BITS OF BIRMINGHAM

Viola Grace Upper left Sunday night to take up work at Michigan State Normal College at Ypsilanti. Miss Upper will specialize in kindergarten and pre-school work.

Mr. H. H. Corson reports receiving a contribution of $25 from the Veterans of Foreign Wars here for the American Red Cross Flood Relief.

Betty Hill and Jean Rutherford, freshmen at the University of Michigan have been appointed members of the publicity committee and program committee respectively for the Freshman Women's Pageant that will be presented this spring at Ann Arbor.

The fifty-second annual meeting of the Michigan Music Teacher's Association will convene at the Pindling Hotel, Grand Rapids, May 4 and 5. Representatives of teacher's clubs from all parts of the State will discuss with a representative from the State Board of Public Instruction the question of State wide certification of music teachers. It is expected some definite action toward this end will be approved.

Parents of Quanton School students will meet for the first time Tuesday evening, April 13, at 8 p. m., in the Community House. The meeting will be the first of its kind and attendance of all parents is requested.

Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Appell, 300 Elm street, have returned to Birmingham after a five months stay in St. Petersburg, Florida.

Three Radio Stars Appear in Screen Romance Sunday
 With the exception of Carole Lombard, all of the leading players of "Swing High, Swing Low" will be in Birmingham with music coming to the Birmingham Theater on Sunday.

MacMurray is a comparative newcomer to the airlines as master-of-ceremonies of the Hollywood auditions by his work with Fred Astaire. He proved in "Swing High, Swing Low" that he is an excellent pianist besides being a funny man.

Getting ready for April showers is not the drab thing it used to be for the rainy day outfits being shown this season are varied and colorful. Some of the coats give no hint that they are meant for rainy weather, having thin rubber linings with bright printed materials on the outside.

Rubberized cottons and crepes are popular choices, also, and bright plaids and polka dots are among the favorite designs.

One cunning fashion is that of a cape-coat which can be worn as a cape by tying the sleeves at the neckline; used as a coat by slipping the arms through the sleeves.

A new purse from Paris is of a triangular shape—quite large—and fashioned of satin or grosgrain, lined with leather.

Piquet is very good for evening. Imagine white piquet frock with a light-fitting black lace jacket!

And speaking of lace, lace weddings are quite the thing. The bride wears white lace in a Chantilly pattern with a lace mantilla, while the bridesmaids' frocks are of pastel laces.
