I tell you that she used to be the voice of Minnie Mouse.

All Hollywood is rejoicing because W. C. Fields is so far on the road to recovery that he is able to have a few visitors now, walk around the sanitarium grounds, and even think about coming back to Paramount to work. During his illness he became one of the country's leading radio fans. All day and far into the night he was listening, and he thinks that curiosity about the radio man in the Jack Benny-Fred Allen fed helped to keep him alive. His other favorites are Easy Aces and Lum and Abner.

Zasu Pitts has come back from England where she made two pictures, paused in New York for a short time and hustled into Hollywood to go to work at RKO. She is loved and adored in England, particularly as her guide was the melo-voiced Charles Laughton of innumerable film triumphs, including "Ruggles of Red Gap" in which she appeared. Last year she once showed her around London, he gave her a pair of exquisite French antique vases for her next picture. Incidentally, a radio sponsor is trying to get Zasu to devote all her time to radio programs.

ODDS AND ENDS—John Barrymore looked at himself on the screen and was so shocked that he went off to the desert with a physical trainer and went in for regular hours and exercise. After two weeks he emerged looking healthy and about ten years younger. Cartrude Michael, fully recovered after a long hospital stay, is starting work as "The Good Girl," a newspaper story in which Lee Tracy, as usual, plays the star reporter. Paul Mann gave a head for his part in "The Woman I Love" and was longing for the day when he could leave it off when he got the bad news that he will have to keep it months longer for his picture, "The Girl in the Saddle." Shirley Temple has been promoted to the fourth grade, Western Newspaper Union would be rated a senior in any singing, dancing or dramatic school.

A young flying officer, stationed somewhere near Egypt, while flying near the Great Pyramids, carrying out exercises in navigation, and working with a sextant to discover his exact position, suddenly turned to the pilot and said, "Take off your hat."

"Why?" asked the pilot.

"Because, according to my calculations, we are now inside St. Paul's Cathedral."

Obliging
A Los Angeles patrolman had brought in a Negro woman some what the worse for wear, and the desk sergeant, with his very best scowl, roared:

"Liza, you've been brought in for intoxication!"

"Dat's fine," beamed Liza. "Booy, you can start right now!"

Trick
"Am-pa-nee, atten-shun," bawled the drill sergeant to the awkward squad. "Com-panee, lift up your left leg and hold it straight in front of you."

By mistake, one rookie held up his right leg, which brought it out side by side with his neighbor's left leg.

"Aw right, aw right; who's the wise guy over there holding up both legs?" shouted the hard-boiled sergeant.

Detroit, Ferndale Drivers Tried On Monday In Justice Court

As a result of week-end traffic violations four men were arraigned before Justice James W. Taylor of Bloomfield Hills Monday morning.

A fine of $28 or the alternative of spending 25 days in jail on a reckless driving charge was imposed on Frank McKee, 653 Windsor street, Detroit. McKee was charged with driving 90 miles an hour through the village.

Three men, all of Ferndale, were charged with disorderly conduct when they were arrested on Saturday at 9:50 p. m. It was reported that the car in which they were riding went up a bank on South Woodward and then directly across the avenue. The men involved were Thomas C. Lowe, 1647 Hazelhurst, driver of the car, who was fined $5; Frank Hamlin, 1312 Enfield who was ordered to pay a similar fine or spend five days in jail; and Michael Smith, 3200 Berland, against whom sentence was suspended.

HAM AND
A man walked into the grocery store. "I want all the rotten eggs you have," he demanded.

"What do you want with stale eggs?" asked the clerk. "Are you going to see the new comedian at the theatre tonight?"

"Oh-abah," huffed the buyer nervously. "I am the new comedian."

New Kind of Dog; a Puli Puppy

If you've never seen a dog like that Miss Genevieve Johnson of Houston, Tex., is holding, don't be alarmed. They're rare dogs. In 1935 the U. S. Department of Agriculture imported four Hungarian Puli sheep dogs. Subsequently the Pulis were crossed with a chow, a Scotch terrier and a police dog. Above is Ajax, a pure-bred Puli puppy. The Pulis are of medium size with curly, silky hair.

Message of Vital Interest to RUG AND CARPET Owners

RIDLEY OFFERS YOU CERTIFIED RUG AND CARPET CLEANING!

FOR years, rug-and-carpet owners had no standards for the safe, satisfactory, professional cleaning of floor coverings. . . to supplement the home use of carpet-sweeper and vacuum. Manufacturers of rugs and carpets were generally unable to name a reliable cleaner. Department Stores sent out customers' floor coverings to plants whose methods they could not check. Similarly, subscribers wrote to Good Housekeeping Magazine—and they were unable to answer!

This highly unsatisfactory situation was corrected, two years ago, by Certified Rug Cleaners Institute: Scientific standards were set up to assure reliable work—viz: the equipment a plant must have; the soaps it must use; the methods for each stage of the process; and even the insurance a Member-Cleaner must provide for rug-and-carpet owners' complete protection.

These standards so impressed Good Housekeeping that it varied its rule of 35 years (to guarantee only manufactured products) and extended its guarantee to include the workmanship of Members of Certified Rug Cleaners Institute. Their engineers periodically inspect each Member-plant to verify that the equipment and processes are in strict accord with Institute standards.

Ridley Cleaners are frankly proud to have been one of the first in the country to meet these rigid standards successfully. . . thus securing the right to display the Institute Emblem, and to advertise the Good Housekeeping guarantee.
