

CORONETS TO GIVE
7TH ANNUAL DANCEBirmingham Golf Club Will
Be Scene Of Celebration
Friday Evening

The first seven years may be the hardest, but the Coronet Club has survived them all. The seventh anniversary of its social career will be celebrated Friday evening at a dance at the Birmingham Golf Club. There will be a dinner for members and their escorts preceding the dance.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold A. Dick, Mr. and Mrs. Gardner M. Cobb and Mr. and Mrs. John E. Gay are chaperoning the party. The club is much concerned with the dress and decorations and all the other odds and ends involved in a seventh annual dance. Looking after these details are Mayan Gracey, Yvonne Gay, Evelyn Raggy, and Patricia Williams. In charge of publicity for the fair are Dorothy Trump, Louise Bell, Katherine Wygant, Betty Dick, Edward Watkins, Sylvia Jean Gracey, Edward Puran, Nancy Fisher, Arthur F. A. n d, Yvonne Gay, Fred Hwarze, June Babcock, Bob Hobb, Jean Hovell, Bill Pollock, Christine Wygant, Bud Adams, Marilyn Prussing, Neil Stark, neevie Gay, Glenn Heaver, ances Burroughs, James Duns, Dorothy Trump and George y.

Ulenbach Talks On Giving, Not Losing

The Reverend W. Hamilton Ulenbach will speak on "I Didn't as I Gave It, or Speaking a Word for America," Sunday, June 20, at 11:00 a. m., at Christ Church, Cranbrook. This sermon, has been announced, is an effort point the way towards thinking terms of what politicians, business men, laborers, students and other citizens of the United States can give to their country, rather than what they can get out of it.

Other announcements from Christ Church state that there will be no church school until September. The vespers service will also be discontinued until September, the end of this month.

SOCIAL BRIEFS

Kathryn Walton entertained a group of friends at dinner Friday evening at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas R. Walton of Riverchase road, in honor of her guest, Nancy Butcher of Ottawa Hills, near Toledo, O. Besides Miss Butcher, the guests were Mary Cowap, Bob Donaldson, Tim Walton and Frank Kaskel. Following the dinner, Miss Walton took her guests to the D. B. S. dance at the Community House. Miss Butcher returned Tuesday to her home, accompanied by Marjorie Walton. The same day Mrs. Walton had as her guests for luncheon and bridge, Mrs. Carl Rupp, Mrs. Webster H. Taylor, Mrs. E. J. Sichel, Mrs. Harold A. Dick, Mrs. David Babcock, Mrs. H. A. Listman, Mrs. Milton F. Coulson, and Mrs. Harry Cowap.

Mrs. Robert L. Robertson of Bloomfield Hills has as her house guest, her cousin, Miss Mildred Robertson of Montreal.

Mrs. R. L. Morrison of Monon Court entertained members of her bridge group at cocktails Tuesday evening, prior to a subscription dinner at Devon Gables. Mrs. Morrison's guests were Mrs. John Burke, Mrs. Dwight Harrison, Mrs. Louis Schrenk, Miss Ann Immen, Miss Fan Walley, Miss Crystal Lidstrom, Mrs. John Reid, Mrs. Jay Frazer and Mrs. O. Schwartz.

Mrs. W. Whiting Raymond and her daughter, Laura, will be hostesses Friday evening at the spinster dinner for Mrs. Raymond's niece, Barbara Jane Raymond, who will become the bride of Enoch Thomas White, Jr., Saturday. Mrs. Raymond's guests will include Mrs. Edward Gay Wasey and her daughter, Eleanor; Mrs. W. D. Buick and her daughter, Mary; Mrs. Henry Whiting Raymond, mother of the bride-elect; Mrs. Frederick L. Ward, Walley, Thomas Raymond of Petria, Ill.; Miss Betty Little of Detroit; and Mrs. W. D. Van Dusen.

Mrs. C. E. Brocklebank, Jr., of Madison avenue was hostess at tea Friday honoring Mrs. William H. Hoey. Mr. and Mrs. Hoey moved recently from Dayton, O., and are making their home in Franklin Village.

The Birmingham contingent from Denison University has arrived home to enjoy the vacation period. They are Mildred White, Mary Quinn, Dean Geier, Harry Stark, Thordylve Dweilley, Dick Kinnee, and Jim O'Rourke.

Mr. and Mrs. Draper Allen of Westwood drive left Tuesday for the East. Mrs. Allen planned to attend her class reunion at LaSalle Seminary.

Mrs. Frederick Sturmer of New York, formerly of Birmingham, returned Monday after a week's visit with Mr. and Mrs. John R. Heber of Roland drive. Mrs. Sturmer came on to attend the recent horse show.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Arthur Evans moved Saturday from their former home on Devonshire road to their new residence at 650 Lakeview drive.

Mrs. Frank Tyson of Williamsburg road, with her daughter, Mary Jean, and son, Robert, left Tuesday to visit relatives in New York City.

Patricia Robb of Cheboygan, Wis., will arrive today to be the guest of Esther Lee Mixer of Poppleton avenue. Both Miss Robb and Miss Mixer have been students at Smith College during the past year.

Mrs. Rufus B. Jones of Buckingham road left Wednesday to attend her class reunion at Wellesley College. Her son, Logan, who returned from Amburst College for the summer months, left the same day for Cincinnati, O., where he will be the guest of his grandmother, Mrs. Oliver Jones for a week's visit.

Mrs. Edith M. Forbush, Mrs. William M. Purves, and Mrs. Perry C. Hill have returned from Richmond, Va. and other southern cities, where they participated in the annual garden tour.

Mr. and Mrs. Legler Paxton have returned to Birmingham, and prior to make their residence here, are temporarily the guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. Robert F. Mosby of Westwood drive.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Vieri of Pleasant street were hosts at luncheon and dinner Friday in honor of Herr Gartner of Germany, who is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Kindy of Detroit.
