ACORNS STOP MAPLES, 22-17

Inability To Sink Free Throws Costs Team Victory Friday

Failure to hit the hoop from the free throw line cost Baldwin High School a victory in a closely played basketball game against Royal Oak Friday evening on the local floor. Royal Oak won the contest by a 22 to 17 score. Led by Chamberlain, the Acorns counted six times from the field and scored 19 out of 24 free throws. Baldwin made seven field goals, but capitalized on only 3 out of 13 free throws.

A tightly knit zone defense thrown out by the Acorns held the Maroons to one basket to give the Baldwin team a two point lead. Chamberlain counted two free throws and a basket, and Shaw counted on a charity toss and a short shot to give the Acorns a 7 to 2 lead. McRobbie scored on a follow up shot as the half ended to make the score 9 to 2.

Royal Oak increased the score to 18 to 4 during the first half of the second half, and Baldwin put on a rally led by Andrews, Zinnbauer, and Howing which counted 18 points in the last eight minutes of play. The last quarter rally led by Howing, and the game ended shortly after Zinnbauer tallied on a sensational pivot shot from the side of the floor.

Chamberlain with nine points was the Acorn scoring ace, while Zinnbauer led the Maroons with six points.

Dr. Monroe, head of the Oakland County Health Department, will be the speaker and Emerson C. Brown will sing. Refreshments are in charge of room mothers from Mrs. Grinnell's room with Mrs. R. West in charge.

BALDWIN HIGH-LIGHTS

By Ann Nonimus
"These Football Things" was a nice piece of melody as ever, hit the nation. . . . But the real reason for mentioning this is to get youse on your feet and in the mood for the things that are about to be spoken of on matters of Football things around B. H. S. . . . Maybe you've noticed them, too . . .

First there are some quite flashy shirts, being worn by the lads. . . . Two of the bestest of these are Bernard Cary's nice red flannel one . . . that practically takes your eyesight away . . . and Ed Watkins's blue and black plaid thing.

Santa Claus helped start a new fad. . . . It is charm bracelets and necklaces. . . . Two of the cutest of these duds investigated by curiosity Annie are Jane Hyde's squirt gun and the one she insists she would fill with perfume. . . . And Margaret Shirley Smith's Jack in the box. . . . If it comes up missing, Shirley, don't be surprised . . .

Some day when any of you feel in a downcast mood, look down and view Elizabeth Richey's and Betty Dick's dirty white shoes.

How times does change. . . . There then comes a pair of suspenders that hold up Helen Tupper. . . . those have stars on 'em, everything. . . . Swiss brand, from Chicago. . . .

These various outfits worn by Ned Stark and Punk Colgrove bear mentioning. . . . Nell's plain coat and the one she wears. . . . Punk's swell looking greenish blue suit. . . .

For a couple of minute interludes, three to be exact, gathered up by I. C. Cameronian Bill Vinton snapping pictures the other night in Miss Huggert's room. . . . Bob Myers and Ward Crueshank. . . . those have stars on 'em. . . . And Harry Mulge and Duke Potere fighting in the hall. . . . the ladies. . . . Let I forget, don't fail to notice that charming new haircut of Bill Biggers. . . .

Something new, something different. . . . That is just what happened in the way of Pep Meetings last Friday. . . . A fine one was it, too. . . . People seemed to enjoy 'em. . . . Way over you saw Charlie Fiske and George Mullins chewing gum 'bout as fast as 'em. . . . Pick your own comparison. . . . Nancy Murray and Bob Harrington looked very pleased as they glibly chattered. . . . A pair of knees hung up in the air. . . . upon closer observation discovered they belonged to Norman Lyle who was beautifully explaining something in the best of fashion to Bill Averill and Bob Bolton. . . .

Chuck Boynton, cheerleader, really had some loud enthusiasm helping him yell. . . . They were Johnny Baker, Betty Forsyth, Helen Shaver, and Bobette Wiley. . . . Well, young'uns, I'll be shutting off. . . . See you around. . . . Ammie.

Crane Fencers Win Over Northwestern

In a closely contested fencing match, Cranbrook outdid the Northwestern Hyponets last Saturday afternoon by a score of 11 to 10; the point scoring resulted in 75 points for Cranbrook and 69 for Northwestern.

So close was the encounter that after the 15 full bouts, the Detroit school was leading by a point after breaking even with the Cranes on bouts. The 16 sabre bouts, however, decided the issue with three going to Cranbrook and one to Northwestern, netting the victors 17 additional points to 10 for their rivals.

Bill McKelvey, number one man for Cranbrook, took three foil bouts, but lost to Krueger, Dreher, number one for Northwestern, also took three of his foil bouts, failing only against McKelvey.

Victors in the sabre bouts were: Charlie Hall of Cranbrook, who took two bouts, and Krueger, and Dreher of Northwestern.

DEER WRECKS HOME

Syracuse, N. Y.—When an automobile frightened it, a doe leaped upon the porch of the home of Dr. Archer D. Babcock, swung through a window, around and around the living room, through the breakfast room, where it wrecked furniture and china and out through another window. It was caught after it became jammed in a fence.

Taxatio De Vocibus

Winston H. Cox

"This week we have the question: Do you think that a sound projector (talking movie machine) would be a desirable thing for the high school?"

The expenses of the machine will be taken care of by making subscriptions. If every student in the building sells just one subscription, enough money will be obtained to buy the projector and have money left over for other school projects, such as the track at Pierce Field.

It will undoubtedly be a good thing for the school, and it is favored by the faculty which has already had a preview showing of the machine. The entire student body will have a showing tomorrow at 11:15.

Mary Ellen McCutcheon, "I think the sound projector is a great educational value if used in the proper way. Also, it might be used to raise money to fix the Gym ceiling."

Nancy Fisher: "Yes, if it really is in demand by the student and teachers, but in my estimation there are not enough films to need a sound projector, as they are only shown a few times a year. (There might be more showings with a talking machine.)"

Robert Bolton: "A picture with sound means more enjoyment to the spectator than the 'old-fashioned' silent."

Virginia Barden: "Sure, I think it is a good idea. It makes the program more interesting and is able to understand what it is all about. It also makes it possible to secure better and more modern films."

Jack Scolaro: "Yes, because you would certainly be able to obtain a sound picture, as they are subjects to be shown. We could get many movies pertaining to History, Science, English, Education, and many other educational topics."

Sam Brunst: "I don't see right hand man at Baldwin. I certainly feel the school needs a sound projector to present to the students good motion pictures. Having a movie now and then would give the homerooms a chance to have a change of program more often. I feel that this perhaps would create a greater interest in performances held in the auditorium. (What would have been better than the Christmas assembly given last year?)"

Patricia Allen: "Yes, I believe it would be very desirable. It would act as a magnet, tending to draw students together. A new school spirit would develop, if all were aware that there was a new subject towards which they could turn, not only of an educational, but of special interest. (I think you have something that we should all think about, Patty.)"

Dorothy Trump: "Yes, I think that Baldwin needs an outfit of that sort. Other schools have them and the newer schools are getting them and so should Baldwin if it wants to keep up to date."

Mary Sdovek, Salutatorian of the February class: "A sound projector would be a good thing to start with in getting the school more modern equipment—something it needs very badly."

The consensus of opinion is that the school ought to have the sound projector. Tomorrow you will see and hear it. If you like it, it is within your power to obtain it.

STAFF MEMBERS PLAN LUNCHEON

Barnum School Students On Maple Leaf Will Be Honored Jan. 18

Staff members of the Maple Leaf school paper of Barnum Junior High will give a luncheon on Monday, January 18, in honor of the members of the paper who are leaving.

The following members will enroll next semester at Baldwin: Shirley Smith, Evelyn Brittain, Maryann Sprague, and William Baldwin.

The assembly which was presented on Wednesday, January 13, by the members of Barnum Junior High School was something entirely new. It was under the direction of Coach E. E. Reed, director of boys' Physical Education classes. The boys' varsity basketball team demonstrated the fundamentals of classification of rules, and plays on offense and defense in the popular game of basket ball.

Movies on Hawaii and China have been circulating the various home rooms in the past week. The week before two films, one on airplanes and the other on submarines in the United States Navy, were shown at different times.

The girls' inter-cholel basket ball games started this last week. On Monday, January 12, the eighth grade from both Barnum and Adams played, Barnum winning by the score of 25 to 11. They will be a game played at Barnum between Barnum and Baldwin on Thursday, January 14.

The third in the series of four luncheons given by the eighth

RADIO CLUB TO SPONSOR DANCE

Proceeds From Baldwin High Affairs Will Go To Aid Address System

The Record Dance of the Year is to be sponsored by the Baldwin High School Radio Club Thursday afternoon, January 14, from 4:00 to 6:00. The dance will be held in Room 101 and the latest pieces will be played. The music will be furnished by the use of the public address system and the photographic pick-up.

Big Beaver News

At their last meeting the A-H Club elected Viola Papadakis as Vice President and Ruth Berg as Secretary.

Doris Pury won the Third Grade spelling contest Friday afternoon. The Fourth Grade honor roll has the following names: Frances Campbell, James Galford, Jack Herlihy, Betty Kieckhefer, Betty Moore, Florian Roncone, Edgar Roper, Mary Jane Stephens and Shirley Stone.

Several First Graders brought toys to school this week. They have started a new part of their books about toys and play-time.

The second grade are starting work on a newspaper. They have been taking about them in their Social Studies.

The first semester examinations will be held January 20 and 21. Students receiving all B's will be exempt from their tests.

During Christmas vacation the cloakroom of the Assembly Room was transformed into a Library. The transfer of books was more than half completed Saturday. All fiction, general references and magazines were moved. The non-fiction are still in the old library but will be gradually transferred as they are classified and catalogued. Velma Wilson, Jean Rickalus and Carol Van Leuvan are the girls in charge. They were well assisted in the moving by Ed Welch.

Both the Senior and Junior High G. A. A. Basketball Tournaments have started this week. Senior High started Monday night and Junior High tonight. The Junior High captains are Martha Phelps 8th grade and June Waller 9th grade.

Through the generosity of Santa Claus the Radminston team has about 8 new rackets. Miss Brown, new girls' coach, has joined the team.

Do you like your electric range? Yes, indeed!
What feature do you like best about it? Thrift Costlier
Remarks or suggestions: It cleans, it saves in the flavor of foods cooked by electricity. We'll all respect for Wells-Dropson's

Do you like your electric range? Yes.
What feature do you like best about it? It does less and economy
Remarks or suggestions: I would not compare it to my old stove just as you are saying about it. It's got a better taste in my opinion with a different flavor, especially in meat and poultry. It's not as expensive as my old stove, but it's worth the cost of specialty

Do you like your electric range? Yes, very much.
What feature do you like best about it? It's clean, it saves
Remarks or suggestions: The cleanliness, speed and flavor retained in food greatly appealed to me. The thrift now is not almost daily and is greatly pleased with the lowest specialty
