"I'd like to buy a telephone call" WHEN you call a telephone number on the other side of town you are making an important purchase. You say in effect: "Give me the use of miles of wire, of cables under the street, a section of switchboard and all the other equipment needed in the central office. I shall need one kind of current to carry my voice and another to ring the bells that signal the other party."

Besides being a physician and surgeon, Dr. O. W. was at one time a justice of the peace. He and Mrs. Hewett were the foster parents of Mrs. M. Estelle Hemmingsway and her brother William.
