CRANBROOK WINS DUAL TRACK MEET

Lincoln High of Ferndale Defeated 59-45 as Holden Stars

The Cranbrook cinder artists defeated the tracksters from Lincoln High of Ferndale last Friday afternoon on the Cran's field, by the score of 59 to 45. The Cranbrook were sure of the meet when Carl Holden came within three inches of the record in the broad jump to push the Blue and Gray total over the half-way mark. Holden scored three firsts and a third was on the relay team, which ran a dead heat with Ferndale.

Lewis Smiley of Ferndale held the shot 45' 2" placing first and also setting a new Ferndale record. Allen of Ferndale second and Eschberger of Ferndale third.

Andy Hinshaw of Cranbrook getting off a bad start in the 120 high hurdles and handicapping himself further by cranking into the lead to beat Craig of Cranbrook who placed second. G. Phillips of Ferndale and Holden of Cranbrook tied for third. Time—1:09.

Holden scored two in the 100 yard dash. Rhien of Ferndale placed third. Time—1:06.

Fernale collected on all three places in the mile. Graham crossing the tape in fairly fast time at 4:50. Woodward second and Kowalski third.

In the 440 Williams of Ferndale first coming in behind Franklin of Cranbrook who was disqualified. Chamberlain of Cranbrook, second. Sorkman, Ferndale, third. Time—5:06.

Holden scored the bar at 7' 5" for a first in the high jump. Roe second and Jackson of Ferndale third.

Roger Oeming of Cranbrook vaulted 10' 9" for a first in the pole vault. Baltes and Phillips of Ferndale second and third.

In the 120 yard low hurdles Franklin of Cranbrook nipped out Hinshaw to place first. Phillips third. Time—1:43. Hinshaw's defeat was unexpected as he has been recently clocked at 1:39 and was aiming for a repeat.

Altman of Ferndale finished first in the 800 yard run. Rode of Cranbrook pulled up from the back to place second. Pallant of Ferndale third. Time—2:16.

Roe was the first to break the tape in the 220 yard dash. Sadler of Cranbrook a close second and Rhien of Ferndale third. Time—2:39.

Holden trying for a school record in the broad jump hit the dirt 20' 8 1/2" from the marker for another first. Dr. Phillips and Knopke of Ferndale second and third.

The two relay teams pounding the track at a fast clip finished in a dead heat. Time—1:56.3. Crane runners—Sadler, Holden, Roe, and Franklin. Lincoln High runners—G. Phillips, Smiley, Rhien, and Williams.

This was Cranbrook's last meet of the season. Ferndale will meet Birmingham Saturday.

SOCIETY INDUCTS NINE NEW MEMBERS

Baldwin Students Chosen For National Honor Society

The National Honor Society Induction Ceremony will be held Friday, June 4, at 1:15 o'clock in the Baldwin High School Auditorium.

At the beginning of the program the graduating members of the June Class will march in wearing caps and gowns and accompanied by the music of the Baldwin band. The induction ceremony will then be conducted by students from the Grosse Pointe Chapter. Those who will become members of the society are Clark Collins, Glen Kendall, Jane Hyde, Ruth Seager, Donald Clark, Bill Biggers, Caroline Giles, Clair Chapman, and Mildred Da Lee.

Exam Schedule Released
Final exams for Baldwin High School will be held on the mornings of June 7, 8, and 9. The afternoon will be reserved for the teachers to correct papers and record marks. Report cards will be issued Friday afternoon, June 11, at 1:00 o'clock, to senior high students and after the ninth grade assembly to junior high.

Track Meet Planned
The Inter-School Track Meet of Adams, Baldwin and Barnum Junior Highs will be held tomorrow night at Pierce Field. The events will be the fifty yard dash; the baseball throw for accuracy; the basketball throw; the running broad jump; the obstacle relay; and the dash and throw. Senior high girls and boys will participate.

9th Graders Entertained
Miss Elizabeth Hascall's 9A English class had a picnic at Springdale Park Friday, May 28, and attended the Royal Oak-Birmingham basketball game.

The Student Council had charge of the Assembly Program for Wednesday, May 28. It was a local talent program with David Cole, George Austin, Mary Gardner, and Allan Jones taking part. Bill Brown acted as master of ceremonies.

Robert Kishline gave a talk on "Snakes." Bill Stamp on "Stamps," and Fred Vici on "Safety First," to the 8B Homeroom Thursday, May 28.

Different members of the 9B told what sports they liked best and why for the Homeroom Program Thursday.

The 9A class had a swimming party at the Salt Water Pool, Tuesday. Miss Ackery chaperoned the party.

BALDWIN HIGH LIGHTS

Things and stuff have happened and are going to keep right on for just seven days. . . Reckon might as well break down on some footnotes of what I know. . .

First, did you have fun over Memorial Day? Margaret Cowap sure did. . . She sailed down to Jane Tremper's cottage at Lake Wauwesa, Indiana. . . Jean Ellis went to Chicago and Chris Smith found herself at Olivet College for the weekend. . . And speaking of college, people were home for last tres dias. (Spanish to you) . . . Marian Welcher was up to school

All done out in beige and black. . . Saw Amy Harrell in Detroit, Saturday, doing a bit of shopping. . .

An affair came off last night will worth mention. . . It was the Quill and Scroll Banquet thrown by Publications Club for people who have done much worthy work on the matter of writing for the Football Program and Pinar. . . Alice Batford arranged things out at Devon Gables and Doris Bricker, Adele Cole, Alice Painter, Elizabeth Richey and Katherine Wyant ran around in a ditch helping immensely with decorations and such. . .

Westwood Gardens in Detroit opened Saturday. . . As if you weren't in the know. . . Young of Birmingham tread measures of music there. . . You're going to be informed that Virginia Jim-nicht, Glen Kendall, Adele Nadell, Jim Lawler, Marilyn Ely, Bob Herr, Rhoda Medbury, Fred Ball, Dorothy Trump, Don Clark, Nancy Fluor and Jim Peabody were about. . . So there. . .

Was rambling around the Community House the other day. . . Heard ideas flying around between Mary Garfield and Annette Lambie. . . Finally was informed that those notions coming to my ears were for the Junior-Senior Reception which happens next Wednesday night. . . Community House to look right fine. . . Norm Lyle will be the toastmaster of the affair. . .

New for graduation. . . There's going to be one for the 113 Seniors. . . Annie's just one of the many. . . And as all things come to an end, so it is with this column. . . So Annie will just say El Fin for the last, last time. . .
