

Country Club Announces Plans For Gay New Year's Eve.

JACK LAMBIE WILL WED WASHINGTON GIRL IN FEBRUARY

One of the most interesting of the mid-winter engagements is that announced by the parents of Miss Mary Adams Mavrick, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Mavrick Jr., of Washington, D. C., and San Antonio, Texas, to John S. Lambie Jr., son of Dr. and Mrs. John S. Lambie, of Aspen road. The nuptials will be read at St. Alban's Cathedral, in Washington, in February.

Miss Mavrick is a graduate of the University of Texas, and is now a student at the Corcoran Art School, in Washington.

Mr. Lambie was graduated from the General Motors Institute of Technology, at Flint, and from the Army Flying Schools at Randolph and Kelly Fields, in Texas. He attained national prominence last spring when he and "Dick" Merrill, co-pilot for eastern Air-lines, completed the first round-trip air crossing of the North Atlantic ocean without mishap. Starting from Floyd Bennett Field, New York, on Sunday, May 9, the fliers brought the first New York on Friday, May 14, with coronation pictures and fashion shows.

Ed Cochran Expresses Doubts About Being America's Number One Model Boy

Ed, the 15 year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Maurice W. Cochran, of Sheppard road, is a model boy nowadays, and it isn't because Christmas is so near, either! Look at the portrait on the cover of the current "Woman's Home Companion," and you will see a portrait of Ed, painted by Joseph Binder, a New York artist. That's why Ed is a model boy—in fact, Mr. Binder asked him to pose because he considered him that rare type, a typical American boy.

"I all started last summer, when Ed was in New York with his mother, who was studying at the American Academy of Dramatic Art. Not being much interested in the classes, he located a nearby Y. M. C. A., and spent most of his time there, either in the swimming pool or the library. It was while there that Mr. Binder found him and asked him to pose.

FOREST LAKE TO WELCOME 1938 AT DINNER, DANCE

Members of Forest Lake country club have no problem deciding which of the glamorous New Year's Eve functions will claim their attention. For Sidney A. Wells, of Moberg drive, is chairman of the entertainment committee, and he promises to those who have already made their reservations for the big night, the gayest dinner-dance in club history.

Dance Committees Make Preparations

It's not too early to begin planning festivities for next year, in the opinion of local members of the American Association of University Women. So they have already appointed committees to work on their annual dance, which will be held at the Community House on Friday, Jan. 7, with Ray Gerrell's band to provide the music.

A bonnet-shaped hat of black felt has gold flowers applied all over its crown.

GARDEN GROUPS SELL GREENS AT ANNUAL MARKET

An event eagerly anticipated throughout the year by members of the Woman's National Farm and Garden Association is the annual Christmas Greens Market, held Dec. 15 through the 17th, in Detroit. It is at this market that not only greens but all kinds of other unique holiday fixtures are sold, and nowhere else. A large contingent of members of the local Unit assisted in the running of the Market held in a Washington boulevard store.

Fashion Tips
For the very sporty looking person and for his cold weather, woolen ribbed hose in flecked tweedy effects may be had in wine, green, blue gray or tan.
An ensemble which is very smart, consists of an uptight frock hat lined with beaver, and gloves with leather palms and beaver backs.
Raccoon mittens go with the raccoon coat.
Suede jackets with perfect tailoring come in raspberry red, a new green, blue and brown.
