

Initial Junior Assembly Will Start Festive Vacation Season for Younger Set

CATHOLIC WOMEN OFFER PROGRAM AT HOLIDAY TEA

Members of the Birmingham Unit of the League of Catholic Women will present Dr. Rose Walsh, teacher of dramatics at Margrove college, in a one-act playlet by Van Dyke, "The Other Wise Man," for their Christmas meeting on Monday. Incidental music for the offering will be played by Mrs. Harvey Toomey.

The meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Frank J. McGinnis, on Shirley drive, at 2:30 p. m. Mrs. McGinnis is general chairman of those working on the meeting, the proceeds from which will be used for the League's Christmas relief work. Others who are on the committee include Mrs. Thomas Cummings, Mrs. Harry Huff, Mrs. Harvey Toomey, Mrs. C. J. O'Connor, Mrs. Jack Moore, Mrs. Jack Leary, Mrs. Martin Wendell, Mrs. Richard Hiney, Mrs. James Reilly and Mrs. Joseph M. Peerce.

It will be a diversified afternoon for League members and guests. Mrs. McGinnis' brother, William J. Cogle, will offer a group of songs, accompanied at the piano by Mrs. Cogle.

Following the entertainment, tea will be served. Assisting Mrs. McGinnis at the tea table will be Mrs. Martin Wendell and Mrs. Joseph R. Adams.

Engaged

Mr. and Mrs. William L. Kiley of Fourteen Mile road, announce this week the engagement of their daughter, Annette, to Wilfred J. Wood, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Wood, of Park avenue, Highland Park. No date has been set for the wedding.

Both Miss Kiley and Mr. Wood were graduated from Baldwin high school.

NOVEL AND LOVELY ARE THE EXHIBITS AT FLOWER SHOW

Everything from cloth of silver to a grocer's flour scoop was called into service for the traditional midwinter flower show given under the auspices of the Bloomfield Hills Unit of the Women's National Farm and Garden Association. The show was held Monday at the guild hall of Christ Church Cranbrook, with Mrs. Edith Forbush, Mrs. Clarence Booth, Mrs. William Purvis and Miss Sarah Sly, members of the Hills' unit who are state officers in the Association as honor guests. The judges were Mrs. Dexter M. Ferry Jr. and Mrs. Horace K. Peabody. Acting as judges' clerks were Miss Romayne Thompson and Mrs. John L. Morley.

Mrs. John T. Shaw carried off the first place in Class One, in which the exhibits illustrated a tree or quantities. Hers was a farm-yard scene, Mrs. Ferd M. Brook's clever Chinese shop won second place in this division, and her, and Mrs. W. D. Thompson placed third with her unique interpretation of "Nor loss the commonest house." She filled a wicker bowl with all sizes and colors and kinds of onions, and added color and texture with cabbage. Honorable mentions for this group went to Mrs. Percy K. Loud and Mrs. Frank P. Rasmussen. Mrs. Rasmussen's bit; to Mrs. William Frayer and to Mrs. Harry Macdonald.

Show Christmas Packages

Class Two comprised the Christmas wrappings, with Mrs. H. A. O'Dell winning first place. Her package was charmingly combined red and silver bells. Mrs. Dorothy Height's package, with paper of white, green and silver and nine cones, was second. Mrs. Joseph Hinshaw placed third, with a package wrapped in silver, trimmed with red and silver cones. Honorable mention was given to Mrs. Richard P. Rasmussen, for her package adorned by cellophane strands.

Christmas trees two feet high or under were the Third Class, with Mrs. Forbush in first place. Her tree, an ultra-modern affair made of ordinary metal funnels, attracted wide attention. Barbara Traub, exhibiting a silver tree trimmed with yellow candies, took second place. Third place went to Mrs. William Leichen, for a green tree with a snowy trim.

Mrs. Brock's novelties gained her first place in Class Four, made up of individual arrangements in which she contained Mrs. Perry Hill placed second in this class, and Mrs. John Endicott, third.

Portray Four Seasons

Class five was devoted to arrangements portraying the four seasons, "Winter," exhibited by Mrs. L. Klingenstein, who was awarded first place, and Mrs. W. Hamilton Aulbach's "Spring" placed second. Third was Mrs. Edw. Malach's "Ode to Autumn."

Holiday Tables Lovely

The Christmas tables which comprised the six were quite the center of attraction, with such lovely exhibits that three first prizes were given. One went to Mrs. Thompson, whose table was laid with a silvery hand-woven cloth, of a delicate greenish shade, edged in daintiness. Candles in a matching shade were placed in the center on banks of holly, and on the sides were more candles, flanked with small porcelain angels.

Mrs. Otto Kern's table won another first. It was laid with a deep blue satin cloth, centered with flat modern crystal candlesticks and sprays of Christmas berries. A special third first prize went to the table shown jointly by Mrs. Rasmussen and Mrs. Robert Traub. A very old rose damask cloth covered it, and the centerpiece was a soft greenish-blue bowl, filled with deep red pom-pom grapes. Vine tendrils led to smaller composites at either end, also filled with grapes. Mrs. Jacob C. Marley's table was chery table, featuring red antique glass, placed second.

Novel Grocery Displays

Novel arrangements in grocery store containers made up Class Seven. Mrs. Lee Joslyn's cheese box arrangement carried off first place. The other two second awards went to Mrs. Thompson, for her black grapes in a flour scoop. The other went to Mrs. O'Dell, who showed a small berry box filled with the tiniest fruits and vegetables imaginable.

Dick Craig won first place in Division Nine, which was devoted to school children's exhibits. His was a Christmas night scene, and his mantle arrangement won him an honorable mention, also. Barbara Brown and Contetta Bettrino, joint exhibitors of a Christmas centerpiece placed second, and Susan Hartland's arrangement won third place.

Seated at the table during the afternoon were Mrs. C. A. Newcomb Jr., Mrs. Thompson, Mrs. Walter C. Marley, and Mrs. John Endicott. The table was surrounded by evergreens and clever snow balls, which turned out to be coconut cakes on closer inspection.

Bertram Pierpont Flint, of Boston, who has been the guest for several weeks of his son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Brewster, of Brookdale road, has left for Tropic, N. C. Cabelling for an extended sojourn. Mr. Brewster plans to visit him later in the season.

Keno At Quarten Will Attract Many

Notwithstanding its popularity before Thanksgiving, keno is still one of Birmingham's most popular indoor sports, if the length of the list of those who have made reservations for the forthcoming party at the Quarten school is any standard. The affair is given under the auspices of the school's Parent Teacher Association, on Friday, Dec. 17, at 8:30 p. m.

Among those who will attend the party are Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Mott Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Clifford McDonald, Mr. and Mrs. Alan Joslyn, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Welch, Mr. and Mrs. Verne Murray, Mr. and Mrs. Draper Allen, Mr. and Mrs. M. B. McCafferty, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Carrick.

Mr. and Mrs. William H. Manding, Mr. and Mrs. Carl H. Sander, Mr. and Mrs. Harold J. Lauver, Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Dodds, Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Jack, Mrs. Craig Cheuning, Mrs. M. and Mrs. Margie H. Richey.

SWING CLUB FANS ARE ALL READY FOR FIRST SESSION

There'll be "jamming" and "trucking" enough to satisfy everyone at the Community House on Friday night, Dec. 17, when the Swing Club sponsors its first dance for the "late-teen" and "in the twenties" crowd. And from the comments of those for whom the affair is being planned, the evening will be a marvelous opportunity for reunions with those who are returning to their homes here for the Christmas holidays.

Mr. and Mrs. George T. Hendrie and Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Baker will serve as patrons for the affair. Sally Baker and Harriet Brelsford, two of the most enthusiastic of the Swing Club's members, will act as hostesses.

The announcement that Max Gail and his Detroit Yacht Club orchestra will play, makes more of a family-affair than ever. Max is known to most of young Birmingham and to many of the out-of-town persons who will attend, both through his residence in Birmingham and through his activities while a student at the University of Michigan. And his featured singer will be Alice Savage, another "local girl making good."

Miss Baker will be hostess at cocktails in her home before the dance to a large number of guests. Another dinner is being planned by Carol Collins, who hasn't come home from college yet to reveal the details.

Some of the dates which have been made in advance are Tom Ranney and Ginny Thompson, Don De Vlieger and Connie Harder, George Flower and Charlotte Woodson, Tony Freeman and Victoria Gately, Vic Caneber and Betty Rober.

Ketty Hunt will bring Betty's sister, Laura, and Dale McClelland is spiriting Valeria, John McKee's date is Eleanor Swann, Mr. and Mrs. John Shephard will be there too. Most of the stags will include Tom Miller, Al MacFarland, Bob Holmes, and Kenny McBride, with more dates being made every minute.

Glenn Grier, of Pontiac, who will escort Doris Blynn, also of Pontiac, says that a large contingent from there will be on hand. From Detroit will come Mr. and Mrs. John Huger; from Ferndale, Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Higbee; and from Royal Oak, Donald McClelland and Mildred Hurley, and Leighton Norton and Margaret Proal.

To Be Guest Of Piety Hill

Mrs. Bessie M. Geagley, State Regent of the Daughters of the American Revolution, will be honor guest at the Christmas meeting of the local chapter, on Tuesday, Dec. 14, when she will address it on "Michigan Daughters Looking Forward."

V. F. W. Will Sponsor Open Holiday Keno Party

A bingo party which is open to the public will inaugurate Christmas gaiety for members of the Veterans of Foreign Wars, Birmingham Post No. 3845. The affair will be an event of Friday, Dec. 17, starting at 8 p. m. at the K. P. hall.

Earl Biss, general chairman of the party, announces that turkeys, ducks, chickens and baskets will be given away as prizes. The purchasers of tickets will also have a chance at a door prize.

Assistants on the committee which is taking care of arrangements are Roy Lewis, Jack Boomers, Lewis Marquette, John Maticek, Ray Spencer and Fred Samuelson. Tickets may be obtained through them or from members of the post.

Among those from Birmingham who attended the opera Tuesday night were Mr. and Mrs. Harold J. Chalk, of Manor road.

GIRL SCOUTS

Sunday, Dec. 19, will be "Scouts' own" day, marked by an inspirational meeting held by Troop 3 of Girl Scouts, at 4 p. m. in the Girl Scout room at the Community House. Mothers of the Scouts and members of the Scout Council will be honor guests at the meeting.

On Dec. 21, a Troop Christmas party will be held at the home of Mrs. Craig Richey, on Arlington Drive.

Troop 1, originally known as Troop 6, is planning a tea for mothers and Council members, to be held on Thursday, Dec. 16, at 7 p. m., in the Girl Scout room of the Community House.

Troop 5 will hold a similar affair in the afternoon at the Girl Scout Room of the Community House.

Club Notes

Professor Preston E. Slosson, of the University of Michigan, will address the Birmingham Council of Club Women at a dinner meeting, which is being planned for the evening of Jan. 12. His subject will be, "The World Between Wars."

The Philomath Club will meet at the home of Mrs. Julia Randall, on Southfield road, on Monday, Dec. 13. A dessert luncheon will be served at 1:30 p. m., followed by an afternoon of sewing.

The Rebekahs are sponsoring a Christmas sale to be held today at the home of Mrs. Julia Randall, on Southfield road, on Monday, Dec. 13. A dessert luncheon will be served at 1:30 p. m., followed by cards. The affair is open to the public.

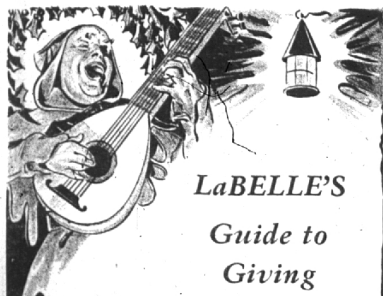

The Ladies' Auxiliary of the Veterans of Foreign Wars, Birmingham Post 2645, will hold a pot-luck supper at the K. P. hall Friday night, at 6:30, to which the public is invited. Mrs. Earl Moody, president of the organization, is chairman of the supper, assisted by Mrs. Roy Lewis, Mrs. Ray Spencer and Mrs. Arthur Holmes.

The American Legion Auxiliary will sponsor a bake sale on Saturday, at Sanders Cleaning Store, Dec. 12, from 10 a. m. to 2 p. m. continue on throughout the day. Mrs. John Gill and Mrs. Ernest Bailey are co-chairmen in charge of arrangements for the sale.
