

Invitations Are Out To The First of Pine Knipital Affairs Honoring Hills Girl

The Kitchen Korner

By Sally Lusa

Dear Diary: I am so enthusiastic about my housekeeping success this summer. I have been married ever since June 20, 1937. It seems such a long time! And I haven't had one spoiled meal. I guess it's because I really do try. I don't leave dinner until the last minute and then rush home to pry open a can.

There's nothing like handing bouquets at oneself, but Bob says I deserve them. Mother says I am a successful cook because I really enjoy planning and getting meals. I certainly do. I build my day around Bob's home-coming in the evening.

For instance, as soon as I finish the breakfast dishes, I look over my cupboard to see what I need, then I plan dinner. When I have my list made and know exactly from soup to nuts what we're going to have for dinner, I go to the store and shop. I finish these little chores in plenty of time to enjoy several hours of "free play" I can run downtown for luncheon and shopping with one of the girls, or lunch at the club and spend the afternoon at swimming or bridge.

But the tiny watch Bob gave me for a wedding present comes in handy. I use it. I know when I plan my dinner how long it takes to prepare that particular

Parties Begin For Loraine Lambert

August Wedding Preceded By Series Of Showers To Honor Bride-Elect

SOC. 24 ch. Parties Begin.—JS The gay rush of parties that fill the days of popular brides-elect is beginning for Loraine Lambert, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Thompson of Lahser road, whose marriage to William L. Martin, II, son of Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Benjamin Martin of Detroit, will be an event of Aug. 28 in Christ Church Cranbrook.

Miss Lambert was honor guest Wednesday at a luncheon and shopped in the afternoon for curtains and some other things we need for the house we plan to move into in the fall. And when I came home tired and warm, there was everything ready. After I broiled the steak, I put nice firm tomatoes, cut in half, and spread with butter, on the broiler to brown. These I used as a garnish around the steak. Did that dinner get a hand from Bob?

Now he is contentedly smoking his pipe and listening to his favorite program. I am so happy I have to write down the recipe for "making a success of marriage."

For me it's the end of another perfect day. June Bride.

STAR DUST

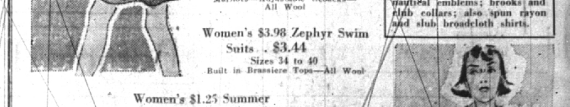

The royal motion picture fans of the country do not want any substitute for the late Jean Harlow. Letters, telegrams and phone calls of protest poured into the Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer studio when it was announced soon after her death that her unfinished picture "Saratoaga" would be re-filmed with a newcomer named Rita Johnson in her role.

Loretta Young's household is just about the happiest, busiest establishment in all Hollywood just now. She has adopted two little girls, Jane and Judy, not quite two, and is busily conferring with architects about adding a wing to her house. Just so add to the air of gaiety.

"BUTTON, BUTTON, WHO'S GOT THE BUTTON?"

LOSS OF buttons is but one of the things that can happen to carelessly dried-cleaned garments! We know that EXPERTLY done must be carefully done, as well—and we act accordingly! Whether it is a summer sports coat—or a sheer thing of filmy delicacy—you may be sure we will return it spotlessly clean—and in good condition as we received it!

Fashion Tips

A new suitcase has been designed for motorists. It is very thin and has exceedingly thin wooden clothes hangers in the top. It will hold twelve dresses. Metal rods hold these folded once in the middle and once above the hem. The case hangs by straps from the robe rod on the back of the seat and is only four inches thick.

A new idea for swimmers who crave a better line when wearing bathing suits is to wear a pair of scanty rubber pants which is made to wear with swim suits.

News from Paris says that suits will be as popular as ever this Fall. Although all of the dresses are sport, slim coats are of every length and design.

Many of the coats will not boast fur collars as the new fabrics are quite luxurious in themselves. They are rich, velvety or suede-like.

A Push-Over "Johnny," said mother at the dinner table, "are you sure you washed your face?" It doesn't look like that when I wash it."
