Fearless Trio Join Franklyn Man-hunt

handcuffs, and three doggy representatives of the law, they leaped from their auto and spoke with the first white men they had seen for almost five minutes. That's the sort of thing that takes from nerve, men.

Incidentally, the man, George Downs, 35-year-old gardener, was a man—a man—slightly better served under the influence of potent liquid. And it wasn't an arrest he had—merely a pistol. But he scared somebody enough to notify officers, and—anyway, how were the three courageous musketeers to know that their raid wasn't fraught with peril?

Enough Franks.
Doctor—Have you had any experience tasing?
Nurse—Oh, yes. My three brothers own a large speed car.

BITS OF B'HAM

Dorothy Jane Tremper, formerly of Poppleton avenue, and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Tremper, recently underwent an operation for appendicitis at the Huntington (Indiana) County Hospital. She is rallying very nicely. Dorothy was a senior at Baldwin high school this year, and will attend St. Mary at Notre Dame college in the fall. She is spending the summer at Wa Wasu lake, in Indiana.

Elizabeth White, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lee A. White of Brookside road, can qualify as an authority on girls' camps. Besides having spent most of her summers at Girl Scout camps, she submitted a sociology thesis from the preceding year in last spring's contest, sponsored at the University of Michigan, where she is a student, by Chi Omega. The opinion of her professor that it was one of the best he had submitted was borne out by the judges in the contest, who awarded Elizabeth a prize of $25.00.

An interesting example of the small boy's need for companionship is in progress during the swimming lessons for boys at the Bay View pool. One of the most regular and enthusiastic attendants is a lad whose home is right on the shore of Long Lake, but he makes the trip into Birmingham every morning in order to have someone with whom to swim and play in the pool.

Mr. and Mrs. William Crin of Linden road, and their children, William Jr., Jack and Shepard left Saturday for Torch Lake, where they will spend a month. The boys will enroll in Camp Mayo-went-ham.
