

POPULAR BAND IS ENGAGED FOR A. A. U. W. DANCE

All the traditional guests of the old Twelfth Night celebrations will be present at the annual dance of the Birmingham chapter of the American Association of University Women. The party, which will be held at the Community House, Jan. 7, will be open to members of the Association and their guests.

Mrs. W. A. P. John and Mrs. Franklin Fricker, who make up the music committee, announce that Ray Gorrill's orchestra has been secured for the evening. The band is already widely known to Birmingham, through its many engagements at the surrounding clubs. It will be presented in its most useful novelty acts, augmented by a featured girl singer.

A more traditional item of entertainment will be an exhibition of some of the old English folk dances, trained and presented by Mrs. Fred D. Farrar.

Mrs. Robert F. Watt, general chairman of the affair, is also chairman of the decorations committee, assisted by Miss Dorothy Stanton and Mrs. Raymond H. Bechtold. Mrs. Douglas Even is chairman of the refreshment committee, assisted by Mrs. George Miller.

Mrs. Elizabeth B. Boura, chairman of the ticket committee, will be assisted by a group which includes Miss Ruth Gillingham, Miss Dorothy Schwartze.

College Knowledge

By SOPHIE MORE

Wanna hear some plenty vital statistics? Well, by actual count, there are 104 kids home on vacation from Ann Arbor alone! And since at least that many more are back from other like towns, OLUS the big bad business men and gals who hop on the band-wagon during this time... you can IMAGINE all the fun and frolic what's going on. You'll HAVE to imagine lots of it because we couldn't tell you about all the stuff if we tried for WEEKS.

The Smith family Smith isn't doing badly for itself. Smith, trekking back from Connecticut Women's College, has bubbled down from Ann Arbor, is Cleveland at the start of vacation, and the former waitress, the very well-dressed family and son Bill, and the latter did time with the Hildreth outfit and their son Jack. Jack's up here now, for the week and especially for New Year's eve! All of which means John W. Gallette III is the lad, and in case you didn't know it, he's that Williams college man who only stayed through '26 Christmas day. After that he left, to join the school's swell hockey team which was off at Lake Placid, on account he's a BIG shot.

JUNIOR SET AT COUNTRY CLUB ATTEND DANCE

Members of the very much younger set, 150 strong, were guests at a formal holiday dance at Forest Lake country club Tuesday night. Amid gay and appropriate decorations the dancers, nothing daunted by their youth, gave their partners, many of whom spent the evening playing bridge and watching the fun, a few lessons in The Big Apple and other new dances. Reskin's band, Pontiac, furnished the music, and a buffet supper was served at 11 p. m., following the dance.

Many of the youngsters came in groups, such as the two small Kellys, Burton and Barbara, whose guests included Mary Lou Markey, Edwin, Mary Jo, and June Hacked, Robert Offer and Jack Canfield. Little Patience Anne Wells played hostess to Betty Ruth Middleton, Norman James, Jr. and Robert Halsted, Jr. Dick and Bill Higgins were both to a party which included Dot Stewart, Kitty Keller, Annette Stanley, Doris May, Nancy Walker, Jane Bronson, Howard and Phil Brettmeyer, Bob Buckenbender and Bill Hines. Guests of Dorellen and George Lyons included John Broadbridge, Marylyn Mill and Maggie Lickley, Helen Caldwell, Sonny Convery, Bob Laloy, Bob Ruske and Arnold Smart.

Tricky Trivia

We were talking to Betty Dostal Fisher day, and didn't hear her like what she told us! She's just about decided to major in economics up at State, and before you say you have to verify that to do it. But of course, we wish her all kinds of luck, don't you?

Screaming mobs of you attended the Delta Beta Sigma dance at Forest Lake Monday night. For those of you who couldn't make it, here's a bit of consolation. Everyone was so anxious to get in and swing out that they left the cars all the way from the club house way down to the gate, absolutely miles apart. Ann when they came out of course! All the cars were stuck, or skidded so that they might as well have been. But the NOBLE lads came to the rescue, and got every car back to rocking, and then started 'em off with a mighty POOSH! (In case ya wanna know what that was, it was a mighty POOSH.)

Various gas about around these days. A couple of sermons of the folks to these days. Julie Preston for that black and white outfit; sister Lucy for her VERY collegiate air; Carol and Noel Dweley for their swim trunks and their open-house; Peggy Bailey for her complexion; Rhia Ewald for that DE LONELY point; and her elegant singer; Janis Alexander for that heavenly glow she wore at her engagement, you, which made her look simply ANGELIC. Eliet Schumann for being such a tiny bundle that you could hardly see her and so on; that you'll kick yourself for not doing it with Phyllis Berger, so much like Elizabeth Berger, to say nothing of that black coat and suit to 200 many people that we couldn't possibly list 'em all.

Wanna know those ever-loving families is glad to proud of him, even if they regret his taking off so soon. John W. Gallette III is the lad, and in case you didn't know it, he's that Williams college man who only stayed through '26 Christmas day. After that he left, to join the school's swell hockey team which was off at Lake Placid, on account he's a BIG shot.

More pride is in the air over Peg Allen who is the first, so far as we know, of this year's pledges to the active pin. Yasashu, she has a real Gamma Phi Beta now, and has been the fifth of this month. And three of the gladdiest tigers in the jungle are, of course, sweet sisters, Barb Horton, Barb Spalding, and Roberta Chascoe.

Kid Cupid Wins Again
Member Ruth Smith, whom we mentioned in the carolers' song, is the one who has got 'em. Well, besides her smooth tan Monday, here's some COLLOSSAL news about her. She's wearing the sweetest pin of that man Jack Hildreth, who is a Case intruder, afflicted with Phyllis Berger, and three more exclamation points are due to Mary Jane Kirshon, whose pin she only stayed through '26 Christmas day. After that he left, to join the school's swell hockey team which was off at Lake Placid, on account he's a BIG shot.
