Bachelor Buttons Spell Romance of Popular Young Bloomfield Pair

FLOWERS REVEAL BETROTHAL NEWS

Engagement Of Jeanne Wilson Is Told At Luncheon

Daisies won't tell, but bachelor buttons will, and did reveal the betrothal of Jeanne Curtis Wilson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Erwin Wilson of Goodhue road, to Robert Bercry Hargreaves, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert C. Hargreaves of Cranbrook road.

Miss Wilson announced her engagement Friday at a luncheon at Bloomfield Hills Country Club. The names of the betrothed pair were inscribed on the white table cover with bachelor buttons. In the center and at either end of the table were tall vases of blue and white delphinium. Marking the places for the guests were small corsage bouquets of blue and white flowers.

Guests at the luncheon were Betty Anderson, Virginia Hills, Sally Davis, Catherine Wilson, Janet Forbush, Kathleen Belkhap, Barbara Brehm, Ann Sherman, Peggy Lighter, Ann Keller, Betty Bird, Frances Morley, Carolyn Barnes, Lucille Wilson, Mrs. Thomas E. Wilson, Ruth Hargreaves, Jane Alexander, June Botsford, Priscilla Angstman, Dorothy Herbst, Olive Cross, Mrs. Hargreaves, Mrs. Wilson, Mrs. Roger Emmert, Mrs. Earl D. Rutherford and Mrs. Fred Mixer.

Miss Wilson attended Kingswood School Cranbrook and Sarah Lawrence College. Mr. Hargreaves attended Kent School and was graduated from Cranbrook School. The wedding will take place sometime in March.

'Betty' Neal and 'Tom' Usher Wed At Ceremony in Detroit Church

Hanna Elizabeth Neal, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Thomas A. Neal of Detroit, and Thomas J. Usher, III, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas J. Usher, Jr., of Linden road, spoke their vows Saturday afternoon at a ceremony in Christ Lutheran church, Detroit. The Rev. Theodore Wuggazer of Redeemer Lutheran church in Birmingham, read the marriage service at 4:30 o'clock, assisted by the Rev. Harry Olsen.

The bride's gown of ivory satin was dignified in its simplicity, fashioned on princess lines, with square-cut neckline and sleeves puffed to the elbow. Tiny satin-covered buttons extended down the back of the close-fitting bodice. The long bridal veil of ivory tulle reached the length of the sweeping train, falling from a lace cap adorned with rosettes of orange blossoms. She carried a Colonial bouquet of gardenias, white larkspur and lilies of the valley.

Rosemary Neal, who attended her sister as maid of honor, wore a gown of Heaven blue mousseline de soie, made redingote style. Her hat was a wide-brimmed horsehair model trimmed with streamers matching the blue of the gown. A bouquet of blue larkspur and daisies completed the costume.

The gowns of the four bridesmaids were identical in design and material, differing only in color. All were made of mousseline de soie, on redingote lines. Mary Clare Starr's frock was green and her flowers, yellow larkspur and daisies. Mrs. George Lambrecht's gown was pink and her flowers were pink larkspur and daisies; Barbara Louise Neal, cousin of the bride, wore aqua marine in her gown, and carried pale blue larkspur and daisies. Mary Annabelle Neal, another cousin, wore a frock of yellow, and carried yellow larkspur and daisies. Like the honor maid, the bridesmaids wore large horsehair hats with streamers to match their gowns.

Mrs. Neal chose for her daughter's wedding, a gown of bud pink lace over pale pink satin, with which she wore a pink net hat trimmed with pink gardenias and a corsage of daisies. Mrs. Usher wore a gown of Nile green mousseline de soie, and a leghorn hat trimmed with daisies matching those in her corsage.

For the reception at the Whittier Hotel following the ceremony, the color scheme of green and white was carried out in disposals of madonna lilies. The bride's table was covered with a lace cloth and centered with the bride's cake. On either side were bowls containing lilies and gladioli and ivory tapers in crystal holders.

Mr. and Mrs. Usher left after the ceremony on a cruise to Georgian Bay. For traveling, the bride wore a white crepe frock and coat of navy blue crepe, a navy blue felt hat and accessories to match.

On their return, Mr. and Mrs. Usher will make their home in Detroit.

VOWS ARE SPOKEN IN HILLS CHAPEL

Bridal Pair To Make Home In Chicago After Ten-Day Wedding Trip

Before an altar banked with yellow and white flowers, with the traditional white tapers burning at each side, Constance Weller became the bride of Donald E. Moysey at 5:30 Saturday afternoon in St. Dunstan's chapel of Christ Church Cranbrook. The Rev. W. Hamilton Aulenbach read the service before a small group of relatives and close friends of the bridal couple.

Miss Weller chose a white mousseline de soie gown for the occasion, worn redingote style over a white taffeta slip, with a full skirt, forming a slight train in the back. Her full finger-tip veil was caught at the sides with a halo of orange blossoms. Louise Weller, the bride's sister, was her only attendant. She wore a blue organza gown fashioned on princess lines, and a coronet of matching flowers. Her flowers were Johanna Hill roses.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Russel D. Weller, of Belleville Ont. She has made her home in Birmingham for the past few years with her aunt, Mrs. J. H. Sills, of Linden road. For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Weller chose a navy and white silk costume, over which she wore a navy redingtote. Her accessories were white, and she wore white gardenias.

Mr. Moysey is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Moysey, of Chicago. Mrs. Moysey chose for the occasion a beige crepe suit, and her flowers were Johanna Hill roses. N. H. Moysey, of Dorchester road, brother of the bridegroom, was best man at the ceremony.

Following the service a reception was held at the home of Mrs. Sills. The bridal couple left by motor for a ten day trip to Lake Michigan, after which they plan to make their home in Chicago.

Money Spent For Sugar For Canning and Preserving Fruits Is A Wise Investment

The money spent for sugar in the canning season is well spent. A shelf full of clean and sparkling jellies, spiced fruits and preserves has many a time proved a godsend to a busy housewife when unexpected guests arrive.

Pickled Crab Apples

6 pounds of crab apples.
1 quart cider vinegar.
3 cups sugar.
1 tablespoon cloves—heads removed.
2 sticks cinnamon, broken in pieces.

Wash the crab apples and remove any spotted ones. Boil vinegar, sugar and spices together until the syrup is clear. Add about half the apples and cook until tender—about 2 minutes. Pour in jars and seal. Repeat with rest of apples.

Pickled Watermelon Rind

Peel and slice rather thick rind from watermelon and cut into cubes. Let stand overnight, covered with water to which 1 tablespoon of salt has been added for each quart. Drain. To each pound of rind use 1 thinly spiced lemon, 1-2 stick of cinnamon, broken in pieces, 1 pound of sugar and 2 cups of vinegar. Boil together until clear and thick. Seal in jars.

Mint Jelly.

Stand overnight 1 cup minced mint 1-2 cup water and 2 lbs. of sugar. Strain. Simmer 3 lbs of unpeeled apples in 4 cups of water till tender. Drain. Bring 5 cups apple juice to a rolling boil. Add water if needed. Stir in 1 package powdered fruit pectin, then add 7 cups sugar, boil at rolling boil 3 minutes. Remove from fire, add mint juice and green coloring. Skim and pour and seal.

Grape Jam.

Crush the grapes and separate the skins and pulp. Place the hulls in a closed vessel with one cup of water for every five pounds of grapes. Cook slowly until the hulls are tender. Heat the juice and pulp in another vessel until the pulp breaks down enough to liberate the seeds. Then put the pulp through a colander. Put the seedless pulp and hulls together. Add one pound of sugar to every two pounds of fresh fruit. Cook slowly until thick. Pack and seal in hot sterilized jars.

Pear Marmalade.

1 peck of pears, grated.
5 pounds of sugar.
1 quart of grated pineapple.
1 pint of Maraschino cherries.

Mix pears and sugar, boil three hours. Add pineapple and cherries, which have been cut fine. Cook five minutes, put in jars and seal.

Plum Jelly.

4 cups plum juice.
7 1-2 cups sugar.
1-2 cup liquid fruit pectin.

Crush thoroughly 4 pounds fully ripe plums without peeling or pitting them; add 1 cup of water, bring to a boil, cover and simmer 10 minutes. Place in Jelly cloth and squeeze out the juice which should be 4 cups. Measure the juice and sugar into a large saucepan and mix. Bring to a boil over full heat and at once add liquid pectin, stirring constantly. Then bring to a full rolling boil and boil hard 1-2 minute. Remove from fire, skim and pour quickly into clean hot glasses. Paraffin with a thin layer. When cold add a second coating of paraffin. Makes about 11 eight-ounce glasses.

Ginger Watermelon Preserves.

Cut rind into squares, to each pound of rind add 2 quarts of water and 1 ounce of slacked lime. Let stand in limewater overnight. Drain, let stand in fresh cold water 2 hours. Drain well and boil rapidly in strong ginger tea (1 ounce of ginger to 1 quart of water) for 15 minutes. Drain and put into a syrup, made by using 1 pint of strained ginger tea with 1 quart of water and 1 1-2 lbs. of sugar. Cook until transparent and tender. After boiling 1-2 hour, add 1 sliced lemon. Seal while hot.

Sure.

Pat and Mike were duck hunting.

Pat saw a wild duck far overhead, and gave it both barrels. To his delight he saw the bird fall to the ground. "Ye wasted that powder, Pat," said Mike. Pat turned to Mike and said: "Didn't I get the bird?"

"Sure you did, Pat, but the fall would have killed him anyway."
