HILLS GROUP WILL SPONSOR RECITAL

New York Soprano Will Be Heard in Repertory Of Classic Songs

A musical event of note in the song recital in which Hildegard Lasell, New York soprano, will be heard Monday evening, April 5, at the Community House. The concert will be sponsored by the West Bloomfield Hills Unit of the League of Catholic Women for the benefit of that organization. Miss Lasell will include in her repertory compositions by Schubert, Puccini, Brahms, Debussy, Fauré, Gounod, Verdi, Wagner, and La Forge. In charge of arrangements for the concert is a committee of which Mrs. William A. Kennedy is general chairman, assisted by Mrs. Joseph A. Braun, Mrs. George Dumas, Mrs. Charles Brady, Mrs. Kenzie Smith and Miss Winona Swayne.

Hems are scalloped, appliqued with lace and flowers and sometimes split.

Girl Scouts To Celebrate 25th Birthday With Dinner, Court

Birmingham's share in the nation-wide celebration of the 25th birthday of Girl Scouts in the United States, will be a dinner Friday evening at the Community House. This spring Court of Awards will follow the dinner, as part of the anniversary observance. The Girl Scout organization was founded in this country by Mrs. Juliet Gordon Low in 1912 based on the Girl Guiding movement introduced in England by Lord Baden-Powell, founder of Boy Scouting. Mrs. Low determined to establish a similar organization in this country, and devoted her life to the movement. The success of the first 25 years will be evident in the extensive plans throughout the country for observance of the movement's quarter-century anniversary. Mrs. Clarence G. Heintzler is in charge of arrangements for the dinner. Tables for the gala event will be decorated in the Girl Scout

SATURDAY CLUB TO END YEAR'S WORK

Classes Will Be Open To Visitors At Closing Session

The Saturday Club, sponsored by the Birmingham Branch of the American Association of University Women, as a recreation project for children between the ages of eight and 10 years, will close its season Saturday afternoon with a final program. All groups will convene at 1:30 p. m. for a half hour period, which will be open to parents and friends. The classes in session will be in wood and metal work, art, clay modeling, puppetry, folk dancing, sewing, knitting, and home nursing. General exhibits of the work done by the children this season, will be on display in the various rooms. At 2 p. m. demonstrations will be given in the auditorium by the folk dancing groups under the direction of Mrs. Fred D. Farrar and by the home nursing group, directed by Mrs. B. E. Noyes. There will be a puppet show of Cinderella also, staged by the girls in puppetry under the direction of Harry Macy Jr. A brief address on the work done by the Club and on the demonstrations to be given, will be made by Howard D. Crull, superintendent of schools, in introducing the different groups. Work done by children attending the Saturday Club, at the Bush chain Room of the House.
