"... here comes the Bride"

"... beautiful, isn't she?" And she should look beautiful, for this is one of the supreme moments of her life. Now away for the honeymoon, and then "At Home" after September 1st, at such and such a number on this or that street—and not 'til then will she really see the pretty gifts that are here! She has been far too excited before, what with all the teas and bridges and dinners and showers and dances to go to.

It is a good thing to remember when you are choosing for her to select one of those gifts that never grow old, that she will truly appreciate having when things are all over and she settles down to normal.

You'll find that type of gift at
