

CHIROPRACTORS PLAN DECEMBER MEETING
The Oakland County Chiropractic Society will meet Wednesday, Dec. 8, at the office of Dr. Peter D. Aristo in the Levinson building.

ing, at 9:30 p. m. The object of the meeting will be to discuss ideas and to exchange opinions in matters concerning the profession. Dr. Aristo will address the group on "The Biophysical Interpretation of the Phenomena of Life."

Try It
Fresh One: "I hear you got thrown out of school for calling the dean a fish."
Fresh Two: "I didn't call him a fish. I just said, 'That's our dean,' real fast."—United Mine Workers Journal.

MEXICAN SCHOOLS LECTURE TOPIC

Pierce P. T. A. To Be Host To Barnum Group For Program
All the quaintness and novelty of old Mexico will come to the Pierce school Dec. 9, when members of the Parent Teacher Association sponsor a lecture on Mexican schools, delivered at the school by George F. Hacker, of Wyandotte.

Filled with the holiday spirit of sharing good things, the group has invited members of the Barnum school P. T. A. to be its guests on the occasion, instead of waiting until a spring meeting, as has been done in former years. Mr. Hacker's address will be the principal event of the evening, which will open with the regular business procedure. At this time there will be read on the Milk Benefit, which was held in November. Following the business meeting, the entire assembly will participate in singing traditional Christmas carols. Miss Verna Schaar, instructor of music in the grade schools, will lead the songs. Mrs. Robert Dunn and Mrs. Fred Samuelson are co-chairmen in charge of refreshments, which will be served at the conclusion of the program. Both are members of the Room Mothers Group.

Mr. and Mrs. George D. Miller, of Fairfax drive, spent a few days of last week at the Ocean-Forest Club, Myrtle Beach, South Carolina.

SOCIAL BRIEFS

SATURDAY CLUB WILL OPEN AGAIN

Pol Among Parents And Children Assure Their Support

The Saturday Club, a project of the Birmingham branch of the American Association of University Women, will be conducted again this year, as the result of a poll taken by the group among the children and their parents, in which 243 votes for its continuance were cast. The Club will have a six-week term, starting in January, under the guidance of professional directors. The projects to be offered, also selected through a poll of the children, will include drawing and painting, wood and metal work and dramatics.

The Book Review Group of the A. U. W. met Monday, at the home of Mrs. M. J. Taylor, 11 Morningview Terrace, for a dessert luncheon. Mrs. Paul Thompson conducted a review on "And Gladly Teach," by Blise Terry. International Relations

Mrs. Charles J. Shain, conductor of the International Relations class, announces that there will be two meetings during December, held at the usual time and place. Mr. and Mrs. Clarence E. Botsford have returned to their home on Pine Road, after spending the week in New York City.
