NUPTIALS TO BE READ OUTDOORS

Garden Of W. A. P. John Will Form Background For Quiet Wedding

A rehearsal dinner tomorrow night at the Bloomfield Hills Country Club will wind up the pre-nuptial affairs honoring Elizabeth Louise John, sister of W. A. P. John, of Tooting Lane, who is the house guest of her brother and sister-in-law. She will be married Saturday, at 8:00 P.M., in the John's garden, to Ludwig Allgaier, of Stuttgart, Germany.

Mrs. Arthur J. Brandt and Mrs. Harrison Stringham entertained at tea for the bride-elect last week, in the Brandt home, on Kenneway avenue. A miniature bridal procession, centered the table, which was given added beauty with tall white tapers burning at each end, surrounded by exquisitely arranged flowers in tiny white vases.

The Rev. Warner L. Forsyth will perform the ceremony, which will be attended by close friends and relatives of the bridal couple. Mrs. Frederic Wilson, of Marquette, will be Miss John's matron of honor. Constance and Marjorie John, cousins of the bride, will act as junior bridesmaids, and Lloyd Moore, of Detroit, will act as best man for Mr. Allgaier.

White and crystal, augmented by the garden's blooms, will form the decorations for the ceremony and the small reception following it, to be held in the John house and garden. Following a wedding trip in Canada, the bride couple will make their home in Dearborn.

Mrs. T. H. Millington, of Park street, left Sunday to join her sister, Dr. Alice S. Houston, at the Stout Institute, Menomonie, Wisconsin. From there they will motor through the Rockies to Vancouver, and down to coast through San Francisco and Los Angeles, where they will visit their other sisters.
