

CLASS RECEPTION HELD LAST NIGHT

Norman Lyle Is Toastmaster
At Annual Junior-Senior Affair

The Junior-Senior Reception, the biggest social event of the Baldwin school year, was held last night at the Community House. The affair opened at 12:30 p. m. with a dinner.

Norman Lyle, president of the Junior Class, acted as toastmaster. The pupils of Genevieve Gay's dancing class presented tap dances and members of the school orchestra offered an initiation of a German band. Between courses, Charlie Sargant played the piano and after dinner speeches were given by Principal Melvin C. Hart and Donald Clark, President of the Senior Class.

The remainder of the evening was spent in dancing to the music of Max Gail's orchestra. Nautical decorations were in evidence, with the background representative of a ship.

The following committees were in charge of the banquet: entertainment: Norman Lyle, chairman, Jim Todd, Joan Billings, Rhoda Medbury, Andy Watson and George Roundy; music: David McKinney; decorations: Mrs. Garfield chairman, Annette Lambie, Rhoda Medbury, Myra Jean Gray, Betty Beascher, Helen Stanger, Agnes Crawford, and Ruth Roberts; invitations and place cards: Mary Drury and Joan Campbell.

Social Briefs

Mrs. C. E. Ustick of Westwood drive was hostess Tuesday at an informal luncheon at the Fox and Hounds Inn for members of her bridge group. The guests included Mrs. E. D. Rutherford, Mrs. Carl Wahl, Mrs. Edgar T. Gossard, Mrs. H. A. Presing, Mrs. Arnold Shoop, Mrs. Norman James and Mrs. Clay E. Herbst. Mr. and Mrs. Hest have as their house guests for the week Mr. and Mrs. George B. Wiley, formerly of Birmingham, now of Highland Park, Ill.

Mrs. R. M. Barker of Lynchburg, Va., and her daughter, Ellen, arrived Tuesday to be the guests of Mrs. Barker's sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Jonathan M. Ball of Shirley drive for 10 days.

Mrs. Harry R. Cooley of Glenayre road has returned from Cedar Rapids, Ia., where she was the guest of relatives and former college classmates at Cornell University. After a visit of six weeks, she returned by way of Jackson, Adrian and Ann Arbor.

Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Peters moved Friday from their former home on Martell drive to their residence on Westwood drive.

Mrs. Sidney A. Wells and her daughter, Patricia, of Madison avenue returned Sunday from a fortnight's motor journey through New York State, to Washington D. C. and Virginia.

Mrs. Latta W. Porter of Baldwin avenue was hostess at luncheon Friday in honor of Mrs. Fay Mantell, who returned recently after spending the winter and early spring in Florida.

Virginia List, daughter of Mrs. John List of Barbours Terrace, returned Tuesday from Monticello College. She will sail in a party of 10 girls July 3, for two months in Europe. Under the Chaperonage of Miss Tekla Forsyth of Detroit, the party will visit Italy, Switzerland and London, England. Mrs. List will accompany her daughter to New York, where she will be the guest of friends in New Rochelle for a portion of the summer.

Mrs. Carl Flintermann and her son, Donald, of Lowell Court plan to leave July 3, for two months abroad.

Mr. and Mrs. Newman T. Halverson of Devonshire road left Sunday for an Eastern motor trip. They plan to spend several days in Washington, returning about June 20.

Mrs. John F. Horton of Pilgrim road entertained Friday at luncheon for 18 guests in honor of Miss Helen Ziegler of York, Pa., who is the guest of Mrs. Charles F. Dye of Lake Park drive. Miss Barbara F. Horton is expected home for the summer when the semester closes at the University of Michigan.

Carol Dweley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George M. Dweley of Bryn Mawr drive, and Julie Preston, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh A. Preston of Madison avenue, left Tuesday for motor to New York where they will be guests of Mrs. Frank Thompson and her sons, Norman and Frank Jr. They will attend June Week ceremonies at the United States Military Academy at West Point, and the June Hop Friday evening. Miss Dweley will be the guest of Cadet Anthony Wernuth, and Miss Preston of Cadet Kenneth Pearson, both of Philadelphia.

Fashion Tips

A white fitted coat of Shantung is smart over a black jersey dress.

One evening dress of white organdy has wide satin ribbon wrapped around the bodice and the waist and tied in a bow at the back.

A cape of pleated tulle gives a feminine touch to a slim gown of the same color in crepe-satin.

Many of the suits in the mid season showing have jackets of fingertip length. Three quarter length jackets are still popular.

Deep vestes of organdy or mousseline de silk are shown in dark crepe dresses.
