

Society and Clubs

HILLS GARDEN UNIT ELECTS OFFICERS

Mrs. Kahn Is Again Chief Of Group As President For New Year

Mrs. Leslie Kahn was re-elected president of the Hills Garden Unit of the Women's National Farm and Garden Association Monday, at the annual luncheon held at the Bloomfield Hills Country Club. Mrs. Henry Scripps Booth will continue in office as first vice-president, and Mrs. Campbell Harvey was returned to office as second vice-president. Mrs. Clarence H. Booth succeeds Mrs. Edith M. Forlough, state president of the Association, in office as treasurer, which she has held during the past year. Mrs. Donald Heaght was elected recording secretary, succeeding Mrs. Waldemar P. Adams, retiring from office. Mrs. John Endicott will undertake the duties of corresponding secretary as successor to Mrs. William M. Purves.

An unusual arrangement for a luncheon table was the modern candelabra in bronze which centered the table, and the green pottery bowls of bronze galls placed on either side. Lighted ivory tapers burned in the bronze candelabra, and additional pottery bowls of trailing ivy were used at the corners of the table. Mrs. Carlotta Pax was in charge of arrangements for the luncheon, assisted by Mrs. Lyman Craig and Mrs. Fird M. Brooks. Mrs. Donald Sanderson and Mrs. Lee E. Joslyn, Jr., designed the table decoration.

The next meeting of the unit will be held at the home of Mrs. Clarence H. Booth sometime in February, when Mrs. Kahn will give an illustrated talk of her recent trip to Mexico.

Dry Cleaning
Curtains-Blankets-Drapes
Expert Care
AXLER'S
Theater Bldg. Ph. 1505

PHOTOGRAPHS
FRAMES
The Arnold Studios

New Kitchen Charm
These are days that call for pride in your kitchen—with so much "living" there, so many "kitchen-parties," late suppers and the like.
Happy is the woman with a new range—happy and proud of the colorful, modern touch it adds to this important room. Yes, happy, too, in the delightful new cooking perfection it assures.
Enjoy it for yourself—it's so easy to do now.

3. AUTOMATIC GAS COOKING
Pay As Little As 10¢ A Day
FREE TRIAL
We will allow a free trial in your own home on A B models 36-16 series and 6647 series Detroit Jewel. Take advantage of this special offer and try one of these stoves before you buy—no obligation whatsoever.
Consumers Power Co.
348 E. MAPLE PHONE 1174

Many Dinner and Supper Parties Are Prompted By 'Yellow Jack'

Most of the entertaining this week centers around the performance of "Yellow Jack" by the Village Players on Friday and Saturday evenings. Dinner parties before, and supper parties after, are numerous on both evenings.

Among those entertaining Friday evening will be Dr. and Mrs. George P. Raynale of Tooting Lane, who have invited to be their dinner guests Dr. and Mrs. Harold R. Boehm, Dr. and Mrs. John H. Gordon, and Dr. and Mrs. C. G. Darling of Pontiac.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Farwell of Wadsworth court will honor their house guest, Miss Irene Hayes of New York, at dinner Friday evening also, later taking their guests to the Playhouse. Mr. and Mrs. Milton P. Gordon of Madison avenue also will be hosts at dinner at their home Friday evening.

One of the largest dinners Saturday evening will be a subscription affair at Devon Gables. Among those included in the group will be Mr. and Mrs. Edward S. Reed, Jr. and Mrs. Paul Neal Averill, Mr. and Mrs. B. H. Mison, Mr. and Mrs. Rawson Vail, Mr. and Mrs. James R. Mook, Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Mott, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Alfred J. LaBelle, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas H. Adams, Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Reed of Detroit, Leslie Bennett, also of Detroit, Dr. J. B. Housinger, Mrs. Elizabeth Haselinger, and Cecilia Kopyth of Detroit.

Entertaining also at dinner Saturday evening will be Mr. and Mrs. Warren Page, Jr. and Mr. and Mrs. Robert N. Woodruff, Mr. and Mrs. Howarth W. Gnan, Mr. and Mrs. Fred D. Hendrick, Mr. and Mrs. Harry S. Nichols, and Mr. and Mrs. D. S. Hatterton, whose guests will include Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Christman and Mr. and Mrs. John L. Davis, both of Ann Arbor. Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Gindley of Puritan road will be hosts to ten guests at an after-dinner supper Saturday evening.

A buffet supper for about 50 guests will be given after the performance Saturday evening, with Mr. and Mrs. James Bullock and Mr. and Mrs. Peter K. Boyne as host and hostess at the home of the latter on Henley drive.

Miss Joseph L. Harding of Kenesaw drive will have as her

ST. DUNSTAN'S TO PRESENT 3 PLAYS

Guild Will Open Door For Guest Performances Next Friday

The performance will be open to guests Friday evening, Feb. 5, in Brookside auditorium, when St. Dunstan's Guild presents three one-act plays, "Lott's Wife" by Percival Wilde, "Riders to the Sea" by Synge, and "The Third Angel" by Elizabeth Ryerson.

Mrs. Robert F. Grindley is directing "Lott's Wife," assisted by Alan W. Wentz. In the cast are Mrs. Linton Hart, Mrs. Hugh W. Hiltner, Mrs. Pearl Peterson, and Mr. Grindley.

Appearing in "Riders to the Sea" will be Mrs. Frederick S. Booth, Mrs. John Morley, Mrs. W. Hamilton, Aulenhach, James Morrison, Taylor, Mr. and Mrs. Lee E. Joslyn, Jr., and Mr. and Mrs. Donald Sanderson. Directing the play will be Mrs. M. W. Cochran, assisted by Mrs. C. Theron Van Dusen.

Vernon B. Kellett will fill the dual role of director and actor in "The Third Angel" with Mrs. M. W. Cochran as his assistant. In the cast will be Mrs. Zeitan Senechy, Mrs. C. G. Eden, and Mr. Kellett.

Church Divisions To Meet For Luncheon

Members of the Women's Union of the First Presbyterian Church will be entertained in the homes of members for luncheon on Wednesday, at 1 p. m.

Mrs. T. B. Smith of Oakland county has invited the members of division one to be her guests for the afternoon, with Mrs. Richard C. Tuley acting as their leader. Division two will be entertained at the home of Mrs. L. B. Billings of Lafayette avenue under the leadership of Mrs. B. Dow Elwood.

Mrs. H. E. Tremper is leader of division three which will meet at the home of Mrs. E. D. Shely of Riverside drive. Mrs. W. J. Jeffrey, Jr., will be hostess to division four at her home on Fairview road. Mrs. B. L. McNellis is leader of the group.

Division five of the Union will meet at the home of Mrs. H. D. Harris of Glenary road under the direction of Mrs. Hendrick Brouse.

A. A. U. W. Officers Will Attend Conference

Mrs. Fred Farrar, state president of the American Association of University Women, and Mrs. Loran T. Robinson, chairman of the local chapter, will attend the Citizen's Conference on Education to be held at the Hotel Ochs in Lansing, Feb. 2, at 9:30 a. m.

All interested citizens are invited to attend this conference which will have as one of the speakers, Dr. Eugene B. Elliott, superintendent of public instruction in this state.

Mrs. George Geenenbach and Mrs. George D. Miller are in charge of transportation to Lansing.

Parents Announce Engagement Of Daughter

Mr. and Mrs. Charles T. McCarthy of Park street announce the engagement of their daughter, Janet Elaine to Roland Earl Beldon, son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy E. Beldon of Seymour, Ind.

Both are graduates of Franklin college, Ind. where Miss McCarthy is a member of Phi Beta Phi sorority and Mr. Beldon is a member of Phi Delta Theta fraternity.

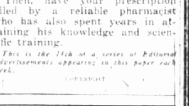

The wedding will take place March 12 in Birmingham at the home which they will make their home in Seymour.

Marriage Made Known

Mr. and Mrs. William C. Morrison of Bird street announce the marriage of their daughter Elaine Louise Morrison to Randolph Becker as of November 20, 1936.

The wedding service was read by the Reverend W. Clarence Wright in the presence of members of the immediate family.

Racy Ensemble

What the well-dressed woman will wear to the races is charmingly illustrated by Sally Eitzert, film player. Her ensemble, including hat, bag, and gloves, are tan. Her three-quarter length swagger coat of dark blue is embellished by a bold plaid of yellow and green.

A. A. U. W. To Send Out Questionnaires

Questionnaires to determine individual needs of high school students regarding college education will be distributed at Baldwin High School Wednesday, under auspices of the Birmingham Branch of the American Association of University Women. The questionnaires will constitute part of the work of an advisory committee, headed by Mrs. Y. C. Smith with Mrs. Rufus B. Jones as vice-chairman. The committee will operate in conjunction with Baldwin High School and Baldwin Public Library in efforts to assist students decide on future educational training.

After the questionnaires have been distributed, advisors will consult with the students on the particular problems concerned. Through the cooperation of Miss Adeline Cooke, librarian, and Edwin C. Hart, principal of Baldwin High School, various sources of information will be available to students at the library.

Date For Supper At M. E. Church Announced

Mrs. E. L. Birthing is acting as general chairman of a church supper to be given Thursday, Feb. 4 at the Methodist Church.

Assisting Mrs. Birthing in making arrangements for the dinner, to be served from 6 to 7:30 p. m. are: Mrs. Maurice Lowman, Mrs. John Martz, Mrs. E. D. Lynd, Mrs. Daniel Swartz, Mrs. H. C. Murray, Mrs. Norman Pictor, Mrs. William Dabee, Mrs. Horace Barrett, Mrs. Herbert Masters, Mrs. William Hinkle and Mrs. C. C. Hoover. Mrs. Roy Smith and Mrs. Birthing are in charge of the ticket sale.

The public is invited to attend.

DATE IS SET FOR KINGSWOOD DANCE

Committees Working For Annual Midwinter Formal

Committees are already busy engaged arranging plans for the annual midwinter formal for Kingswood School, Cranbrook, which will be an event of Feb. 19 at the school. Each of the senior high school grades will be represented by a special committee.

Members of the faculty assisting with arrangements include Miss Josephine Waldo, William Constock, Mrs. Ada Hyde and Mrs. Ruth Saumiers. Serving on the senior committee are Mason Cornwell, Minette Spears, Mary Jorie Mendelson and Anne Henry. Included in the junior committee will be Ellen Wallace, Darlene Cragg, and Helen Davidson. For the sophomore class, Betty Houghton and Joan Reys are committee members.

Piano Pupils In Recital

Miss Ida W. Davidson will present her pupils in their first piano recital Saturday afternoon at 2 p. m. in the Baptist Church.

Taking part in the recital, to which the public is invited, are Dorothy Laaf, Dorothy McNellis, Dorothy Barcott, Phyllis Russell, Bilk Lempe, Todd, Mayfield, Mary Louise Millan, Mirely Barwood, Leah Moore, Adah Aitton, Barbara Joan Eber, Edith Bly Millman.

TO OUR PATRONS AND FRIENDS:

The store known as the F. J. Mulholland Co., will continue to operate as such under the management of Mr. Charles Wright, father of Mrs. F. J. Mulholland.

Every effort will be made to provide the same dependable merchandise and the same friendly service which has characterized this store while under the management of the late Frank J. Mulholland.

The entire personnel of the store will be retained, and they and the management will appreciate your continued patronage and good will.

THE F. J. MULHOLLAND CO.

To the Memory of FRANK J. MULHOLLAND
A Beloved Birmingham Citizen, an Honest and Kindly Businessman, this space is respectfully dedicated.

Announcing
The Walton Secretarial Service
Telephone 1616
Public Stenographer
Multigraphing
Mimeographing
Direct Mail

Miss Lillian Walton
Manager
203 Theater Bldg.
An Economical Service That Is Prompt and Private

THE BIRMINGHAM ECCENTRIC THE RETAIL MERCHANTS ASSOCIATION